

Coast Leaguers Close In on Portland Beavers

By United Press
The Pacific Coast league baseball race that two weeks ago had threatened to become a runaway, has developed into an old-fashioned knock-down, drag-out battle with the leaders slipping and the challengers closing in for the kill.
After holding a six-game edge over second-place Seattle as of May 7, the Portland Beavers have been shoved all over the lot and finished this week by dropping a 4-2 series to the on-cloakly San Francisco Seals. The result is that the manager Marv Owen's club now holds only a one-half game advantage over the rising Seattle Rainiers.
And close on the heels of the Rainiers are the Oakland Acons just four games from the top.
Yesterday the Beavers played only one game, due to wet grounds, and they proceeded to drop that to the Seals, who finished on a high note by scoring five runs in the ninth for an 8-4 win. Meanwhile Seattle was plastering Los Angeles twice, 6-2 and 8-2; Oakland split with San Diego, winning the first, 4-3, and dropping the nightcap in two extra innings, 9-8; and Hollywood and Sacramento divided, 6-2 for the Stars in the first and 3-0 for the Sacs in the second.

CONGRESS MEDAL HERO TAKES BOW

Lucedale, Miss., May 28.—(U.P.)—The biggest military wedding ever planned in Lucedale was called off today because the principals were on their honeymoon.
Sgt. Jake Lindsey, national hero, and his Yankee sweetheart, Beverly Hargreaves, preferred a simple wedding with a few friends standing by to a procession beneath an arch of crossed swords. They took the vows yesterday afternoon, a day in advance of schedule.
The marriage surprised almost everybody. It was solemnized at 2:30 p.m. in the home of a family friend, the Rev. William Fulham, Methodist minister.

New York, May 28.—(U.P.)—Morton Cooper's American league jinx still plagued him today—his four-hit shutout debut with the Braves rated only second billing in Boston because the incredible Dave Ferriss of the Red Sox topped that performance with a one-hitter.

Cooper always has had trouble with the American league in World Series and all-star games, so it was no surprise that even with a 4 to 0 triumph over Cincinnati he was hexed out of the headlines by Ferriss, who gave the White Sox just one dinky single in winning, 7 to 0.

Team mate Emmet O'Neill gave Ferriss a run for his money, holding the White Sox to two hits in a 2 to 1 second game victory. The defeats ran Chicago's losing streak to six.

Cooper, purchased from the Cardinals last week, worked his fork ball to near perfection against the Reds. Only one player reached third base and he struck out eight. Bucky Walters countered Cooper's fine work, winning the second game, 5 to 0, and holding the Braves to three hits, for his best effort of the season.

It was a rough Sunday for last year's champions, both the Cards and Browns losing double headers. The humiliation was worse for the Cards, who lost to the last place Phillies at St. Louis, 2 to 0 and 3 to 2.

The Yankees ran their winning streak to seven games and increased their league lead to a game and a half by besting the Browns twice in the rain, 10 to 9 in 14 innings, and 3 to 1 in an eight inning second game called because of darkness.

The Pirates defeated the New York Giants in the National, beating the league leaders, 16 to 4, in the first game and leading them, 10 to 5, in a suspended second game, called in the eighth because of the Pennsylv-vania curfew. The unfinished game will be completed today.

The Cubs won and tied against the Dodgers at Chicago, taking the opener, 6 to 1. The second game ended in a 2-all deadlock when darkness halted proceedings in the eighth.

The Tigers and Senators divided at Washington, Detroit winning, 3 to 1, behind Hal Newhouser's nine-hit pitching while Mickey Haefner countered with to 3, at Philadelphia. The second game was rained out.
