Juanita Gunter, James W. Grigsby Married Sunday

At an evening ceremony Sunday, July 15, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James William Grigsby, Sr., Old Stage road, Miss Juanita Gunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Gunter of 808 S. Central avenue, became the bride of James William Grigsby, Jr., electrician's mate third class, U. S. navy. The Rev. W. D. Daniels read the double ring service at 8 o'clock before about 100 friends and relatives.

Standing before the living room fireplace in a setting of white candleabra, palms, gladioli and white daisies, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length white faille dress with a long train and finger tip veil, held in place by a Dutch cap of orange blossoms and pearls. Her bouquet was of orchids and white gardenias.

Maid of honor was Miss Melba Ayres of Jacksonville, who wore a formal dress of dusty pink chiffon with matching hat and shoulder-length veil. The two bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Metzger and Miss Bonnie Sanger, both of whom are employed in Oakland with the bride, were dressed in matching gowns of yellow and blue organza with bishop sleeves and shoulder-length veils fastened with gardenias. Miss Ayres carried a bouquet of pink rose buds, and the bridesmaids carried yellow roses.

Vernal Goodrich, stationed on the same ship with the groom, was best man, and ushers were First Lt. John M. Saulsberry and Eldon Gunter, brother of the bride. Miss Joyce Henspeter played the wedding marches, and Miss Jean Hickman and Miss Harriett Walker of Medford sang "I Love You Truly" before the service.

Mothers of both the bride and groom wore formal dresses, Mrs. Gunter's gown being of rose colored jersey, and Mrs. Grigsby's of flowered print jersey. They wore gardenia corsages.

At a reception following the wedding, the bride and groom first cut the wedding cake, and serving was continued by Mrs. Charlie Offenbacher of Oakland, Calif. Mrs. Jessie Metzger and Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry poured, and Mrs. Ruy Wright and Mrs. Herb Crain assisted.

After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby returned to Medford for a few days before leaving Friday for California, where Mr. Grigsby returned to his ship yesterday. Mrs. Grigsby will continue work at the Oakland army base. Both were graduated from Jacksonville high school with the class of 1944. Mr. Grigsby has been in the navy 19 months, and has made three trips overseas.

Guests at the wedding included the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Yantiss of Medford. Out of town guests were an aunt and cousin of the groom, Mrs. Everett Rawlings and Mrs. James Goodman of Vallejo, Calif., and Mrs. G. Fletcher Williams and Jack Lewis of San Francisco.
