

ASHLAND SLATES GALA OBSERVANCE OF JULY FOURTH

Ashland, June 29.—A full day of celebration has been arranged here for the Fourth of July, according to an announcement by the committee.

The day will start with a big downtown parade at 10 o'clock, which will form in the vicinity of the junior high school and go to Litchia park, where a bond auction will be held. Usual merchandise items and special services of some of the city's leading personalities will be offered for sale.

Children's games and contests will be held in the park, following the bond auction.

Rodeo Annual The second annual rodeo of the Ashland Riding association will take place at the high school field, starting at 2 o'clock. Considerable work has been done on the field to assure maximum safety for spectators and contestants, the committee stated. Seating accommodations for 3000 have been set up for the event, which will also have horse races as one of its many features.

Carnival Coming A band concert will be held in Litchia park in the evening, the time to be announced later, according to the committee.

Dodge's Greater Shows and Thrill Circus will be in Ashland July 3 to 8 inclusive and will be located on C street, between First and Pioneer streets. The carnival consists of many rides and shows, high pole aerial presentation and Capt. Van der Wall and his den of wild and performing African lions.

COMMUNICATIONS

Letters to the Editor must bear the name and address of the writer, although the use of a pen-name or initials for publication is permissible. The Mail Tribune reserves the right to edit all letters with a view to clarity and condensation.

"It Stinks!" To the Editor: Well, all you housewives, would-be canners of fruit and such—little by little it is leaking out. Through various channels, we hear the reasons for our canning sugar allotments being cut and cut again. Thanks to our news announcers, a slip of the tongue (maybe) we are getting the lowdown. Some thirty million pounds of sugar in the east, supposedly allotted for jams and jell for our fighting men, diverted to a beverage concern. A holiday declared for the liquor industry right at the time we housewives are in crying need for canning sugar. How many million pounds for these buzzards, Heaven knows, while they increase the liquor flow so the government may have the big tax output on purchases.

There's no big tax coming in on the sugar you use, ladies, in trying to increase your family's food supply now when fruit is on the market. Tons of sugar going to Spain now, a country who consistently has catered to the Nazi regime. We made a bargain, I say we. But, we didn't know anything about it when the big shots made this bargain. The bargain? According to our farm front reporter on KMED our ready bargainers agreed to let Spain have this sugar providing she cut off military supplies to Germany. Why, we ask, was it necessary to make a bargain with Nazi sympathizers, when unconditional surrender was our goal? We have heard also just a little report of an upstate grocer, the little man. A truck load of sugar drove by, left two sacks of sugar for the grocer, the rest of the load to a brewer. In a town I know well in Idaho a new mill dollar sugar factory has stood idle ever since it was built two years ago. Sugar beet farmers there plowed under their crops. Enough sugar beets to keep our America in sugar can be raised in that one state alone. Yes folks, it stinks, this situation. It's only a part of what you're going to hear before this food situation is cleared up. CARMA McCARTY, Trail, Oregon
