Medford Women Leave For East

Mrs. Thomas Lewis, Jr., the former Miss Ruth Humphries, and her sister, Miss Mary Humphries, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Humphries of 322 East 12th street, left last Monday for New York City where they will join Mrs. Lewis' husband, Cpl. Lewis, who has just returned from 14 months of overseas service in the European theatre of war.

Cpl. Lewis was seriously injured in Germany on March 25, and is now at Halloran General hospital where he expects to undergo two more operations. At the time of his injury, he was serving with General Patton's third army.

The young couple intend to make their home in the east. Miss Humphries will also remain in the east.
