Couples Wed In Double Ceremony At Jacksonville

A double wedding ceremony June 9 united in marriage two valley couples. Miss Beverly Stancil, daughter of Mrs. George A. Bourne, Route 4, Medford, and Bert Stancil, Phoenix, was married to Donald Golden, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Golden, 106 Lincoln street, and Miss Erma Minger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Minger, 2117 Capitol avenue, became the bride of Gale Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Johnson, Central Point highway.

The double service took place at the home of the Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore, Jacksonville, with the pastor reading the ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Stancil wore a two-piece white linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of sweetpeas. Miss Minger's wedding costume was a two-piece powder blue suit with white accessories and her flowers were gardenias.

Attendants for both brides were Miss LaVonne Golden and Miss Donna Ray Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Golden will reside in Medford at 211½ North Peach street, the groom being employed by the Goodyear company, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will reside with the groom's parents for the present. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Medford senior high school and Mrs. Golden was a student at Phoenix high school last year.

Bride-Luncheon Given Saturday Honors Miss Tummy

Miss Deborah Tummy, who is to be married later this month, was honored guest at a luncheon given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. W. Garland Jones. The affair was at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Topsides.

Following luncheon the guests swam and played bridge and Miss Tummy was presented a shower of gifts. About 25 of Miss Tummy's friends were present.

Miss Tummy's fiancé, Richard C. Ashcom, is to arrive next week-end from Wayne university at Detroit and the wedding will take place June 26 at St. Mark's Episcopal church here. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tummy, 705 Park street.

Wave, Navy Man Married June 9 In Service Here

Miss Olive Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Austin, 310 Laurel street, and Martin J. McGrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Frielburg of Portland, were married June 9, the ceremony taking place at Sacred Heart Catholic church here. Both are in the service, the bride being a Wave and the groom in the navy.

The service was read at 11 o'clock in the morning by Father Thomas Hamilton. Miss Emily Austin, sister of the bride, and Jim Miller, Medford, were attendants.

For her wedding the bride wore a light blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Medford Hotel and Mr. and Mrs. McGrath then left for Portland to visit the groom's parents. Later they reported for duty at the naval air station, Klamath Falls, where both are stationed. The bride is a pharmacist's mate second class in the Waves and the groom a pharmacist's mate first class with the navy.

Mrs. McGrath is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy high school here, while the groom attended school in Portland.

Mildred Prather Becomes Bride Of Medford Man

In a simple ceremony which took place in Medford the afternoon of June 9, Mrs. Mildred Prather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kleger of Clatskanie, became the bride of Carl Pyles, son of Mrs. Florence Pyles of Medford.

Arrangements of snapdragons and roses were used to decorate the Presbyterian Church parlor where the couple exchanged their vows. The Rev. Harry W. Hansen officiated. Immediately preceding the ceremony Mrs. William McAllister sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Marsh.

Mrs. Ethel Morrison, Klamath Falls, and Melvyn Pyles, brother of the groom, attended the couple.

For her wedding the bride had chosen a pastel blue two-piece silk jersey dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Morrison was attired in an ivory crepe dress with pink and blue accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Florence Pyles, the groom's mother, wore a gown of gray and violet figured mesh with a corsage of sweet peas.

Guests at the ceremony included Mrs. Melvin Pyles and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Trippett of Klamath Falls.

The bride and groom will make their home at Medford where the groom is a district manager for the California-Oregon Power company.

Prior to her marriage Mrs. Pyles was employed by the Klamath county school district.
