

Society and Clubs

Chorus Announces Program Numbers For Friday Night

Program numbers for the musicale which members of the Rogue Valley chorus will present the evening of June 8 have been announced by Miss Mabel Nansen, chorus director. The musicale will be at the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Opening the program will be two chorus numbers, "Dear Land of Home," by Sibelius, and "America, the Beautiful," by Bates, Ward and Peery. Mrs. Oscar Clarke will then present a soprano solo and the following two chorus numbers will be "Sylvia" by Speaks and "Come to the Fair," Taylor, Martin.

Jean McAllister and Almus Pruitt will then be heard in two duet numbers, the first "Woodland Song" by Rubenstein and the second the duet from "Iolanthe" by Gilbert and Sullivan. "Wynken, Blynken and Nod," Nevin, will be given by the chorus and Harry Young will present a solo.

Dvork's "Goin' Home" will be sung by the mixed chorus and men of the chorus will sing "Stouthearted Men" by Romberg and "Medley from the South" arranged by Pike. "Ole Arks A-Moverin'" by Cain and "Listen to the Lambs," Dett, will be sung by the mixed chorus, with Mrs. Eleanor Hamilton assisting as soloist and closing numbers will be "Cherubim Song," Bortniansky, Tchaikovsky, and "Festival de Deum No. 7," Buck, by the mixed chorus.

About 30 voices make up the chorus. Singing in the soprano section are Margaret Ruth Bolton, Mrs. Oscar Clarke, Phyllis Corliss, Mrs. Eleanor Hamilton, Mrs. R. H. Mercer, Mrs. Grace Kirtley, Mrs. Vaughn Whitmore, Mrs. Margaret Daniels, Mrs. Imogene Smith, Jean Farley and Mary Lee Strang. In the alto section are Mrs. R. H. Corliss, Olive Curry, Mrs. Roy Eskew, Mrs. Jean McAllister, Elizabeth McGilliard, Mrs. Arthur McMullan, Mrs. G. F. Schneider and Mrs. Jeanne Whitehouse.

In the tenor section are Kenneth Denman, John Eby, A. J. McDonough, George Maddox, Henry Neidermeyer, Almus Pruitt, George Turney and La Vern Sutherland. The bass section is made up of Oscar Clarke, R. H. Mercer, A. A. Neff, Hugh McKenzie, Leslie Ternahan, C. G. Van Valzah and Harry Young. Mrs. John Eby is accompanist and Vera Smith is assistant accompanist, while Almus Pruitt is president of the group and Olive Curry is secretary and treasurer.

The University of Missouri now has 500,000 volumes in its library collection. The 500,000th book was an autographed copy of "The Iliad of Homer," as translated by William Benjamin Smith and Walter Miller.

Listen to the MUSICAL LOVE STORY of DICK and JEANNIE STATION KMED Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays at 3:30 p. m.; Wednesdays & Thursdays at 2:55 p. m. Sponsored by The Bakers of

Fluhrer's BREAD and CAKES

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

June 4 - 15

Medford Ministerial Association Speaks

Parents! The Churches of Medford are interested in your Boys and Girls. We want you to send them to one of the listed churches below, give them Christian training.

School Begins Monday 9:00 A.M. to 11:30

Classes for Nursery, Beginners, Juniors and Intermediates every day through Friday

Participating Churches:

English Lutheran Church	First Christian Church
Assembly of God	First Methodist Church
Church of the Brethren	First Presbyterian Church
Church of God	Free Methodist Church
Church of the Nazarene	Salvation Army

Miss Deatherage Engaged to Wed New York Student

Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Jeanne Deatherage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Nash of Klamath Falls, to Bernard Piels, Hastings-on-Hudson, New York, was made last Sunday at a gathering of University of California students at the Claremont Hotel, Berkeley. The wedding is to take place June 24 at St. Mark's Episcopal church here.

The bride-elect is well known here, having attended school in Medford and graduating with the class of 1944 from Medford senior high school. She is a sophomore at the University of California. Her fiancé, junior at the school, is a member of Phi Kappa Psi. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Piels, Hastings-on-Hudson.

Mrs. Nash was in Berkeley when the announcement party was held and then came north to Medford for a brief visit. She left Saturday for her home in Klamath Falls.

Meeting Tuesday Of Local Group Is One of Series

As part of a nationwide convention without travel, Medford branch of the American Association of University Women held a dinner meeting at the Holland Hotel Tuesday and heard, by transcription, addresses by the president of the association and other convention speakers. Votes will be cast by mail for the election of national officers and other convention business. This was the last meeting of the year for the group.

