Deborah Tummy Becomes Bride Of Mr. Ashcom

One of the season's largest weddings was that of Miss Deborah Tummy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tummy, 705 Park street, and Richard C. Ashcom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Ashcom of Johnstown, Pa., which took place Tuesday, June 26, at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Medford. The Rev. George R. Turney read the service at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Soloist for the service was Miss Barbara Bentley of Klamath Falls who sang "O Perfect Love." A choir made up of Miss Bentley, Mrs. William McAllister, Miss June Williams, Mrs. Roberta Ward Bebb, Almus Pruitt and Robert Wright sang "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin for the processional, which was carried out in the formal English manner and was led by Ward Bebb, acolyte, as cross bearer. Mrs. Nell Taylor was at the organ.

Miss Tummy wore a bridal gown of white slipper satin fashioned princess style and with a full length train over which fell a long tulle veil. A shoulder length veil, edged in heirloom rosepoint and Duchesse lace which had been a part of her grandmother's wedding costume, was held with a wreath of orange blossoms and a length of veil covered her face. She carried a bouquet of white bride's roses and stephanotis and wore pearls, a gift of the groom.

Attendants were Mrs. James Keeble, matron-of-honor, Mrs. Walter R. Jones, Mrs. W. Garland Jones and Miss Mary Ellen Smith of Oswego, Ore., bridesmaids. The bridesmaids' gowns were identical, being of white taffeta with sashes of American beauty red, and all three carried bouquets of American Beauty rosebuds. Mrs. Keeble's gown was of white taffeta and delphinium blue and she carried a bouquet of delphinium and baby breath.

Mr. Tummy gave his daughter in marriage. Best man for Mr. Ashcom was Clesson Perry of Medford.

Mrs. Tummy wore for her daughter's wedding a pale blue crepe afternoon dress, a pink hat, pink and black accessories and an orchid corsage. In attendance at the wedding were the bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. William E. Tummy and Mrs. Charles C. Gilbert.

For the service St. Mark's church had been decorated with white gladioli.

The reception was held at the Tummy home. The bride's table had been arranged with a centerpiece of white stock, gladioli and daisies. The cake was first cut by the bride, using a knife loaned for the occasion by Mrs. William Warner, and Mrs. George Roberts completed the cutting. The heirloom knife has been used at scores of weddings held in the valley. Pouring were Mrs. Martin Luther, Mrs. Harold Jordan, Mrs. Gain Robinson, Mrs. Sprague Riegel, Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Mrs. Donald Clark and Mrs. Westerlund Saldo.

That evening Mr. and Mrs. Ashcom left for Detroit, Mich., where the groom is a navy V-12 medical student at Wayne University. The couple will reside at 2280 Cadillac boulevard, Goodrow Apartments 405. The

Miss Jean Wall Is Married to Naval Officer

Announcement was made last week of the wedding of Miss Jean Wall, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Wall of Ashland to Lt. (jg) William Donald Barnes, son of Mrs. Cornelia Barnes, Phoenix, and the late W. D. Barnes.

The wedding took place June 15 at the old First Presbyterian church in San Francisco, with Dr. Creighton reading the service. The bride wore a gold colored suit with a lace hat and her flowers were an orchid corsage. She also wore a gold and amethyst bracelet, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Alvie Buckmiller of San Francisco attended the bride. Following a brief wedding trip the groom returned to duty on the naval troop transport to which he is assigned.

Mrs. Barnes, a graduate of Ashland high school and of the Southern Oregon College of Education, taught physical education in the Medford senior high school last year. The groom also attended the Ashland college where he graduated in 1943 with the first class to receive bachelor of science degrees. He has recently been on South Pacific duty with the navy.

The groom's mother traveled to San Francisco to attend the wedding.

