LOCAL BOWLERS SLATE TOURNEY FOR BOND DRIVE

First reports from groups of Medford bowlers working in the Seventh war loan campaign indicate the ten-pin performers are wholeheartedly back of the effort to give the local bond drive another boost to reach the goal long before the deadline, according to Hugh Jennings of Medford alleys.

Although sales of bonds had not been tabulated following the third day of active campaigning, Helen Riggs and Earl Sims, co-chairmen of the combined general committee of the women's and men's divisions of the Medford Bowling Association, announced that over $20,000 had already been raised.

So great has been the response on the part of the bowlers that the tournament, which will climax the bond drive, will probably have to go into a second day to allow all participants to compete for the lengthy prize list of war bond and stamp awards, Jennings said.

To Start Monday
The tournament is scheduled for Monday, June 11, at the Medford Bowling Alleys, the women taking the drives at 7:30 p. m. in the opening squad. The first men's squad will go on the alleys at 9 o'clock the same evening, followed by another group at 10:30. If the entry list exceeds the capacity of the bowling house, additional entries will take to the lanes at the same hours June 12.

Play will consist of four games across eight alleys, on a handicap basis under American Bowling Congress competitive rules. All bowlers of Medford who have an established average are eligible to compete, as well as Camp White keglers, both military and civilian, who carry an average in regular league play at the camp.

NELSON 63

Chicago, June 5 — (U.P.) — The bell rang today for the 63rd round in the life of Battling Nelson, boxing's gallant lightweight champion of more than two decades ago. Nelson, born 63 years ago in Copenhagen, Denmark, now is a postal clerk in Chicago's main postoffice.

The people of the United States have built and manned most of the cargo ships that carry the materials to win the war on all fronts.

PORTLAND, SUDS BATTLE FOR TOP SPOT IN LEAGUE

By United Press
With slightly more than one-third of the schedule completed, the Pacific Coast League pennant chase has developed into a Portland-Seattle battle for first place—but that isn't keeping fans away from the ball parks.

The four Sunday games pulled in 47,842 paying customers, with San Francisco, as usual, drawing the largest crowd — 15,042 — at Seals Stadium. The fourth-place men of Lefty O'Doul should do very well financially again this week when they entertain the second-spot Seattle Rainiers.

The Oakland Aorns, still in third place six games from the top, visit Sacramento, while San Diego gets a chance to "entertain" the tailend Hollywood Stars.

The standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.	GB
Portland	39	24	.619
Seattle	36	26	.581	2½
Oakland	34	31	.523	6
San Francisco	31	32	.492	8
San Diego	32	34	.485	8½
Sacramento	31	33	.484	8½
Los Angeles	31	33	.484	8½
Hollywood	21	42	.333	18

GRESHAM TRACK OPENS TONIGHT

Gresham, Ore., June 5 — (U.P.) — Purses totaling $1900 were posted for tonight's opening of the Northwest Jockey Club 11-night horse racing program at the Multnomah County Fairgrounds here.

Feature event will be the inaugural, with $400 in prizes, and the last race on the eight-event program will carry a $300 purse, with $200 in prizes for each of six other events. The final event will be six furlongs, with the others scheduled for five. Most of the horses entered are new to Oregon tracks.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By United Press
Baltimore — George Kochan, 168, Akron, O., knocked out Reddy Evans, 169½, Hackensack, N. J., (8).

WEATHER

Northern California: Partly cloudy today, tonight and Wednesday. Light showers in mountains and a few light showers in northern valleys Wednesday. Little temperature change.

Iraq is one of the greatest oil-producing countries in the world.

VETERANS TO GET BASEBALL CHANCE

New York, June 5 — (U.P.) — Baseball's New Commissioner, Sen. Albert B. (Happy) Chandler, said today he would work with a committee of 12 from the Major and Minor Leagues to help readjust returning servicemen to the best possible positions in the post-war period.

"I intend to exert every influence to see that ball players returning from the armed services get a chance to remain in the game," he said.

Chandler, meeting New York sports writers informally for the first time, said that he had not decided when to give up his United States Senate post, but that he already had begun active duties in his new job as successor to the late Judge K. M. Landis.

The committee of 12, four each from the two Major Leagues and four from the Minors was appointed more than a year ago and Chandler said that it would have full control of the destinies of baseball players who were professionals before going into the armed forces. He said he wanted to use wounded players as coaches throughout the nation.

LEGION CANCELS BEAVER STATE

Owing to federal government restrictions on conventions and gatherings it has been found necessary to cancel plans for the American Legion sponsored annual Beaver Boys State which was to have been held at Oregon State college, Corvallis, July 1 to 8. Col. W. H. Paine, chairman of the event, said today.

A meeting of board of directors of the Beaver Boys was held at department headquarters of the American Legion in Portland and the situation was carefully considered, he said. With much regret the board decided it was not practicable to assemble the Boys State this year.

"This action will bring disappointment to about 30 of our local boys who have already been listed to go in the party being organized by the Medford Legion post," Col. Paine stated.

GREECE TERROR REIGN REPORTED

Athens, June 5 — (U.P.) — Five democratic leaders, including four former premiers, charged today that a reign of terror by army and police officers was underway in Greece.

The five presented a note to Prime Minister Admiral Petros Voulgaris, asking him to take strong steps to restore order. They claimed that army and police officers had kidnaped, beaten and maltreated private citizens. They called for a purge of those responsible.

The note said that the terrorist elements extended all the way to the general staff of the Greek army. The signers also called for dissolution of some Elias resistance bands still roaming the country.

Crop Insurance On Citrus Fruits Is Talked by Growers

Washington, June 5 — (U.P.) — Citrus producers from Florida, Texas, Arizona and California discussed with government officials today plans for a trial crop insurance program for citrus fruits.

The program would be established under the new crop insurance act which authorized FCIC to set up each year trial insurance on a three-year experimental basis.

Three kinds of protection were proposed in line with suggestions made at state meetings. They were insurance on the producer's investment, insurance on yield, and insurance on both yield and quality.

The Chicago-New Orleans Panama Limited of the Illinois Central Railroad has traveled more than 2,000,000 miles and carried approximately 400,000 passengers in its three years of continuous daily operation.
