Water is high and discolored for good trout fishing in Rogue river, according to Al Piche, whose weekly fishing report is provided in this column. Salmon are said to be numerous now in the upper river with two being taken at Casey Camp Tuesday. Big Butte creek is high but clear enough for egg or spinner fishing, Piche said. Best part of little Butte is around Lake Creek. Jenny creek is good but fish are small. Eggs and spinners are best lures.

Bass fishing is good on plugs and catfish are taking worms at Hyatt lake. Crapples have not yet started to bite. The road is muddy but passable. Best results at Emigrant lake can be obtained by trolling although catfish and rainbow may be taken from shore. Roads to Fish lake are in fair shape and fishing is beginning to improve.

Diamond lake was great on opening day and is expected to continue so throughout June. Trolling with Bone Fish or Plastic Claw lure, similar to Babe Oreno, brought best results. Flashers with worms are still the old reliable troll with best results obtained by rowing slowly.

Fishing is not good at Squaw lake due to high water. Roads are muddy and chains should be carried.

Coast Champ Beats "Gorgeous" Wagner

George Dusette turned back any claims to a title match which might be made by "Gorgeous" George Wagner when he stopped the self-styled gamour boy two falls to one in the main event at Medford armory last night. Dusette won the final fall on a foul when Wagner kicked Referee Earl Yoakley out of the ring. Kenny Ackles and Paavo Kantonen went to a draw in the semi-windup, each gaining a fall in a fast bout.

Antone Leone's rough tactics was too much for newcomer Speedy Maloney who lost the opener by two straight falls.
