Appointed—Letitia Riddle of Medford has been appointed administrator of the estate of her sister, Hattie Gilson Logan, who died April 26 at the age of 79 years. A friend, Amy Dow of Jacksonville, was first appointed administrator but resigned upon the return of Mrs. Riddle to the city.

Aides to March—All members of the Red Cross Nurses Aide corps are asked to meet at the lobby of the Medford hotel Wednesday at 9:45 a. m. to march in the annual Memorial day parade. Members are asked to be in uniform. It is stated that the group need not assemble if it is storming.

Group to Meet—The service group of the Local Officers' Wives club will meet tonight at the Outpost at 8 p. m. to sew and knit for refugee children. All members interested are urged to attend this meeting and to bring yarn, old felt, darning needles and scissors with which to make booties.

Gleason and small son, David, have arrived in Medford from Portland and will reside here in the future. Mrs. Gleason's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gleason, live on the New Crater Lake highway, and her husband, Lt. (jg) Gleason, a fighter pilot with the navy, is now in the South Pacific. Lt. Gleason's brother, Sgt. Royal E. Gleason, overseas for three years, is now in the Philippine Islands with the signal corps of the Fifth AAF.

Firemen Called—Firemen were called to Brown's cafe, Front and Main streets, yesterday afternoon to aid in repairing a broken refrigerator line. According to firemen little damage was done.

Wrecked Car Found—State police reported today that they recovered a car reportedly stolen from Arthur Davis, Ashland. The car was found wrecked, burned and stripped in a ditch along Highway 99 near Burgoynes.

To Hold Sale—The social club of Adalee chapter No. 3, O.E.S., of Jacksonville, will hold a rummage sale June 2 at the Masonic building, West Main and Holly street, beginning at 9 a. m. It is stated that a limited number of new, outting flannel baby garments and tea towels will be on sale.

BABE'S PATERNITY NOTHING TO NICK
Kansas City, Mo., May 29—(U.P.)—Nick Pappas, 53-year-old restaurant chef, said today he didn't care how many children his wife had by a Marine who died on Iwo Jima "because I love her and I'm going to take her back."

While Mrs. Jean Pappas, attractive 22-year-old Oklahoman who married him five years ago out of sympathy for a widower with two children awaited his visit at General Hospital. Mrs. Pappas plunged from a fifth story window at Research hospital to be with "Church," the Marine she said was the father of her two children. But she landed on a pile of soft earth and suffered only a broken left shoulder.

PHYSICALLY FIT TO GO OVERSEAS
New York, May 29—(U.P.)—Maj. Gen. James A. Ullo, adjutant general of the army, said every physically fit soldier in the United States who has not been overseas will be assigned to foreign service before he is discharged.

Ullo said the army is trying to speed the return of soldiers to civilian life but considers the war against Japan more important than partial demobilization. The army, he said, will not ask any GI "to lay down his life in order that another American soldier may return home a few days sooner."

Ullo addressed a meeting of the Advertising Men's Post, 209, American Legion yesterday.

OKAY FLOOD RELIEF
Washington, May 29—(U.P.)—The senate today passed and sent to the White House for President Truman's approval a bill appropriating $12,000,000 for emergency flood relief.
