BIG ATTENDANCE ASKED AT MARINE STREET CONCERT

In order that the men of the marine band from the Klamath Falls barracks may have a hearty welcome in Medford Monday, members of the Elks Lodge and the county war finance committee yesterday urged everyone to attend the street concert, scheduled for 4:30 p. m. In addition, it is hoped that a capacity audience will be at the Holly theater in the evening for the concert and film showing. Tickets are available only on purchase of "E" bonds of any denomination.

The band is to parade from the Elks club to Main street and the concert will be given on the street between the two Medford banks. Both banks will be open from 4 to 5 p. m., for the purchase of bonds.

In the evening the band, every member of which is an overseas veteran, will open the theatre program and numbers will be given by a 16-piece orchestra taken from the band. There will be a variety of feature numbers, including solos and comedy spots. Featured will be Sgt. William B. Fields, hero of Saipan; Sgt. Talbot Vogler Bougainville hero, Carl Nagel, Cookie Blanchard, Art Schlenker and Collin Romoff, the latter a corporal known as "the nose" who stages a comedy act said to be overwhelmingly funny.

Appearance of the band here is being arranged jointly by the Elks lodge and the county war finance committee to support the Seventh War Loan drive.

ARMY QUITS PLAN TO DRAFT NURSES

Washington, May 26 — (U.P.) — The army dropped its demand for a nurse draft coincident with a proposal tonight from a veterans organization that it adopt a more liberal policy for discharging older men and those with large families.

The army decision on the nurse draft was disclosed by Chairman Albert D. Thomas, D. Utah, of the Senate Military Affairs committee, who made public a letter from Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson. The letter said the War department was abandoning its proposal to draft nurses because of "the rapidly changing circumstances of the past six weeks."

JAPANESE LEAVE CHINA PROVINCES

Chungking, May 26 — (U.P.) — The Japanese have withdrawn three divisions from Hunan, Honan and Kwangsi provinces in central China, a Chinese military spokesman announced today.

THE GRANGE

Jacksonville Grange met May 22 with Master Ike Dunford in the chair.

An agricultural report was made by Henry Conger, who gave an interesting report of his recent trip to several Co-Op's in Washington.

In an education report, G. B. Goddard told about the world's strangest garden on Ascension Island and also gave some interesting information on the Japanese balloons recently reported to have landed on the west coast.

The agriculture committee provided the program after which refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold and Mary Kelly.

Driving a car with tires below recommended pressure not only results in more rapid tire wear, but wastes gasoline because more power is needed to move the car.

YANK CASUALTIES LISTED AT 81,754

Washington, May 26 — (U.P.) — The Philippines and Okinawa campaigns thus far has cost the army and navy more than 81,754 casualties, a survey of latest reports disclosed tonight.

In the Philippines, the latest compilation showed army casualties including 10,432 killed, 35,699 wounded, and 507 missing. Navy casualties suffered in Philippine waters are not available. Casualties on Okinawa through the middle of this week were:

Army: 3,706 killed and missing and 13,910 wounded.

Marines: 1,626 killed and missing and 7,433 wounded.

Navy (including operations in support of the Okinawa campaign) 4,270 killed and missing and 4,171 wounded.

War Nursery and 'Outpost' Get Fund

To aid with preparation of the budget of the Outpost, Mrs. Helen Spliid of Portland, representative of the Federal Works agency, was in Medford last week. Mrs. Spliid stated while here that while federal funds for civilian agencies were being heavily curtailed, recreation centers for servicemen would continue to receive federal assistance.

In addition to the Outpost one other agency, the war nursery, received funds through the war community service branch of the Federal Works agency.

Corvallis Naval Air Base to Open

Seattle, May 26 — (U.P.) — Another U. S. naval auxiliary station will become available for training fleet air squadrons after June 1 at Corvallis, Ore.

The Corvallis station, which has been operating a year as a marine corps air facility, will be placed under direction of naval air base authorities of the thirteenth naval district. This redesignation was authorized by the secretary of the navy.

Are your Brakes Safe?

FORD OWNERS—MAKE THIS EASY 60-SECOND BRAKE TEST

SAFE: Two or more inches clearance between the bottom of your brake pedal and the floorboard normally indicates good brakes... which should completely stop your car within 30 feet or less when traveling at 20 miles per hour.

UNSAFE: If the clearance between the bottom of your brake pedal and the floorboard is one inch or less, your brakes are not safe... perhaps dangerous! To overcome this trouble, bring your car in for correction NOW.
