

Throng Expected To See Wagner-Leone Mat Clash

TONIGHT'S CARD
George Wagner vs. Antone Leone.
Otis Clingman vs. "Sneeze" Achieu.
Jack Lipscomb vs. Kenny Ackles.

A near-capacity crowd is expected at Medford armory tonight when "Gorgeous" George Wagner and Antone Leone vent their wrath on each other in the headline bout, billed for six rounds or two out of three falls. Wagner was reluctant to accept the bout earlier in the week but agreed when Promoter Mack Lillard told him to accept terms for the clash or do his wrestling in other arenas.

Leone, whose villainous tactics have gained a considerable winning streak, readily agreed to the bout, saying he considered Wagner scarcely more than a light workout.

A fine exhibition of wrestling looms in the four round semidrop when Walter "Sneeze" Achieu, former football star at Dayton University, takes on veteran Otis Clingman, who is on a comeback tour, is rapidly gaining main event status in various mat circuits and figures to give the jiu-jitsu expert a bad evening.

Jack Lipscomb, the Hoosier terror who has been successfully campaigning in midwestern and eastern states for several months, will find a classy foe awaiting him when he gets together with popular Kenny Ackles of Hollywood in the 8:30 opener, slated for three rounds.

FEUD BREAKS OUT IN GAME BETWEEN CHICAGO, BROWNS

New York, June 21—(U.P.)—The St. Louis Browns, lacking punch at the plate as usual, apparently tried to make up for it by throwing plenty of them in the Chicago White Sox dugout, giving new Baseball Commissioner Sen. Albert B. (Happy) Chandler, one of his first major headaches today.

The short-tempered Browns have dropped 14 of the last 23 games, tumbling into sixth place last night with their latest defeat, 4 to 1, by the White Sox, during which the fracas took place.

Chandler, who took over formally as commissioner this week, probably will want a full report of the happenings at St. Louis, although details from both sides are a little fuzzy.

Pitcher Beaten

Relief Pitcher George Caster, victim with Starter Al Hollingsworth of a four-run outburst in the eighth inning which cost the Browns the game, was yanked by Manager Luke Sewell. Caster threw the ball toward the White Sox dugout in disgust. Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Sox protested to Umpire Art Passarella, and while the argument grew white hot, the Browns stormed the Chicago bench.

Carl Scheel, ex-marine and batting practice pitcher for the White Sox, was singled out and reportedly suffered a terrific punishment. The Browns complained he was guilty of "uncouth jockeying," almost precisely the same charge which was leveled by the Washington Senators against the Browns in baseball's number one feud of 1944.

CRATERS SUFFER LOSS OF REEDY

Southern Oregon pennant winning hopes of the Medford Craters suffered a blow yesterday when John Reedy, classy left-handed pitcher and first baseman and slugger deluxe, was called up by the navy. Reedy reports to Seattle Sunday for the Navy V-5 program.

The 17-year-old youngster hit .500 in the Southern Oregon high school league this year and is tied with Freddie Stammen with an average of .625 for leadership of the Crater roster.

Manager Paul Freer said today the club will greatly miss Reedy. "He is a natural hitter and has excellent control for a southpaw, besides being a fine boy," Freer said.

Sugar-Saving Reminders Given

Home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture offer the following sugar-saving reminders:

1. In summer especially serve fresh fruits liberally in place of heavy desserts that call for sugar. A fruit salad topped by a dressing mixed with fruit juice does double duty as a refreshing salad and dessert.
2. Save sirup from canned fruit to sweeten other fruit, sauces, or beverages.
3. Be sure all sugar is completely dissolved, to get its full sweetness. A sugar sirup goes farther than plain sugar in sweetening iced tea or fruit punch. To prepare sugar sirup, heat equal parts sugar and water until sugar is completely dissolved. Keep left-over sirup tightly covered in the refrigerator. Corn sirup may be used to sweeten summer drinks. Try some iced beverages without sugar.
4. Cook cereals with prunes, raisins, or oats, and serve without sugar.
5. Use fewer or no frostings on cakes. Don't frost the sides.
6. Make desserts that use honey, molasses, sorghum, corn, or other sirups when these are available.
7. Stretch sugar in baked goods with honey, molasses, corn or other sirup. Honey may replace sugar cup for cup, but use half the quantity of other liquid called for in original recipe—

Babe Zaharias Is Favored To Annex Open Golf Tourney

Indianapolis, June 21—(U.P.)—Champion Babe Zaharias carried form sheet backing today to repeat her laurels in the 18th Women's Western Open Golf tournament.

But spunky little Babe Freese, a 20-year-old of Portland, Ore., drew a sizeable part of the gallery sentiment and betting to keep up her "giant killing" and get into the finals Saturday against the champion from Los Angeles.

Both—already hard-pressed—faced a rocky road before Saturday, however, and either could be eliminated from the tournament in this afternoon's quarter-finals.