Arrangements of Hoover roses decorated the church. The reception was held in the rose garden of the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Farley, Jacksonville highway. White blossoms and lighted tapers decorated the table from which wedding cake and punch were served, with Mrs. Walter Krebs and Miss Vera Humphrey presiding over the table.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mrs. D. C. Holland and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett, Central Point. Also here for the wedding were the groom's parents, who came from Washington to attend the service. Mrs. Hardesty wore a blue two-piece afternoon dress with a white rosebud corsage for the wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. Hardesty made a wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a pink wool jersey suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink orchids.

The bride, who attended Central Point schools and St. Mary's Academy, has been employed on the staff of Dr. Phillips for the past three years. Dr. Hardesty, who will be with the Bureau of Animal Husbandry, Department of Agriculture, is a graduate of the Washington State college in veterinary medicine and resided in Medford for part of 1944 while assigned here by the department.

Zavive Lester, Donald Minear Wed At Church

Medford's First Baptist church was the scene last Sunday afternoon of the wedding of Miss Zavive Lester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Lester, New Crater Lake highway, and Donald M. Minear, son of Mrs. Jessie Minear, Route 1.

The double-ring service was read by the Rev. W. A. Dawes in a setting of greenery, large bouquets of white gladioli, pink and white larkspur and tall white tapers. About 350 guests attended.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Verle Failing played traditional wedding music, concluding with Berlin's "Always," a request of the bride and groom, before the Lohengrin wedding march.

Helen Judy Hardy, Cottage Grove, cousin of the groom and life-long friend of the bride, sang "The Day of Golden Promise" and "O Perfect Love" just before the vows were said and at the close of the ceremony sang a prayer. Mrs. Failing accompanied and played "The Wedding March" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" as the recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned basque style and with a long train. Her tulle veil was train-length and held in place by waxed orange blossoms which had been worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Effie Pruett, on her wedding day 50 years ago. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, bouvardia, stephanotis and sweet peas and wore a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Attendants were Miss Jean Lydiard, cousin of the bride, who was maid-of-honor, and Miss Muriel Platt, Mrs. Patricia Harbour and Miss Winona Varner, bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of chiffone over taffeta. Miss Lydiard and Miss Platt wearing pink and Mrs. Harbour and Miss Varner, aqua blue. Their hats were of matching colors. Miss Lydiard carried a bouquet of white blossoms and the bridesmaids carried shower bouquets of delphinium, pink carnations and snapdragons.

Little Randi Peterson, flower girl, wore a floor-length dress of green net over satin with a hat to match. The bride's mother chose a blue two-piece suit with pink accessories for the wedding and Mrs. Minear wore a blue and white print dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Best man for Mr. Minear was his brother-in-law, C. H. Thompson, USN, of Washington, D. C., and stationed at San Bruno, Calif. Ushers were the Messrs. Homer Blum, Doyle Franklin, Ted Graham and Harry Lydiard, cousin of the bride who came from Pullman, Wash., for the wedding. Also in the wedding party were Alton Anderson, Evan Albom, Coquille, and Ralph Evans, Portland.

The reception was held in the church parlors, which had been decorated with garden flowers and white blossoms and crystal decorated the bride's table from which the wedding cake was served. First slice of the wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom using a knife which had been a wedding gift to the bride's parents, and the cutting was completed by Mrs. G. O. Lydiard, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Pruett. Both are aunts of the bride. Also assisting at the reception were the Mesdames Donn V. Platt, Elmer E. Wilson, Alfred J. Anderson, Ted R. Graham and Homer Blum and the Misses Carlisa Platt, Marine Yorton and Margaret Merriman. Miss Muriel Platt caught the bride's bouquet.

For traveling the bride wore a chartruse toned suit with black accessories and a corsage of two Cateleya orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Minear are making a wedding trip to Yosemite Park and will be at home on the Minear orchard and farm, managed by the groom, after July 10.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Ralph Evans, Portland; Mrs. J. E. Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Begg of Eugene; George Teatsworth of Vancouver, Wash., great uncle of the groom; Mrs. Evan Albom, Coquille; Miss Pauline Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. K. Robby; Wayne Smith, Coquille, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Owings and son of Junction City.
