

TRAIN LENGTH LIMIT IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL
 Washington, June 19—(U.P.)—The supreme court today held unconstitutional a 1912 Arizona law limiting trains passing through the state to 70 freight cars or 14 passenger cars.
 The court acted after hearing the case on an appeal by the Southern Pacific Railroad Co. The Arizona supreme court had held the law valid and had affirmed a $500 judgment to the state for the railroad's violations of both freight and passenger sections of the act.

EISENHOWER FOR TEACHING NAZIS TO AVOID CRIME

Would Punish Those Guilty of War Crimes; But Not German People as Whole.

Washington, June 19—(U.P.)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower wants to teach the German people that "crime doesn't pay."
 He wants to do it by punishing those responsible for war crimes, not the German people as a whole.
 In measured words the five-star general sounded the theme of this country's participation in the military occupation of Germany.
 "You can't build peace on hate or with a club," he declared.
Punish Criminals
 "You must find the war criminals and all must be punished. That's the only way I know to teach them that crime doesn't pay."
 Eisenhower, who is head of occupying forces in the American section of Germany, and also U. S. representative on the allied control council in Berlin, made his views clear yesterday following his triumphant return to America.
 "Ike" grinned his way through a glorious day that included parades, a speech before congress and the supreme court, a mammoth civic luncheon, a presentation by President Truman of a third distinguished service medal, a press conference, visits to General of the Armies John J. Pershing and to wounded veterans at Walter Reed hospital and a White House buffet supper.
 His officers and men went with him to supper and ate turkey, sweet potatoes, ice cream and angel food cake in the dark paneled state dining room. Before eating Eisenhower presented President Truman with a flag bearing the blazing sword insignia of SHEAF—supreme headquarters, a 111 d expeditionary forces.
Would Erase Staff
 It was at the press conference that general Ike outlined his views on punishing German criminals but educating the remainder of Germans to a belief that aggression and brutality won't get by in a civilized world.
 As for punishment, Eisenhower said the German general staff which has planned wars since 1806 must be destroyed. Members must be segregated so they cannot pass on their doctrines. Their records must be destroyed.
 He said 15,000 German war

Friday's Election Important For Institution Improvements

Even though there are no candidates, the special election scheduled June 22 for Oregon voters is one of the most important in the history of the state according to state officials. Because of a peculiarity of the state income tax laws, the special election has been found necessary in order that $10,000,000 which Oregon has on hand can be used to erect new buildings, remodel others and purchase needed equipment for state institutions.
 In addition to the bill authorizing the levy for the state building fund, voters will also vote on the measure authorizing a tax on cigarettes for the support of public schools.
Need Long Seen
 For several years past state officials and leading citizens of Oregon have from time to time urged a sweeping program to modernize and enlarge the state hospital, the training schools for boys and girls, the Fairview home for the mentally deficient, the schools for the blind and deaf and other institutions where wards of the state are cared for. In addition educators have stressed that the institutions of higher learning are in great need of new buildings and new equipment and that the greatly increased enrollment anticipated for the post-war period will

CBM Leo Bellon Of USS Comfort Crew, Spends Leave Here

CBM Leo Bellon, son of Mrs. A. T. Schmidt, 622 West Fourth street, is spending a leave visiting at the family home here. He reports back to duty June 23. CBM Bellon saw service in the Guadalcanal, Philippines, New Guinea and Okinawa campaigns and was on the USS Comfort at the time the hospital ship was hit by a Japanese suicide plane.
 He said the ship was hit April 28 about 50 miles off Okinawa and at last reports he had, 31 were known dead and 40 were injured. Six of the dead were doctors and six were nurses. The plane, CBM Bellon said, lodged at surgery and considerably damaged the ship.
 The ship was attacked in the Leyte campaign and once previously off Okinawa, according to the navy man, but was missed both times.
 CBM Bellon told how the suicide plane, operated by a young pilot, twice circled the ship before making the final plunge. The attack occurred at night, he said while the ship was fully lighted. Those on board thought it was a friendly plane, thinking a suicide plane would not attack a hospital ship according to rules of the Geneva Conference, he stated.