Heard during the program were Dr. Helen C. White, well known author and professor of English at the University of Wisconsin and national president of the association; Miss Freda Kirchwang, editor and publisher of the Nation, who delivered the main address, and Miss Marion Talbot, Chicago, 86-year-old founder of the original association. In addition a round-table discussion was heard with Dr. Margaret Mead, anthropologist; Dr. Mary Shattuck Fisher, Vassar college; Mrs. Agnes E. Meyers, wife of the publisher of the Washington Post and Captain Mildred McAfee, president of Wellesley College and organizer and director of the Waves participating.

The Medford meeting was presided over by Miss Helen Parish, branch president. She introduced Mrs. Robert Shepherd, newly elected state treasurer and local branch officers and announced chairmen of standing committees for the coming year. Reporting on the recent drive for Red Cross libraries overseas, Miss Parish stated that the quota had been met and the books had been shipped.

After discussion of education legislation, the branch voted to support the bill to be voted on at a special election this month and which provides for a tax on cigars for school support.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Adrian M. Lofland, Mrs. Vaughn Lockwood, Mrs. Phyllis Seldin and Mrs. Marvin Burke. Miss Dolores Anolphs entertained with two vocal selections, with Mrs. Effie Kurtz accompanying.

Chairman of the committee in charge of the dinner was Mrs. E. C. Niles and committee members were Mrs. Harry Dowson and Miss Margaret Anne Brown. Thirty-two were present for the affair.

Mrs. Kenneth Day is visitor in valley

A visitor in the valley at present is Mrs. Kenneth Day of Honolulu, Hawaii, who is spending a few weeks with relatives and friends in Ashland and Medford. Later Mrs. Day will meet her daughter, a student at the University of Oregon, and the two will return to the islands. Mrs. Day will be remembered here as the former Frances Hamlin.

Mrs. Kenneth Day is visitor in valley

A visitor in the valley at present is Mrs. Kenneth Day of Honolulu, Hawaii, who is spending a few weeks with relatives and friends in Ashland and Medford. Later Mrs. Day will meet her daughter, a student at the University of Oregon, and the two will return to the islands. Mrs. Day will be remembered here as the former Frances Hamlin.

Mrs. Kenneth Day is visitor in valley

Mrs. Kenneth Day is visitor in valley

Five generations of a Medford family were recently together at the home of Mrs. Herman Keeler, Route 2, Box 68. Shown here seated are Mrs. F. D. Reeves, Agate Beach, and her daughter, Mrs. Keeler; standing are Mrs. James Bales, 87, of Waldport, Ore., and Mrs. M. J. Williams, Medford, Mrs. Keeler's daughter. Mrs. Keeler is holding her grandson, Marvin Williams, aged eight months. Mrs. Bales is an Oregon pioneer, having come to Alsea valley from Iowa by wagon train when five years of age.

Tea at Academy To Honor Sisters Of School Staff

Women of Sacred Heart Catholic parish are entertaining this afternoon at a silver tea which will honor sisters of the Holy Names society on the staff of St. Mary's Academy here. The affair will be between the hours of three and five o'clock at the academy auditorium.

Committee chairmen helping to plan the tea are Mrs. H. J. Roemer, Mrs. Ed. Kelly, Mrs. Joseph Dugan, Mrs. Jane Swanson, Miss Gertrude Lewis and Mrs. R. A. Miksche. Pouring will be Mrs. Martha Morris, the Sister Superior of St. Mary's Academy, Mrs. Raymond Miksche and Mrs. Roemer.

A program of music and dancing will be given. It is stated that the public is cordially invited to attend the tea.

Job's Daughters Give Formal Ball To Honor Queen

Medford Bethel, Daughters of Job, entertained the evening of May 26 at the traditional Queen's Ball, the affair honoring Miss Nancy Swem, retiring queen of the Bethel. The formal dance was held at the Lincoln school gymnasium which had been decorated in a "sweetheart" theme carried out in red and white.

General chairman in charge of the dance was Miss Carmen Wright, who will succeed Miss Swem as Bethel queen. Assisting her were Miss Jean Zacharisen, decorations chairman; refreshments, Miss Pat Older; entertainment, Miss Margery Thompson; programs, Miss Phyllis Whitlock; patrons and patronesses, Miss Norma Stearns.

Formal installation of the new officers will be held later this summer.

Closing time for Classified Ads 8:30 a. m.—Too Late to Classify 12:15 p. m.

It's Not True You Know

The idea that you can't learn to play piano because you didn't take lessons in your teens—is all wrong. Examine our piano method books for adult beginners.

- Williams Older Beginner's Piano Book
- Carl Fischer Music Study For Adults.
- Oxford Beginner's Book For Older Pupils.
- Aaron Modern Approach.
- Turner's Ear Method.
- Paparelli Blues Method.
- Ellington Blues Method.
- Kahn Chord Construction and Popular Piano Playing
- Boogie Woogie Made Easy
- Beginner's Boogie Woogie.
- Stanford King Boogie Solos.

