

BLIMP PILOT WOUNDED BY UNKNOWN RIFLEMAN

Santa Ana, Calif., June 28—(U.P.)—Federal investigators today sought an unidentified rifleman who fired on a naval blimp, injuring the pilot, as it flew over the Santa Ana river about a mile inland. Lt. Willisford Bennet Dey of Leguna Beach, Calif., the pilot, was in Long Beach, Calif., naval hospital where the bullet was removed. Doctors said the bullet severed an artery in his leg just above the ankle, and while his condition was not serious, he was weak from loss of blood.

SAYS CHAMP CRUEL
Santa Ana, Calif., June 28—(U.P.) Mrs. Dorothy Breaux Perry charged extreme cruelty in a divorce complaint on file today against Frederick J. Perry, former tennis star and now a staff sergeant in the Santa Ana army air base physical training department. She said she married Perry, National Men's Tennis champion in 1933.
