Dear.....

One of the big events of this week was the visit Monday of Gov. Earl Snell who spoke in Jacksonville after attending a Bunker Hill Day dinner at the old courthouse. The event marked the opening of a campaign by the Sons of the American Revolution to have the old building set aside as a museum in which to store and display historical objects.

Last Friday Robert S. Farrell and other Oregon officials spoke at a Chamber of Commerce meeting at which Farrell urged support of the special election measure which would provide a $10,000,000 building fund for state institutions.

County residents were saddened by the death of Sheriff Syd I. Brown, which occurred Sunday night after a long illness. Funeral services were Wednesday morning at the Catholic church in Medford. That afternoon Howard C. Gault, chief deputy, was appointed sheriff by the county court and given the oath of office.

At the annual school board election John Moffat was re-elected to serve another five year term and Otto Frohnmayer was named to fill the unexpired term of Marc Jarmin. Dick Baize has been named commander of the American Legion post.

Permit to build and operate an air strip for civilian fliers has been received by the city from the CAA and it is to be constructed near the fairgrounds. It will be a temporary affair.

The small fry are learning to swim this week at Red Cross classes both here and in Ashland. More than 700 registered for the courses.

After a cold and damp May, June is hitting summer's stride and Monday was the hottest June 18 on record, the mercury soaring to 100 degrees. Cooler weather came Thursday. Due to the wet spring, the forest service has had but few lookout stations manned until the past few days.

Sams Valley Grange members, annoyed by efforts of the Izaak Walton league to prevent building of irrigation dams in the Rogue River, passed a resolution at the last meeting urging farmers of the Rogue River basin to close their lands to hunting and fishing by members of the league. The Grange resolution declared that over three-fourths of the productive income of the valley is from agriculture, that irrigation is needed for growth of the industry and charged the league members with being selfish.

Newest arrivals from overseas include Sgt. Ray Casebeer, Leo Bellon, CBM, the Nelsen brothers and Sgt. Jack Young. Sgt. Casebeer spent three months as a German prisoner and Pfc. Clarence Nelson was imprisoned for six months by the Germans. Capt. Ibsen Nelsen served 38 months with the 41st Infantry division and wears the bronze star and purple heart while both he and his brother have combat infantryman's badges.

Bellon, on the hospital ship, Comfort, when it was struck by a suicide plane, has seen action in the Guadalcanal, New Guinea, Philippine and Okinawa campaigns. Sgt. Young, who was shot down over Germany in March, has recovered from severe burns.

Also returned to this country are Cpl. Andrew Owings, who has been in Madigan hospital in Tacoma; Ireland Miller, Ylc, home after duty in Europe; Charles Offenbacher, GM3c in the navy armed guard who is visiting relatives after 13 months in the Pacific; Pfc. Ralph L. Hite, wounded on Iwo Jima and home on convalescent leave; Sgt. Lowell E. Grow of the marine corps, home after 27 months in the Pacific and wearing the purple heart for wounds suffered on Iwo Jima; Dick Trullinger, MM3c; Jack Winchester, SF1c, who completed two years of service in the South Pacific and George Barber, MoMM3c, recently hospitalized after eight months Pacific duty.

Plt. Sgt. Seth M. Bullis, Jr., is at Oak Knoll hospital recovering from severe wounds received on a South Pacific island and First Lt. Hugh B. Collins of the ATC is home after three years in the southwest Pacific. Pfc. Kenneth Ambrose, in the army 12 years, is home on convelescent leave, having been wounded in Europe.

Cpl. Colin Gould has been discharged after nearly five years in the army, three of which were overseas. He says the Australian beer is delicious and thinks he will return to that country after the war for a vacation. Others discharged are First Lt. Orville Miles, T. Sgt. Alfred C. Hocker, Eagle Point and S. Sgt. Gervase C. Stiefvater.

Boyd Everett Chapman, veteran of the battles of Palaus, Leyte, Luzon and Iwo Jima, has been awarded a distinguished flying cross. Air medals have been awarded T. Sgt. Robert M. Tuttle and Lt. Robert C. Cuffel, B-29 crewmen for flights over Japan; to Lt. Harold L. Sleight for flights from a Marianas base and Staff Sgt. Lawrence Wills has been awarded the third oak leaf cluster to the air medal for service with the Eighth airforce.

