Marines Shut Out Craters 11 to 0 at Klamath Falls

Klamath Falls service teams again made it hard on valley members of the Southern Oregon baseball league, as the Marines whacked Medford, 11 to 0, at Klamath Falls and Navy trounced Central Point, 13 to 5, at Central Point. In the other league fracas Ashland won its first game of the year when they took a 10 to 8 decision over Butte Falls in a close game played at Butte Falls.

The Marines and Medford played a whale of a ball game, despite the score. It was the first time in over three years that the Craters have failed to score.

George Barr started on the mound for Medford and worked six and two-thirds innings, giving up 13 hits, seven runs, two walks and struck out four before he was relieved by Dick Kidwell. In two and one-third innings, Kidwell gave up four runs, five hits, issued two free passes and struck out none.

Sutton and Chapin, sharing mound chores for the Marines, allowed only three hits, two by second baseman Freddie Stammen, who played a great game and was highly praised by the Marines, and a blow by Paul (Hoosier) Hoffard. Only two errors were committed, one by Al Kircher, Medford shortstop and one by Stammen, who tried too hard to complete a double play.

Central Point held Navy to a 6-5 lead in the seventh inning, but fell apart in the last part of the game to give the air sailors their eight run bulge. Colley, Stud shortstop, was the day's biggest hitter, when he collected three hits out of four trips to bat.

Ashland and Butte Falls played a close game throughout with the Loggers outhitting Ashland, 12 to 10. Ashland made seven bobbles, while Butte Falls made six.

TALBERT CROWNED TENNIS CHAMPION

Menasha, Wis., July 16 — (U.P.)—Bill Talbert, Wilmington, Del., and Doris Hart, Miami, Fla., left today for the Eastern Clay Courts Tournament at Jackson Heights, N. Y., after making a clean sweep of the western senior tennis titles.

Miss Hart and Talbert each won a singles crown outright and shared in two other titles, marking the first time in the history of the tournament that three events had been won by one person.

Talbert, winner of the National Clay Courts' title just one week before, defeated Elwood Cooke, Los Angeles, 6-2, 6-8, 7-5, for the men's singles title, while Miss Hart scored a straight set triumph over Mary Arnold, Los Angeles, 6-3, 8-6.

Talbert and Cooke, recently discharged from the navy, teamed to take the men's doubles.

Miss Hart played with Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke, whom she eliminated in Saturday's semi-finals, to win the women's doubles. They defeated Miss Arnold and Mrs. Eleanor Cushingham, Hollywood, 6-2, 6-3. Miss Hart and Talbert later in the day took the mixed doubles crown from the Cookes.

BEAVERS SWEEP DUAL BILL FROM SAN FRANCISCO

Pitchers dominated Pacific Coast baseball league play for the successive second week-end in all but two of the 12 games played Saturday and Sunday. In support of their efforts was one three-hitter, one four-hit game, a five-hitter and two six-hit performances.

Portland swept both ends of its doubleheader with the slipping Seals, 8-4 and 5-4. Seattle stayed right on the heels of the Beavers with a twin killing over Hollywood, 5-3 and 4-0. It marked the second time in three week-end contests that the Suds shutout the Stars.

Oakland defeated Sacramento in the first game, 1-0, but Bud Beasley came back in the nightcap with a six-hitter to give the Solons an even break, 5-0. George Commellas gave the Padres only three safeties in the second game and Los Angeles won, 4-0. The Seraphs captured the first game, 3-1.

In only three games Sunday were managers forced to call in relief pitchers. Both San Francisco and Portland used an extra hurler in their first game while Vic Trahd relieved Bob Ferguson in the first game for San Diego. Jake Mooty came to Cohen's aid in the Portland finale.

In the only change in the standings, Los Angeles displaced San Diego in sixth place. The Seals still cling to fourth place by a scant half game.

FELLOW GOLFERS ACCLAIM NELSON AS GREAT STAR

Dayton, O., July 16.—(U.P.)—The 27th national tournament of the Professional Golfers' association set three new P. G. A. records, as well as netting more than $50,000 which will be turned over to the rehabilitation fund of nearby Wright field

The records were: (1) The largest total crowd in the history of the tournament, 31,000; (2) the largest field, 143 entries; and (3) the largest press file, approximately 40,000 words daily.

Dayton, O., July 16—(U.P.)—For the first time in his career, Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., was acclaimed by most of his fellow journeymen today as the greatest golfer the game has ever known.

Such golfing veterans as Denny Shute, former British open champion; Craig Wood, duration national open titlist, and Fred Corcoran, tournament manager of the Professional Golfers' association—to mention a few—all were strong in their stand that regardless of Bobby Jones, Walter Hagen and even the immortal Harry Vardon—Nelson is the all-time tops.

Nelson, now 33, and a veteran of 12 years of professional tournament golf, won that acclaim yesterday. For he climaxed the greatest winning streak in the history of the sport by beating Sammy Byrd of Detroit, 4 and 3, to win the 27th national P.G.A. tournament.

In doing it, he left Byrd's dreams of eight years scattered over the rolling Moraine country club course. Yet Byrd today was one of the first of Nelson's fellow professionals to rank him as the greatest.

Nelson, long conceded the best in medal play, erased any doubt of his ability because he proved himself during the national P.G.A., golf's most gruelling test of men against man rather than man against par.

In winning the P.G.A. a second time, he kept alive his record of eight straight major individual tournament victories. Nelson also has won 11 championships so far this year, as well as $31,500, counting the $5000 he gained yesterday.

For the 33 holes of their scheduled 36-hole match, Nelson oneputted 16 greens which tells the story. Byrd one-putted eight.

Nelson wanted to win this one above all, for in the four previous times he had been in the finals of this golfing classic he had won only once—in 1940 at Hershey, Pa.
