

Brooklyn Dodgers Take Lead In National Loop

New York, June 19—(U.P.)—If any individual is to be credited with the rise of the Brooklyn Dodgers to the giddy heights of first place in the National league, long Howie Schultz, the guy who was too tall to get into the army, is the man.

Highpockets Howie, who placed a college education ahead of a career with the Dodgers, was late in reporting because he wanted to get his degree from Hamline university at St. Paul where he created quite a stir as an amateur basketball player last winter.

Never a heavy hitter, he is noted for coming through in the pinch and he played the role to perfection last night as the Dodgers subdued the Giants, 2 to 1, in 13 innings.

In the only other major league game yesterday, the White Sox beat the league leading Tigers at Chicago in the American league for the third straight time, 1 to 0, indicating that Hank Greenberg can't get back into action too soon to stimulate the anemic Detroit hitting. The Tigers made only four blows off Bill Dietrich who hooked up against Paul (Dizzy) Trout in a scoreless duel until the ninth. Then the White Sox laid down a bang-barrage which produced the victory.

No other major league games were scheduled.

Angstead Signs As Coach at Klamath

Klamath Falls, June 19—Paul Angstead, assistant principal at Klamath Union high school, has signed as head football coach for the Pelicans, starting next September. Angstead has an impressive record as junior high school coach and mentor of the Klamath Wildcats. In football last year his Wildcats won six and lost one and his Wildcat basketball team won 16 and dropped one.

He succeeds Marble Cook, who resigned this spring after guiding the destinies of Klamath Falls football and basketball for one season.

SOLONS MOVE TO PORTLAND LAIR; OAKS PLAY L.A.

By United Press

The Portland Beavers play host to the hard-hitting but erratic Sacramento Solons this week, with the odds good they will increase their present 4½ game lead in the Pacific Coast league to a mid-season advantage that will be hard to overcome.

The Beavers, billed at the start of the season as potential sluggers, have turned up a mound corps with a distinct professional flavor. Unless the Solons can get the range on such veteran hurlers as Ad Liska, Roy Helser, Jack Tising and Jake Mooty, Manager Earl Sheeley may have to decide on a permanent berth in the second division.

San Francisco and Hollywood play a split series this week that may shape up a bit better than the usual first division team versus cellar dweller contests. After a disastrous start the Twinks, now under Manager Buck Fawcett, have been playing better than .500 baseball for the past several weeks.

In other games this week the Oakland Acorns invade Los Angeles—their first road trip under new Manager Billy Raimondi—and Pepper Martin's San Diego Padres journey to the lair of the second-place Rainiers, who seem to have little chance of getting higher than that in the league standings for quite a while.

Los Angeles, June 19 — (U.P.)—Ensign Jim Hardy, star player of two University of Southern California Rose Bowl football teams, today was awarded the Trojaneer medal as the athlete who last year did the most to build up the university's reputation.

Ensign George Callahan, football halfback, was announced as winner of the Jake Gimbel award for the most cooperative athlete.

GOLF RARITY
Portland, Ore., June 19 — (U.P.)—Golfing has its moments—even for amateurs. Mrs. Kay Stickle and Grant Robertson, both of Portland, disclosed a rarity in golf play today—both carrying a hole in one, and both on the fourth green during a game on the Portland golf course last Sunday.

Portland Golfers Top Entrants For P.G.A. Tournament

Portland, Ore., June 19 — (U.P.)—Striking through 36 holes of golf at the Portland golf club Monday with a four-under-par 140, Joe Mezel, Portland golfer, had the distinction today of topping all northwest qualifiers for the National P.G.A. Meet and capturing the Northwest Professional Golf Association's 1945 crown.

Three other golfers qualified for the National match at Toledo, O., starting July 8. Neil Christian, former Portlander now in Spokane, had a 144 for second place, and Larry Lamberger, Portland golf club pro, carded a 146 for third. Chuck Congdon, Tacoma, automatically qualified on the strength of his reaching the semi-finals of the National meet last year.

G.I.'s Eskimo Wife Awed by First Look At Civilized City

Seattle, June 19 — (U.P.)—Civilization, as it is known in the United States, hit the young Eskimo wife of an American soldier with a thrilling jolt today.

She's little-girlish Mrs. Laura McQuade, 27, who used a telephone and had her first automobile ride after reaching Seattle on the first lap of a 3,000-mile journey from King Cove, Alaska to (235 Williams) Williamsport, Pa.

There she'll find, waiting nervously, her discharged GI husband, T-4 John McQuade, whom she married when he was stationed near King Cove.

Patton Profanity Shocks Minister

Los Angeles, June 19 — (U.P.)—Conceding that Gen. George S. Patton's military prowess might have been heroic, the Rev. Don Householder told his congregation yesterday that Patton's language was a "shocking exhibition to a degree most of us never thought possible before a public audience."

Patton, commander of the Third army, liberally spaced with profanity his homecoming speech at the Los Angeles Coliseum June 9. The speech extemporaneous was broadcast.
