Word Is Received From Valley Men

Word has been received from two valley soldiers stationed in Germany. On April 25 Pfc. Leon Evans suffered his second wound while serving in the European theater. He received a fractured skull and head lacerations. According to word received here he was in the second vehicle to reach the Rhine river in the Allies' drive on that German stronghold. He is the son of Mrs. Barbara Evans, Central Point.

Cpl. Bill Jones, son of Mrs. Elsie Jones of Medford, was wounded the week of April 18. He was shot through the foot in the battle for Speyer. Both men are attached to Co. B, 56th armored division.
