CRATERS SLATE LEAGUE FRAGAS

In the second week of the Southern Oregon Baseball league, Medford Craters travel to Butte Falls Sunday, Ashland goes to Central Point and Klamath Falls Navy plays at the Klamath Falls Marine Barracks. Paul Freer, Crater manager, announced the team will leave the Fairgrounds park at noon and requested all players to be at the park and ready to travel at that time.

Dick Kidwell will be on the hill for the Craters, Freer said, with George Glitzen receiving, Homer Sullivan on first, Freddie Stammen at second, Harold Large at third base, Al Kircher at shortstop and Herb Burnham, Carl Reich and Dick Babb in the outfield. The entire squad will make the trip, the manager stated.

SOFTBALL TEAMS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Al Piche's softball team will meet Junior Chamber of Commerce in the first half of the double header of the city softball league at the high school park tonight, starting at 7:45. Littrell Parts will face the State Guard in the other half of the bill. The loop opened Tuesday night with Jennings Tire Shop and Camp White taking victories to pace the league. Since each team plays once a week, tonight's contest will mark the unveiling of the four clubs.

Since none of tonight's teams have been in active competition this season they are of an unknown quantity but fans are expecting a pair of fast games if Tuesday's openers mean anything.

PLAYERS TRADED
 New York, June 15.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants, apparently seeking to end the slump that has brought them nine defeats in their last 10 games, completed a player deal today which sent veteran outfielder Joe Medwick and Pitcher Ewald Pyle to the Braves for Catcher Clyde Klutz.

HINES LEADS
 Philadelphia, June 15.—(U.P.)—Jimmy Hines of Chicago led the way into the second round of the Philadelphia Inquirer Invitational golf meet today with a 66, but he had no chance to relax for only two strokes behind at 68 was irrepresible Byron Nelson.

LEONE, DUSETTE WIN DUAL BOUTS

Antone Leone outmarted popular Kenny Ackles and Georges Dusette took the measure of "Gorgeous" George Wagner in a double main event at Medford armory last night.

Leone grabbed the first fall in the third session with a reverse headlock. Ackles evened the count in the fourth frame with a shoulder press but missed a Sonnenberg in the fifth and was pinned for the winning fall.

Wagner started out clean in his match with the coast champlion but couldn't keep it that way. Dusette took the first fall with a full nelson but Wagner evened the match with a half crab. In the fourth round Wagner persisted in winding Dusette's legs in the ropes so Referee Earl Yoakley gave the match to Dusette on a foul. Wagner was displeased and started a fight with the arbiter but Yoakley stretched him on the mat.

Otis Clingman and Paavo Kantonen each grabbed a fall in their opening match.
