Germans Flee Land Russia Expects To Take From Yankees

Weimar, Germany, June 22—(U.P.) — Thousands of Germans were fleeing the Russians again today.

They were on their way westward from areas the Russians are expected to take over from the Americans sometime soon. They jammed the highways in long columns, on trucks, carts pulled by horses, and on foot.

At night they slept under hedges or bridges, or in barns or farmhouses where they begged shelter.

Once 1,700 refugees took possession of a train in the Weimar freight yard and refused to budge. The army finally decided after three days the only way to solve the problem was to hitch an engine to the train and take it to Frankfurt.

Ickes Silent On Retirement Rumor

Washington, June 22 — (U.P.) — Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes wouldn't give a positive "yes" or "no" today to rumors that he will be leaving the cabinet soon.

Concluding a press conference at which reporters sought a concrete statement about his status, he said:

"I rather think we shall meet again."
