

HENRY GALEY OF ASHLAND HEADS NEW GRAND JURY

A new grand jury was drawn in circuit court this morning during opening session of the May term. A special venire of petit jurors was also drawn. Serving on the grand jury will be Henry C. Galey, Ashland, foreman; Gertrude Stanley, Eagle Point; Leola Faber, Central Point; Allen D. Curry, Medford; Gertrude Brower, Ashland; Dorothy A. Bennett, Medford; and Clyde N. Caton, Ashland. There being no matters for consideration, the grand jury adjourned for the time being. The special venire was drawn

Mrs. Brown's cook started it. She quit. But it was a real estate agent—a woman as it happened—who did the rest. It was because of her a Navy wife and two children found a home—exactly one jump from a park bench. And, altogether, nine others!

You see, when Mrs. Brown's cook left, it finally became possible to convince Mrs. Brown she couldn't keep that big house going single-handed. Miss Green, the agent, induced her to sell by finding her a small apartment she knew would be vacated because Mr. Black was being transferred to another city.

With a fourth baby coming, the Whites were desperate for more room. Miss Green, the agent, flashed them word about Mrs. Brown's house. That's how come the Navy wife, through Miss Green, got the Whites' flat.

In this many-sided deal, Miss Green arranged a bank loan, provided the latest government information about remodeling, somehow managed transportation for these clients on almost no gasoline—and kept the whole works moving with that fine salesmanship that is really service.

We hate to think what shape the housing situation would be in but for the helpfulness of the real estate people. In the course of making a living, they've made it possible for thousands to say "There's no place like home" instead of just "There's no place."

Nothing is simple any more. Yet few things are more complex than the housing situation. So many individuals are involved—and so many war-time pressures. We speak for many thankful clients when we say the real estate agents are doing an important job—in bang-up fashion.

NAZI CRIMINALS TO GO ON TRIAL IN 'A FEW WEEKS'

Paris, May 28 — (UP) — U. S. Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson said today that the first Nazi war criminals may be placed on trial "within a few weeks."

Jackson, chief American prosecutor of Axis war criminals, would not say who the first defendants would be. Neither could he fix an exact date for the start of the trials.

He said he was engaged in preparing evidence for the trials, which he said he hoped would be heard by an international military tribunal representing the four principal powers—the United States, Russia, Britain and France.

London, May 28 — (UP) — Two more Nazi bigwigs, one of them the successor to Reichsmarshal Herman Goering as commander of the German air force, were dead by their own hands today.

The two latest Nazis to follow Himmler in suicide were Marshal Robert Ritter von Greim, who succeeded Goering as commander of the Luftwaffe April 26, and Dr. Hugo Jury, gauleiter of lower Austria and former social welfare minister in the notorious Seyss-Inquart government of Austria.

SOLDIER WHO HIT NAZIS NOW FREE

Fort Devens, Mass., May 28 — (UP) — Pvt. Joseph McGee of Worcester, back on army duty today after the revocation of his court-martial sentence, said the German prisoners "deserved it, and I'd do it again."

McGee said he had no complaints against the army and would remain in it at least until the end of the Japanese war.

The 23-year-old soldier, who was dishonorably discharged and given two years at hard labor for striking nine German prisoners of war in France, received a hero's welcome when he arrived at his home in Worcester yesterday. He spent the evening with his family and friends and returned to active duty here at midnight.

ADOLF RESPECTED STALIN'S ABILITY; ALSO HATED HIM

Berchtesgaden, May 28 — (UP) — Adolf Hitler respected Josef Stalin, but he certainly didn't like him, the Fuehrer's shorthand reporters said today.

When the Red army would score another victory over the Wehrmacht, Hitler would rant: "That old schwein put it over again. That fellow has strong nerves."

Schwein means pig.

Gerhardt Hergelesle and other official shorthand reporters said that Hitler never wanted to meet Stalin, even when Germany and Russia had diplomatic relations with each other.

Hitler reportedly often said that if it hadn't been for Stalin "Russia would have been finished in 1941." Contrarily, Hitler believed until April 22, when he finally admitted that war was lost, that he still could beat Russia.

The stenographers said that at least three times a day in the weeks before the Russian's final offensive, Hitler said: "It is my holiest conviction that the Russians will suffer the greatest defeat in history on the Oder."

They said that Hitler was very angry when Field Marshal Friedrich Von Paulus let himself be taken prisoner at Stalingrad. He thought Von Paulus should have shot himself in preference to captivity.

Hitler, perhaps significantly, said, "I, myself, would have taken a pistol and shot myself." Again last April, he was quoted as saying, "If ever I am in danger of being captured by the Russians, I shall take a pistol and shoot myself."
