CHURCHES OF CITY PLAN SUMMER VACATION SCHOOLS

The Medford Ministerial association through its committee chairman, Dr. Louis C. Kirby, announced today that many churches of the city have planned to conduct a vacation Bible school beginning Monday, June 4, and continuing through June 15.

Devotions and class work, consisting of studies in the Bible, missions, handicraft and recreation will be held every day from 9 to 11:30 a. m. Many of the churches, also plan a picnic on Friday, June 15, and a demonstration service in the church showing the kind of work done during the Bible school sessions. There will be classes for children from the nursery through the junior high grades.

Parents of the community are urged by the committee to select a school and send their children regularly each day for instruction.

NAZARENE VACATION SCHOOL IS SCHEDULED

Daily vacation Bible school classes will begin next Monday at 9 a. m. at the Church of the Nazarene, corner of 1st and Holly streets with Mrs. Dora Mae Shepard as director.

Mrs. Shepard, who comes from Burns, Ore., has had rich experience in teaching both in public schools and also in conducting city-wide vacation Bible schools, according to the church announcement.

Classes will begin at 9 each morning and continue to 12 o'clock. Handwork classes will be provided and special courses in music, memory-work and Bible note-book work with pictures will be featured daily.

ST. PETER'S LUTHERAN SLATES BIBLE SCHOOL

St. Peter's Lutheran Church, corner East Main and Portland avenue, will again sponsor a vacation Bible school, June 4 to June 15. Sessions will be held each day, Mondays through Fridays from 9 to noon, with classes for children four to 15 years of age.

A staff of competent teachers has been selected, according to the announcement. Courses will be given in Bible history, a memory course on Bible passages, commandments and the Apostles Creed, books of the Bible, and Biblical art. According to the pastor, Harry H. Young, if the film is available, the school will feature a movie on the Life of Christ. This film will also be shown to adults Thursday, June 7 at 8 p. m. No admission charge, but a silver offering will be taken to help pay the rental fee.

Christian Church Vacation School Will Open June 4

Daily vacation Bible school will be held by the First Christian church, Ninth and Oakdale, beginning June 4 and continuing through June 15, it was announced today. Sessions will be from 9 a. m. until 11:30 a. m. Monday through Friday.

Children will be divided into four groups. Theme for beginners will be "let's go out of doors," primary theme will be "exploring God's out of doors," juniors will study "discovering the Holy Land" and intermediates, "the life of Christ."

All children from beginner to the intermediate age not enrolled in Bible school elsewhere are invited to attend the school.

BRETHREN SPONSORING TALK ON WORLD PEACE

Mr. Orval Etter, of Eugene, state secretary for the Fellowship of Reconciliation, will speak Sunday at the Church of the Brethren. His 11 a. m. topic will be "The Current Quest for International Security" and will include an evaluation, from a religious point of view, of the Dumbarton Oaks proposals, and what is happening to them at the San Francisco conference.

At 3 p. m. Mr. Etter will meet an informal group to discuss current peace issues, the meeting being held in fellowship hall of the Christian church. Those interested are invited to hear Mr. Etter.

This covered wagon rides the clouds

North, South and East from Los Angeles, the sky roads of Western Air Lines arch over the West. Humming smoothly on Chevron Aviation Gasoline, Western's sturdy DC-3's skim trails Kit Carson broke as they bring swift air transportation to towns linked first by stage and covered wagon. Today, Chevron Aviation Gasoline brings extra power, range, dependability to war-busy planes like these. Tomorrow, there'll be a highway version of this famous-flying fuel to bring skyway performance to your car.
