Dear _____

There was an exodus of Medford residents to escape the heat on July 4, many traveling to nearby lakes and streams to fish and picnic or to Ashland where a parade and rodeo marked the holiday. The fourth annual sheriff's posse rodeo was held in Medford last weekend.

Temperatures have continued high, hitting 100 degrees one day. Clearing of the road to Crater Lake rim has been completed, and 80 Boy Scouts left this week to begin the annual camping session at Lake O'Woods.

Despite lagging of Jackson county 7th War Loan bond sales, showing only 64.7 per cent, or $889,828 of the $1,067,000 quota purchased on July 2, general economic conditions in the valley indicate a business volume far above normal. Committees have been appointed by the local Shrine club to join in a statewide waste paper and tin can salvage drive July 21-29.

A poll conducted by the League of Women Voters among 135 persons in various professions shows that Medford people believe the U. S. congress should ratify the United Nations charter drawn up at the San Francisco conference at once.

Fred Baker, local taxi driver, killed a large brown bear near the Applegate divide in an exciting hillside battle. Lt. O. E. Sabin in command of Co. A, 1st regiment, Medford's rifle unit of Oregon State Guard, has been promoted to captain. Tom Wray has been installed president of the Medford Rotary club, and Noble Vincent is president of the Lions club. Ted M. Medford, district manager for Safeway Stores, has been transferred to Salem.

Six county students are listed on the spring term honor roll at the University of Oregon as follows: Virginia Bradford, Roberta Hill, Joyce Utz, Helen Jean Webb, Ninon King and Betty Whittle.

Weddings announced this week include Zavie Lester and Donald Minear, Deborah Tummy and Richard C. Ashcom, Jean Wall and Lt. (jg) William Donald Barnes, Nadine Walters and Aldred Coffman, Jeanette Metternich and Dr. Jack E. Hardesty, Glenda Maude Wenzel and Herbert Taevs, Mary Rose Lilly and Harold Eldon Hanscom, Louisa Evelyn Thomas and Pfc. Orvie G. Thorsheim, and Roberta Oliver and Virgil Prowell. Sgt. Ray Casebeer and Paula Blanton are being married July 8. The engagement of Miss Virginia Rose Loomis and Richard H. Westfield, SK1-c, was also told.

Lt. and Mrs. John Childers (Lida May Baylor) are parents of a boy, born June 22 at Boise, Idaho.

Casualties reported this week are Sgt. Arthur L. Lockwood of Talent, killed in action in Okinawa May 23, and Pfc. Mildred M. Henney and Robert Henry Organ, PhM 2-c, both wounded.

Gerald Rusque, electrician's mate on an aircraft carrier, has been given the medal of honor, Pvt. Lee R. Bumgardner was awarded the Silver Star medal, and Houston R. Pitts has been promoted to T-Sgt. and awarded the 1st oak leaf cluster to the air medal.

Combat infantryman badges have been given to Pfc. James I. Lusk and Pfc. Glenn Lowe, and Ernest Christensen has received the Purple Heart medal.

Now home on leave after release from German prison camps are Sgt. John A. Stubblefield Jr. and Lt. Boyd P. Bellamy. Also here, after several months of overseas service are First Lt. Donald W. Neilson, Chief Yeoman Lyman W. Robinson, Deward O. Wealty, Marine Platoon Sgt. Francis M. Halsey, Owen K. Phelan, CEM, and Pfc. Lee Reynolds. Philip Eldridge received an honorable discharge from the army June 27 after 32 months of five years in service overseas.

Other valley visitors have been Sgt. and Mrs. Walter Miller from Santa Monica, Calif., Second Lt. Hugh E. Williams, Staff Sgt. Martin S. Otis from Ft. Scott, Calif., Gerald Ousterhout, S 2-c from Willamette university, Staff Sgt. John H. Gee of Sioux City, Ia., Leisel L. Penny, S 2-c from San Diego, and First Lt. Richard Reid.

S-Sgt. Hugh E. Power has written to correct a mis-report of his rank, incorrectly printed as "corporal," and adds that he is now in Manila, where civilian prices are highly inflated. "That first day in combat is the toughest of all, even if nothing does happen," according to Pvt. Fred H. Kerby who went into action on Luzon. Pvt. William W. Croucher took part in a combat patrol which located six Japanese soldiers hiding in a freak rock formation in the Pacific area recently.

Robert Loeffler, who took his medical degree June 22 from the University of Oregon medical school, and was commissioned a lieutenant (jg) in the navy, has gone to Oak Knoll Hospital at Oakland, Calif., Lt. Richard A. Wray to George Field, Ill., Cpl. Ross E. Womack to the naval supply depot at Spokane, Wash., Technical Sgt. John W. LaTourrette to Santa Ana, Calif., and Pfc., Phillip J. Henselman to Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Charles B. Wharton, RT 2-c, is at San Diego, and Harry Regar S 1-c recently visited the United Nations Service Center in Washington, D. C. Ivan J. Cherry has been promoted to petty officer third class.

Recently returned to this country after overseas duty were Frank E. Carter, AMM 2-c, First Sgt. Jap Oaks, and Sgt. Ira D. Luman. First Sgt. John C. Anderson is en route home.

Henry Kilburn, S 1-c is a gunner aboard a battleship in the Pacific. Gerald Harrison Rust, electrician's mate 3-c on an aircraft carrier, recently escaped several of his shipmates to escape an area trapped by fire, and then later searched the area at risk of his own life.

H. F. Martin, boatswain's mate 1-c aboard an escort carrier, has served 28 months in Pacific and taken part in nearly a dozen major battles. Richard F. Hall, electrician's mate 1-c, is now on the USS Sigourney in the Pacific. S-Sgt. John L. Wilson, ser vice company cook, is on Okinawa.

Flight Officer R. J. Parrick has reported to John H. Payne Field, Cairo, Egypt for duty as pilot, and Marlon G. Thomas has been promoted to corporal in Germany. Edwin C. Hudson, S 1-c, has left for duty in the South Pacific.

Coast Vegetables Sent East By Air

Los Angeles, July 6—(U.P.)—A giant C-39 four engine air-freighter arrives in Cleveland, O., today with 18,000 pounds of California fresh fruits and vegetables from Salinas, Cal.

American Airlines officials here said the produce, which left the coast yesterday, flew more than 2,400 miles in less than 24 hours at an average speed of 200 miles an hour.

This represents the largest air shipment of fruits and vegetables yet made, according to the company.

CANADIAN SOLDIERS WRECK ENGLISH TOWN

Aldershot, England, July 6—(U.P.)—Military authorities today opened an inquiry into last night's wild street riot during which some 500 Canadian soldiers vented their impatience over the delay in getting transportation home by wrecking part of this historic military town.

The disorder was said to have been started by a false report that three Canadians were held in the town jail.

MAC TO ATTEND CURTIN FUNERAL

Canberra, July 6—(U.P.)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur hurried here for the special state funeral to be held today for Australian Premier John Curtin.

Curtin died from heart disease Thursday at Canberra Lodge, his official residence. He died in his sleep.

The Duke of Gloucester in a message to Curtin's wife, called his death "A shattering blow to Australia."

Sugar Czar Sought To Help Shortage

Washington, July 6—(U.P.)—The Republican Congressional Food Study committee today called upon Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson to appoint a sugar czar to relieve the sugar shortage.

Rep William S. Hill, R., Colo., a committee member, made the suggestion in a speech prepared for delivery in the house. He also urged an adequate sugar beet support price and steps to provide needed farm labor.

Closing time for Sunday Too Late to Classify 9:30 Saturday afternoon—Please remember
