Farm Help Force Definitely Known By Last of Month

Exact information on how many Axis prisoners of war, and Mexican national farm workers will be assigned Jackson county for the pear harvest will not be definitely known until the final week of the month, County Agent Robert G. Fowler reports. German prisoners of war from Camp White have been assisting in orchard thinning, and several squads have completed their jobs. Thirty additional Mexican workers arrived recently.

Application was filed last January for 1,000 Mexican workers, but it is doubtful if this many will come. Many are now engaged in sugar beet hoeing and pea picking in eastern Oregon and Idaho, work which has started to taper off.

Wall Street

New York, July 16 — (U.P.) — Stocks declined today on light trading inspired by highly favorable war news.

Reports circulated in the financial district that the Big Three conference would report Russian entry into the war and thus shorten its duration. A quick end of the Japanese war, it was pointed out, would complicate the reconversion program.

Selling was not particularly heavy but with demand lacking it took but a small amount to bring declines of a point or more in a long list of issues. A few specials managed to rise as much as two points.

All the leading groups were depressed. Losses of a point and more were noted in American Woolen, Santa Fe, Briggs, Chrysler, Checker Cab, Corn Products, Delaware & Hudson, Distillers Corp.-Seagrams, Guantanamo Sugar Preferred, Homestake Mining, International Harvester, Johns-Manville, Lima Locomotive, Montgomery Ward, Southern Pacific and Westinghouse Air Brake.

HOME GROWN TOBACCO CROP SOLVES SHORTAGE

Los Angeles, (U.P.)—S. C. Weiss never has to cajole, coerce or bribe druggists to sell him a stogie, because he grows his own in his backyard.

Last December he planted some Connecticut broadleaf tobacco seed, and by mid-March he had his first crop of smokes and expects another crop before the plants die.

"Oh, I've smoked better ones," he says, "but the cigars from my little patch are at least two-biters."