Cpl. Gifford Hemmerling has been commended for his service as a sheet metal expert with the 12th AAF. He wears seven battle stars and has been overseas 27 months. Pfc. Norman McMahan has been cited for service at a Saipan outpost and Capt. Robert Root commands a company which recently received a meritorious service unit plaque for outstanding service at an Antilles base.

A combat infantryman's badge has been won by Pvt. Gailon O. Gentry, serving with the Winged Victory division on Luzon.

Latest casualty list contains the names of Pfc. Lawrence W. Hickman, killed in action in the Pacific; Pfc. Richard D. Lacky, who died of wounds received in action on Okinawa, and Cpl. Fred Gracey, also killed on Okinawa. Wounded are Pfc. Weldon Zundell, C-B-I theater; Cpl. Robert S. Sutton and Pfc. Dale Goodman, both in the marine corps.

A letter from Staff Sgt. Jack Thompson tells how his unit in Burma had adopted a small Indian boy named Hobbie.

Marmie Olson, now on Okinawa with the Seabees, has been promoted to chief warrant officer. Carol and Gerald Corcoran have both been promoted recently. Carol is now a master sergeant in the air corps at Assan, India, and his brother has been made a chief motor machinist on an LST of the coast guard in the south Pacific.

Weddings announced were Beverly Stancliffe to Donald Golden; Erma Minger to Gale Johnson; Olive Austin to Martin J. McGrath and Geneva Moore to Harold E. Hargitt, Y2c. Both Mr. and Mrs. McGrath are pharmacist's mates, the bride being in the Waves and the groom in the navy. Announcement of the engagement of Peggy Young to Frank Rogers, Jr., has been made, with the wedding set for early fall. Rogers was recently placed on the air corps inactive list after duty in England and will work for United Airlines.

MINISTERS PLAN SUMMER CHURCH SERVICE IN PARK

Summer city park services, sponsored by the Medford Ministerial Association and held throughout July and August, will again be held this summer, according to a decision of the association at a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. recently. Services will be held each Sunday at 4:30 p. m., starting July 1.

These union vesper services have been well attended, especially last year, according to Milo C. Ross, president, and the association is now setting up a program for the sponsoring churches, their musicians, and speakers for the 10 weeks.

The Revs. Ross, Stanley Keller, and Roscoe Wilson will act as a program committee, and will send a schedule to churches of the city in a few days.

Churches To Share

The plan this year is to have two churches sponsor each of the services, thus providing more music and leadership, and rotating churches through the summer, Ross said. All of the church public is asked to share in the responsibility for attendance and interest, but two churches each Sunday are especially responsible for management.

July 1 the First Christian and Zion Lutheran churches will sponsor the program, with the Rev. Edwin Hansen and Delbert Daniels in charge. For July 8, the Church of the Brethren and Church of God will lead with the Revs. Roscoe Wilson and Stanley Keller presiding.

26 Youths Attend Outing Sponsored By Friends Church

Twin Rocks, Ore., June 22—Twenty-six boys from Medford and Talent are attending Camp Twin Rocks sponsored by the Friends Church. The boys, 9 to 12 years of age, arrived early this week accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bales and Milo C. Ross.

Days are given over to classes in the mornings, some in handicraft, and one in Christian character building. Afternoons are taken up with sports and evenings by a campfire hour. The boys do their own cleaning and dish-washing, and provide much of their own discipline.

Main campfire speaker this year is John J. Trachsel of Salem, a Friends minister, and the first Oregonian to be repatriated on the last trip of the S. S. Gripsholm.

PROCESSED CHERRIES ALL FOR GOVERNMENT

Washington, June 22 — (U.P.) — With prospects that this year's red cherry crop will be the smallest on record, the War Food administration today placed a 100 per cent set-aside on all canned and frozen cherries processed in 1945.

Processors must hold their entire production for purchase by the government.

CLOTHING REQUESTED FOR 69,000 OKINAWANS

Guam, Thursday, June 21 — (U.P.)—The military government of Okinawa has requested clothing for 69,000 women and children on the island, Hudson Bacon, American Red Cross director of civilian relief in the Pacific announced today.

The clothing will supplement garments being supplied to Okinawans by the armed forces. The clothing will come from the San Francisco stockpile, including 130,000 garments collected throughout the U. S. The Okinawa clothing requisition is pending naval approval.

A ship disrupted communications a day after the first submarine cable was laid in 1842 in New York Harbor between the Battery and Governor's Island. The anchor destroyed 200 feet of cable.
