

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Townsend Meeting—Townsend club will meet Friday, July 27, at 8 p. m. at the K. of P. hall. A dance will follow at 9 o'clock, and the public is invited to attend.

Meeting Wednesday—Members of the service club of United Spanish War Veterans auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Winifred Gail, 56 N. Orange street, tomorrow for a 1:30 p. m. dessert luncheon. Those attending are asked to bring material for bazaar work.

In Aircraft Unit—Sgt. Louis J. Clave of Eagle Point, an aerial engineer in the 13th AAF aircraft group, aided in the unit's work in neutralizing Jap fortifications at Balikpapan and Borneo prior to the Australian invasion, according to a release from his headquarters in the Philippine islands. They blasted a Jap airstrip until it was un-serviceable, but were attacked by two enemy fighters which badly shot up their B-24 Liberator, the notice adds.

Being Released—Lt. Worlow C. Purdin, husband of Mrs. Marjorie Purdin and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Purdin, 335 Fairmont street, left the Victorville army air field, Victorville, Calif., last Thursday for Ft. Lewis, Wash., to be released from active service under the army point system and is now in Medford for a few days en route to the separation center. He enlisted in September, 1939 and was commissioned in April, 1943. Going overseas in July, 1943, he served as a pilot with the 9th, 12th and 15th air forces until August, 1944 when he returned to the states. While overseas he participated in 47 bombing missions and received the purple heart, air medal with six oak leaf clusters and the silver star.

CALENDAR

Thursday
1:00 p. m.—Sojourners' club, Girls' Community club, dessert bridge. For reservations, call Mrs. Bruce Stewart, telephone 7361.

DAV Meeting—DAV members will meet at 8 p. m. tonight at the armory for the regular meeting, followed by refreshments.

Returns—E. E. Hill, 707 West 11th street, returned to his home this morning from Portland where he has been confined for the past few weeks in the Veterans' hospital.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lionberger, Arnold Anderson and Mrs. Elta Christopher, all of Yakima, Wash., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Holt, 811 Palm street. They arrived Monday evening and will remain a few days. Mrs. Christopher is the mother of Mrs. Holt.

Officer Home—Lt. (J.G.) Donald C. Wimer and wife and daughter arrived in the city Wednesday from Daytona Beach, Fla., where Lt. Wimer has been stationed with the naval air corps. He returned to the U. S. in February after eight months overseas duty, and will report to San Diego upon expiration of his leaves.

Visiting Here—T/5 J. L. VanPelt, Frank Heeb, BMI/c, and his brother, Charles Heeb, PHM 1/c, with their wives from Berkeley, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mrs. VanPelt's mother, Mrs. Maudie Reynolds, on South Oakdale avenue. Cpl. VanPelt is on a 60-day furlough following his release from a German prison camp and the other servicemen are on navy leaves.

In Army—James L. Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham, 108 Cottage street, who was inducted into the army July 8 at Portland, is now stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo., for basic training with the medical corps. James is the third son of the Grahams to be inducted into the armed forces, the other two being Pat, Jr., in the navy, and Danny, at West Point.

Home From Navy—Clark L. Carlton, son of Mrs. Nell C. Carlton, 728 West Fourth street, is spending a 30-day navy leave with his mother. Carlton, who enlisted in the navy immediately after the U. S. entry into the war, has spent the past three and one-half years in the Pacific theater. He will report to the naval school of advance fire control maintenance at San Diego, Aug. 23 for a four months' course of advance training.

Davidson Discharged—Thomas P. Davidson, a first lieutenant and bombardier recently returned from overseas duty, has arrived home with an honorable discharge from Ft. Lewis, Wash., placing him on inactive duty on the point system. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davidson, 1139 W. Ninth street, Davidson entered the service with the National Guard in September, 1940. Prior to that, he was employed as a meat cutter at the Riverside Market. Davidson holds the air medal with six oak leaf clusters and the Asiatic-Pacific service medal with three bronze stars, and notice of the award of the distinguished flying cross has just been received. He plans to enter Oregon State college this fall. A brother, Pvt. John I. Davidson is now en route overseas.

4-H Meeting—Roxy Ann 4-H club will meet at the home of Charles Ashpole, reporter for the group, Friday at 8 p. m. Ashpole asks that all members be present.

Guests In Valley—Mrs. G. Fletcher Williams, former Medford resident, and young son, Ronald, of San Francisco, are visiting in the valley as guests of Mrs. J. W. Grigsby of Jacksonville.

From Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoover and son, Staff Sgt. Robert Hoover, of Seattle, are visiting a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Earle Hoover, 37 Tripp street. The sergeant is on a two weeks furlough from the army air corps and will report to Muroc Lake, Calif.

Leave Tonight—First Sgt. and Mrs. William J. Spencer and daughter, who have spent the past week in Medford visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe L. Larson, 303 North Holly street, plan to leave tonight for their home at Sarasota, Fla. The sergeant is stationed at the army air field there and has been in Medford on furlough.

Wall Street

New York, July 24 — (UP) — Strength in Aircraft, Automobile and Steel shares today featured an irregular, dull stock market today.
Trading fell off to around the lightest levels in three months as traders moved cautiously. Early in the session yesterday's losses were expanded, but when the small recessions failed to bring in liquidation the Market rallied.
Douglas Aircraft and Grumman each rose more than a point. Chrysler at its high was up a point in a firm automobile section. The leading Steels gained
