

POWELL QUILTS CROONING
Hollywood, June 18—(U.P.)—Dick Powell has sung his last song to the public. Except for bathroom solos, the curly-haired crooner says he has abandoned the entertainment field that made him famous to become strictly a dramatic actor.

FARRELL SPEAKS AT OPEN MEETING OF C OF C BOARD

In addition to the address of Robert S. Farrell, Oregon secretary of state, which featured an open meeting of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce board of directors Friday noon at the Holland Hotel, committee heads reported on various matters of interest. Sixty men and women from all parts of the valley attended.

Strong interest in this district is being shown by lumber manufacturing firms and firms specializing in manufacturing from lumber by-products according to Karl Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River National Forest service. Janouch pointed out that the lumber re-manufacturing and by-products plants would mean a much increased payroll from the lumber industry, and added that as soon as the war is ended lumber production would have to be curtailed since all forests are now being over-cut to supply necessary war material. When the forests of this district are returned to the sustained yield basis, some firms will be forced out of business and the others will have to reduce production, Janouch said.

Baker Reports
Eugene Ferrell of Fluhrer's bakery reported on the local shortage of fats used by bakers and restaurant operators and stated that an effort was being made through the district's congressional delegation to have additional supplies released.

Mayor Clarence A. Meeker urged a large attendance for the outdoor talk Monday night of Governor Earl Snell, who will speak from the steps of the old courthouse in Jacksonville at 8 p.m. following a dinner sponsored by the Sons of the American Revolution and Daughters of the American Revolution.

Also making reports were Clarence Wintrout of the chamber roads committee and Moore Hamilton, chairman of the publicity committee.

Visitors Introduced
Also introduced during the meeting were Harry Schenk, assistant secretary of state; Clarence Ellis, manager of the department of financial responsibility for the state; Dr. Lloyd B. Staples, of the school of geology of the University of Oregon who is cooperating with the county group on mineral surveys; Sen. Earl T. Newberry, Ashland; Rep. Frank Van Dyke, Ashland and Rep. O. H. Bengtson, Medford; Mayor T. S. Wiley, Ashland and Mayor Howard Lewis, Jacksonville, who presented an affiliation check from the newly organized Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce unit.

The results of Dr. Staples' survey of mineral resources here will be disclosed at the next regular meeting of the chamber board, Friday, July 6. He is conducting research here in cooperation with the mining committee of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, headed by T. M. Gerety.

Lt. Col. Stewart Is New Director Of Camp White Supply

Camp White, June 16—Among recent arrivals at Camp White is the new director of supply, Lt. Col. Glen Stewart.

Lt. Col. Stewart has had a lengthy Army career which started in 1907. Since that time he has had a variety of job assignments. He served with the Infantry in the Philippines—1907 to 1910—1911 to 1917, and in Mexico—1916 and 1917.

With the beginning of World War I he was commissioned a lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps and served out the war at Newport News. After the war he reverted to his enlisted status in the Quartermaster Corps.

For thirteen years before his retirement in 1937 Col. Stewart was a master sergeant.

When World War II started in 1941 he became Capt. Stewart by virtue of a reserve commission he had held since 1918. The captain became a major in February, 1942 and a Lieutenant Colonel in September, 1942.

Before coming to Camp White Col. Stewart was Director of Supply at Ft. Stevens, Ore.

Rogue Troopers Accept Klamath Rodeo Invitation

The Rogue Troopers' drill team has received and accepted an invitation from the Klamath Saddle club and the Klamath Sheriff's Posse to participate in the annual rodeo, July 1 to 4. The Troopers took part in the show last year and received honorable mention in the Western Horseman.

Twenty-five women are riding in the team this year. Mrs. Hulda Harrison is president and Mrs. Iris Dodge, drillmaster. Mrs. Dodge states that the Troopers will again use the black and white uniform adopted last year and are using red, white and blue pennants as a color note.

WAVES NEEDED IN SPECIALIZED NAVY HOSPITAL SERVICE

Advanced training in 28 different specialized fields in the navy's famed hospital corps is available for qualified young women who enlist in the WAVES now, reports Petty Officer Evelyn Moore, WAVES recruiter from the Naval Officer Procurement office in Portland, who is here to describe to interested applicants the many new opportunities in the WAVES.

Petty Officer Moore will be at the navy recruiting station in the Post Office daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. from June 18 to June 26, inclusive. Arrangements for night appointments may be made by calling the recruiting station, reports Chief W. R. Cumley, recruiter in charge of the Medford U. S. navy recruiting station, which handles WAVES applications in this area.

In order to staff navy facilities adequately and to meet other requirements, the navy needs 10,000 Hospital Corps WAVES. More than 13,000 Hospital Corps WAVES are now on duty.

The hospital corps training offers opportunities for service and training in various fields that will be useful as post-war occupations. Any young woman who is an American citizen, between 20 and 36 years of age, has completed two years of high school, has no children under 18 years of age and is in normal good health is eligible.

Greater benefits now accrue to WAVES, including good pay (equivalent to $142.50 a month to start, all tax exempt), $200 cash allowance for the new smart uniforms, life insurance at low-cost government rates, all the advantages of the GI bill of rights, benefits of USO, American Red Cross, navy relief where needed, overseas service, travel, interesting work, educational benefits and opportunities to receive instruction in many different specialized fields.

Used Car Ceilings Will Drop July 1

Ceiling prices for used passenger cars will be reduced four per cent on July 1 in accordance with the "rollback" provisions of the used car price regulation, the local OPA has announced.

to used cars sold by either dealers or private owners.
Also to be reduced four per cent on July 1 are charges allowed for extra equipment on used cars such as heaters, radios and other built-in items for which additions to base ceiling prices are permitted.

Coca-Cola Supply Will be Reduced By Sugar Dearth

The supply of Coca-Cola in Medford and trade area definitely will be affected by the further curtailment of the sugar supply after July 1 because the manufacturer will not compromise with the use substitutes, according to Wayne H. Jamison, manager of the Medford Bottling company. However, an equitable system of rationing will be maintained in Medford and trade territory during the shortage, Jamison said.

"The OPA announced last week that the allotment of sugar to industrial users would be cut July 1 to 50 per cent of the amount used in the third quarter of 1941. I am informed that this sugar shortage is world wide and directly attributable to the confusion in production and distribution of sugar occasioned by the war," Jamison stated. "Sugar is absolutely necessary in Coca-Cola manufacture. We cannot and will not use sweetening substitustitutes, compromising the integrity of Coca-Cola. Therefore, when sugar is short, there must be a shortage in the amount of Coca-Cola. But you can be certain that the quality of Coca-Cola will remain unchanged."
