To Portland—J. F. Fliegel left Sunday morning for Portland where he will undergo a minor operation at the veterans' hospital. Fliegel will be gone a week or 10 days, and will not be available at his law office at 32 N. Central avenue.

Picnic Wednesday — Rogue Valley chapter 147, the Military Order of the Purple Heart, and auxiliary will hold a meeting and picnic at the Ashland Luthia park Wednesday at 6 p. m. Members are asked to bring pickles and olives.

Leaving Hospital — Betty Reames, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reames of 27 Geneva street, is expected to be removed to her home tomorrow night from Sacred Heart hospital, where she underwent an appendectomy Saturday. Her condition is reported as good.

Aid Air Park — Dick Alley, Neil Collins and Bill Chrysler are donating their services toward completion of the air park being constructed on the fairgrounds, Frank H. Rogers, city superintendent, said today. Work was begun last Wednesday and is said to be progressing nicely.

To Visit Here — Sgt. Robert James Hoover and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoover, of Seattle, are to arrive in Medford this week for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover, 37 Tripp street, and other relatives. Sgt. Hoover, who has been stationed on Guam with the air corps, visited several times with 1st Lt. Earl C. Wheelock, plane commander of the "City of Medford." Hoover is on a 15-day furlough and will remain in the States for advanced training.

Mrs. Stedman Leaves — Mrs. Audrey Stedman and small daughter, Lois Kay, left Medford Thursday for Washington, D. C., where they will join Mrs. Stedman's husband, Lt. Robert Stedman, stationed there as an army instructor. Lt. Stedman, formerly on the staff of Medford high school, is teaching construction work, and his family will make their home in Washington while he is there. Mrs. Stedman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Lofland of 225 S. Oakdale avenue.

Walls Visiting — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wall and son, Charles, are visiting in Medford for a few days at the home of Mrs. Wall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reames, 27 Geneva street. Mr. Wall is transacting business for the Sloan company, wholesale hardware dealers in Klamath Falls.

Here From Army — Pvt. Dilan E. Arnold arrived home Saturday from Camp Wolters, Tex., on furlough until July 26, and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Arnold, Route 4. Pvt. Arnold, a graduate of Medford high school with the class of 1943, has been in the army four months and will report to Camp Maxey, Tex.

Returned To Action — Mrs. Nelle Winne, 609 West 10th street, has received word that the ship on which her son, Lt. Commander George M. Winne, serves was damaged in the typhoon which hit the Pacific fleet last month, but it is now back in action. Lt. Commander Winne is a navigator on the carrier San Jacinto, and was recently awarded his second bronze star.

Luman On Furlough — S/Sgt. Ira Luman is spending a 30-day furlough in the city visiting his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Luman, Route 4. The sergeant arrived in the states recently from England where he has been stationed with the 8th air force for the past 26 months. Luman is a graduate of Medford high and attended normal school at Ashland and Oregon State college before entering the service.

Fountain Coming — Pfc. Roy H. Fountain, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fountain of Talent, is expected to arrive home on furlough soon, after several months of duty in a glider infantry unit in Germany. His parents received Sunday a purple heart medal awarded to Fountain for wounds suffered in action last January 7, in the Belgian jungle. He entered the service in January of 1944, and has been overseas since last October.

Bromley Here — Pvt. Spencer Bromley, son of H. C. Bromley, is spending a few days leave here on route to Scott Field, Ill. He enlisted in the army air corps in March, 1944, and entered the service after finishing high school last year. He is specializing in radio and has received training at Keesler Field, Miss., Sioux Falls, S. D., and Truxav Field, Wis. His brother, Robert Bromley is in the Philippines with the U. S. army.

Sam Richardson Home — T/Sgt Sam Richardson, son of Mrs. Bel F. Richardson, 33 North Peach street, is on furlough from the army air corps visiting his mother and will be in the city until Friday. Richardson was stationed overseas with the 8th air force eight months and was awarded the air medal and five oak leaf clusters. He will report to Mountain Home, Idaho, for service as a gunnery instructor at the air base there.
