Lawn Hose Stolen—I. N. Shults, 806 West Main street, reported to police yesterday that four pieces of lawn hose, 25 and 50 feet in length, were stolen from his residence sometime Saturday night.

Sees Sister—Mrs. Shannon O. White, who returned to her home, 20 Ross Court Monday after spending a week in Washington, visited while there with her sister, Mrs. C. J. Bussell of Montreal, Canada. This was the first time in 26 years that the sisters had met.

Collins Here—First Lt. Hugh B. Collins, ATC (Maritime Section), is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins, 2223 East Main street. Lt. Collins, who has been in the southwest Pacific since March, 1942, reports to Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex., July 14.

Lodges To Meet—A program, social evening and dance will follow the meetings of Crater Lake Aerie No. 2093 and auxiliary, F.O.E., Thursday night at the lodge hall, 219 West Main street, at 8 p. m. The president urges all Eagles to be present and states that there will be no initiation during the evening.

Barber Leaving—George Barber, MoMMc, will leave tonight to report back to the naval hospital at Corona, Calif., after visiting here with his wife, Lois, his son, Gary, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barber, for 15 days. Barber, who had been in the Pacific for eight months, recently was returned home for hospitalization.

To Dance—A dance will be given by the Townsend club at the K. of P. hall Friday, beginning at 8:30 p. m.

Through Street—Front street has been made a through street from Fourth to Eleventh streets for the convenience of logging and other heavy trucks, local police said today.

False Alarm—Firemen answered a false alarm yesterday afternoon at the home of Iva McHenry, 28 North Orange street, where a saw dust burner was said to have run out of fuel and caused considerable smoke.

Returns Here—Mrs. Violet Spencer returned last week from a several months' visit in Des Moines, Ia. She also visited her son, M. E. Spencer and her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Callan and families in Buffalo Gap, Sask., Canada.

Promoted—Marmie Olson has been promoted to chief warrant officer with the Seabees, according to information received by Mrs. Olson, the advancement having been made June 11. He is currently on Okinawa island. Olson, with the Seabees since 1942, was formerly owner of the Olson Electric company here. This is his second tour of duty overseas. Mrs. Olson makes her home at 111 Newtown street.

Return—The Misses Joan Elliott and Calista Farrell of Medford and Miss Jean Lausman of Portland returned yesterday after a week's trailer camp vacation at Shady Cove. Miss Lausman, who is a sorority sister of Miss Elliott, returned to her home Monday evening. Miss Lausman and Miss Elliott are both students at the University of Oregon and Miss Elliott arrived home to spend the summer with relatives here.

Promoted—Both Carol and Gerald Parker have both been advanced in rank recently, according to information received by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran, Ross Lane. Carol Corcoran, elder of the two brothers, is now a master sergeant in the air corps stationed at Assan, India, and Gerald Corcoran has been advanced to chief motor machinist on an LST of the coast guard in the South Pacific. Both have been in service about three years.
