Evelyn Van Hise, Loyal G. Harper Married June 16

Miss Evelyn Van Hise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Van Hise of 928 East Jackson boulevard, became the bride of Loyal G. Harper, radioman third class, United States navy, in a ceremony performed June 16 at the Holland hotel. Mr. Harper's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Harper of 27 Lewis avenue.

The marriage vows were read by Elder Clemens of the Latter Day Saints' church at 9:30 o'clock in the evening in the presence of immediate members of the family.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white formal dress. Her veil was held in place by orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white gardenias.

Maid of honor was Miss Gloria McGraw, who wore a formal gown of pink net and carried gardenias. Bob Tingley, machinist's mate first class, United States navy, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Van Hise wore a black dress with red rose corsage. Mrs. Harper was dressed in navy blue, with a corsage of red roses.

A reception following the wedding was also held at the hotel, with Mrs. L. Ritchie, sister of the bride, serving.

Mrs. Harper attended the Medford schools, and is employed at Adrienne's. Mr. Harper worked in Medford before entering the navy three years ago. He has served several months of overseas duty, and is now attached to a gun boat.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper were at home to their friends at 414 Newtown street until he left June 26 to return to Norfolk, Va. In his absence, Mrs. Harper is making her home with her parents.
