GEORGE ROGERS, NAVAL VETERAN, HERE ON LEAVE

Veteran of more than 20 years naval service and wearer of the purple heart, George H. Rogers, warrant machinist, is in Medford on a 20-day leave visiting his sister, Mrs. H. O. Colburn, 704 West 10th street. Rogers just returned from overseas where he participated in five invasions.

At the beginning of the war he was serving on the famed cruiser Marblehead and after being severely wounded in action was taken to a hospital on Java. There he was treated by Commander C. M. Wassell, the noted naval doctor who was portrayed in the recent movie, "The Story of Dr. Wassell."

Rogers, along with 40 other patients, 12 of whom were naval casualties, was evacuated by British motor transport, under the direction of the well known doctor, to the Java coast. From Java they were taken to a hospital in Australia by a small Dutch steamer. Rogers was later removed to a naval hospital at Mare Island, Calif., and was released in August, 1942.

Besides the purple heart he wears the presidential unit citation, and ribbons for the Yangtze campaign, China service, Defense ribbon with one bronze star, Pacific Asiatic, African with two bronze stars, Philippine Invasion, and the good conduct ribbon with three bronze stars.

Barnyard Spats Develop As Cat Won't Eat Worms

The old White Leghorn hen belonging to Herman Offenbacher of the Applegate, which three weeks ago adopted three motherless kittens, now only has one ward, and it is turning out to be something of a problem cat. One kitten died and the other was given to neighbors.

The remaining kitten starting to show feline, instead of chicken instincts, argues with its foster-mother over food. The kitten will not eat the fat worms, scratched up with great ado by the old hen. This has resulted in a couple of lively barnyard spats, with another chicken eating the worm.

Offenbacher plans to separate the pair, as apparently the kitten's only interest in the hen is the warmth of her body and shelter of her wings when cold, and full of what it wants to eat.

ASHLANDER DIES OF WOUNDS ON OKINAWA

George E. King of Ashland has been informed that his son, Pfc. Cecil King died of wounds on Okinawa April 23. No further details went sent the father. The family formerly resided in the Bellview district.

Gordon J. Cizek, Jr., PhM3c, has been wounded in action according to a letter received from the navy by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon J. Cizek, 125 North Holly street. Cizek was assigned to duty with the first marine division.

'WALKING BIBLE' OUSTED AS HEAD OF CHURCH BODY

Portland, Ore., June 8—(U.P.)—The Rev. Jerry Owen, undenominational evangelist whose court troubles involving moral charges have kept him in hot water with his flock, today was removed as president-evangelist of the We The People Crystal Lake Gospel Park.

Owen conducted a summer camp at Crystal Lake and did much of his preaching by radio. The trustees said proof of his failing to live up to the Scriptural commandments was given by his conviction on a disorderly conduct charge involving morals last February.

Last month, Mrs. Jean Kelly Wheeler, a Los Angeles waitress, filed a paternity suit against Owen, naming him the father of her 2½ year old son.

The 31-year-old self-styled "walking Bible" is widely known for his evangelical work in the northwest. He denied any immorality in the disorderly conduct arrest, explaining he was merely paying a social call to a long-time friend, Miss Frances McCarty, 22. Police testified that they had difficulty entering the downtown hotel room and found Owen clad only in trousers and Miss McCarty in pajamas and negligee.

The trustees charged in the ouster resolution that Owen had misrepresented the details of his arrest when he addressed his followers.

TROOP MOVEMENT TAXES RAILROADS

Washington, June 8—(U.P.)—Faced with the greatest transportation crisis in the country's history, the government today put in a rush order for construction of more than 2,000 troop-carrying railroad cars and told civilians without important business to stay off trains in the next 10 months.

Meanwhile, preparations were being made to take over in the next 60 days about 2,000 Pullman sleepers—half the total—and an undisclosed number of coaches for the mass movement of troops from the east coast to Pacific ports.

This was revealed to the United Press today after President Truman as his press conference yesterday expressed concern over the magnitude of the forthcoming cross-country transportation job for the Japanese war.

THROW WILL GREET PATTON, DOOLITTLE

Denver, Colo., June 8—(U.P.)—Denver was expected to turn out en masse today to watch Gen. George S. Patton, Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle and Maj. Gen. Earl E. Partridge—together with a host of high command officers from the western front—as they ride from Buckley field to a downtown Denver hotel for an overnight stay.

En route from Boston to Los Angeles, the military leaders were scheduled to arrive at 6 p. m. in a fleet of B-17s. No official appearance other than a press conference was slated.

Churchill Claims No Yalta Secrets

London, June 8—(U.P.)—Prime Minister Churchill told commons today there were no secret agreements made at the Yalta conference except that giving Russia two extra votes in the security conference.

"The conversations of course proceeded in a very intimate manner and I am not prepared to say that everything discussed at Yalta could be made the subject of a verbatim report," Churchill said.

PROTESTANTS JOIN IN OPPOSING TRAINING

Washington, June 8—(U.P.)—Protestant churches today joined the National Catholic Welfare conference and other education and religious organizations in opposing peace time compulsory military training.

Testifying before the house postwar military policy committee, Dr. Herbert J. Burgstahler, representing the Protestant group, said that "the peace should establish procedures for controlling military establishments everywhere."

WIVES VETOED—London, June 8—(U.P.)—Marshall Sir Bernard L. Montgomery has vetoed a suggestion that wives be permitted to visit or settle down with their husbands in the British army of occupation, Commons was told today.
