DAMAGE SUIT ON ACCIDENT STARTS

A jury was selected and scene of the accident visited yesterday in the circuit court trial of James H. Nunes against Maurice J. Woodson and Alonzo R. Hardin for $15,000 personal injury damages. Nunes, in his complaint, alleges negligence and carelessness of both defendants in the operation of two logging trucks that collided on the Dead Indian road last July 1.

Nunes also seeks approximately $2000 special damages for hospital and physician fees. He was a passenger in the truck that went off the grade. Logs toppled on the truck cab, injuring Nunes and necessitating the amputation of his left arm above the elbow.

Taking of testimony started today at opening of court.

98 Nisei Sentenced For Refusing Duty

Phoenix, Ariz., June 12—(U.P.)—U. S. District Judge Dave W. Ling today sentenced 98 Japanese-American draft resisters to one year in prison.

Sentence was imposed on defendants in three test cases but is binding on all of the other Nisei from the Poston Relocation Center at Parker, Ariz., who refused to respond to selective service calls.
