Barbara Stuart Becomes Bride Of Mr. Gardner

Miss Barbara Stuart, daughter of Mrs. A. T. Wattenberg, Route 3, and D. G. Stuart, Hillsboro, Ore., became the bride of Jack Gardner, Sr., Medford, June 14, at a candlelight service in St. Mark's Episcopal church here. The Very Rev. Herald Gardner, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and the Rev. George Turney performed the ceremony.

Large baskets of gladioli arranged with candelabra decorated the church and a bouquet of white blossoms was placed before the altar.

The bride's gown was of the traditional white satin fashioned with a train. Her veil was held by orange blossoms and she carried red roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. W. H. McCart, sister of the bride and matron of honor, was dressed in a rose taffeta gown and carried matching roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Kendall, wore pale pink with matching roses for her flowers.

Earl Sims was best man and also in the wedding party was the bride's brother-in-law, T/Sgt. W. H. McCart.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hampson, 19 Willamette avenue. After the cutting of the cake by the bride and groom, the groom's aunt, Mrs. Maude Wyant, completed the serving of the cake and Mrs. Earl Sims served punch.

The couple left immediately for Seaside, Ore., for 10 days and will return here for a few days before continuing to Norfolk, Va., where the groom will attend naval school.