PRUITT'S Music Center Across from Rialto Theatre

Chicago Student Becomes Bride Of Lt. Don Herried

Of interest here is the news of the marriage of Lt. Don Herried, whose bride is the former Miss Joan Grace of Chicago. The ceremony took place May 15 at the Fourth Presbyterian church with Dr. Timothy Stone reading the service.

The bride is the daughter of John M. Grace, Chicago industrialist, and has recently been attending Lake Forest college on Lake Michigan, Ill.

Lt. Herried, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Herried of Euclid avenue, is a graduate of Medford high school and was associated with his father in business here prior to his entry into the service. He is now an instructor in the marine air corps and is stationed at the Glenview marine base near Chicago.

Lt. and Mrs. Herried are now making their home at 2136 Lincoln Park West in Chicago.

Miss Ballantyne Is Betrothed To Sam P. Holman

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Ballantyne of Vallejo, Calif., former residents of Medford, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Sam P. Holman, yeoman second class of the United States navy. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Ballantyne, who graduated from Medford high school with the class of 1943, will graduate from Sacramento Junior college this month. She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa. For the past two summers she has been employed at the Mare Island navy yard.

Mr. Holman is home on leave after 18 months in the South Pacific and upon expiration of the leave will attend yeoman school at San Diego, Calif., for four months.

The Ballantynes moved to Vallejo two years ago. Mr. Holman's parents reside in Dallas, Ore.

Faculty Members Luncheon Guests

Mrs. Harris Jones entertained members of the Roosevelt school faculty at her home on Capitol Hill Thursday for luncheon. She was assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Carleton Jones.

Guests were Miss Mae Menn, Mrs. Allie Maxwell, Miss Elizabeth Rice, Mrs. Anna B. Carter, Mrs. Jean Long, Mrs. Mary Coffin, Miss Kathleen Silver, Mrs. Patsy Brock, Mrs. Esther Fliegel, Mrs. Eleanor Hamilton and Miss Sara Van Meter.

PIANO is the basic musical instrument helpful in your child's future ability to ward any other music study, for example with the stringed instruments. BEGINNING AND ADVANCED piano summer classes.

Margaret Osenbrugge Phone 4256 711 E. Main

Closing time for Sunday Too Late to Classify 5:30 Saturday afternoon—Please remember

Miss Ellenburg To Become Bride In Near Future

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Chloe Ellenburg, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Ellenburg, 241 1/2 South Grape street, and the late Major W. H. Ellenburg, to Roland Mosby Broach, III, was made recently in Honolulu, Hawaii. Mr. Broach, boatswain's mate second class in the navy, is a son of the late Major and Mrs. R. M. Broach, Jr., of Tulsa, Okla.

Miss Ellenburg has been with the army air forces since 1942 as a gyroscopic technician, going to Hickam Field in August of 1944. She was formerly employed in the office of Gates and Lydiard here.

Mr. Broach, in the navy five years, is now with the naval air transport service.

The wedding will take place in the near future.

Posse and Troop To Drill Today

Members of the Sheriff's posse and the Ladies Mounted Troop are asked to meet this morning at the posse stables for drill. Pictures of both groups will be taken following drill and members are asked to wear full uniform.

Monday night women of the troop are to meet at the home of Mrs. O. H. Bengtson, 122 Oregon Terrace, at 8 o'clock, for a social evening and to welcome new members of the troop. It is stated that the meeting will be held regardless of weather, having previously been postponed.

Dew, or moisture, condensing on a car at night is especially harmful to the exterior finish.

BEAUTY SCHOOL SPECIALS

Permanent Wave	$3.00	$4.00
	$5.00	$6.00
	$8.00	$10.00

COLD WAVE $10.

Shampoo 50¢ and Hair Style 50¢

MEDFORD SCHOOL of BEAUTY CULTURE 235 E. Main

ADRIENNE'S

Prettiest Braims under the Sun

HAT Clearance

Not odds and ends—but smart styled floral trim straws and fabrics.

1/3 Off!

ONE GROUP of STRAWS Specially Priced NOW $5.00

SPECIAL

End of Spring Clearance of COATS and SUITS

Reduced to $22.98

GROCETERIA

Number 1 Sixth and Central

OPEN TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Like Thistle-down adrift

THE AIRINESS OF NEW PHOTO-FINISH FACE POWDER $1.50 per box

How long you've waited for it—perhaps unconsciously! Mist-light powder that gives your skin a clear, fine-textured glow—and clings so well there's no need to retouch and spoil it. Like Photo-Finish Cake Make-up, it's created "to invite close-ups." Six glowing shades.

TAYLOR'S PENNYWISE DRUGS

323 E. MAIN MEDFORD