

Portland's Babe Freese Seen Coming Links Queen

Chicago, July 25 — (U.P.) — Carol (Babe) Freese, a little, pug-nosed kid from Portland, Ore., today was hailed as the coming woman golf champion of America—the kind of player who some day may dominate the staff side of the game as Byron Nelson now rules the male competition.

Miss Freese is just 5-feet, 2 inches tall and weighs a little over 100-pounds, but she has a big heart and whooping power in her drives as she proved yesterday by taking Medalist honors in qualifying for the all-American woman's Open.

Leads Qualifiers

The Tam O'Shanter course, with its rolling greens and long holes, is tough for women, but the freckle-faced kid from the west coast came within one stroke of tying the women's course record with a three-under-par 73 to lead the 24 qualifiers.

Although this is only her third major tournament, Lt. Ben Hogan and Nelson hailed Miss Freese as "the greatest woman player to come along since Babe Didrikson," currently the queen of feminine golf.

"Give her a little more experience—she's only 20—and she'll be the greatest of them all by far," Fred Corcoran, P.G.A. tournament manager said.

Despite Miss Freese's great performance, she was just one stroke better than Peggy Kirk of Findlay O., who finished with a 74. Trailing her was Dot Kieley, Los Angeles Dress Shop proprietor, with a 76, and Bettye M. White, of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. H. S. Covington, Baltimore, Md.

Start Tomorrow

The final qualifying round in the $80,000 all-American championship, George S. May's annual three-in-one golfing extravaganza, ends today with about 90 professionals playing 18 holes for 40 players in the Men's Open.

Tomorrow the big gold rush starts. The Women's Open, the Amateur and the Men's Open begin concurrently with 18 holes daily through Sunday. At the

JAYCEES FUMBLE PLAYOFF CHANCE IN 11-4 DEFEAT

Held to only four runs, scored in the seventh inning, while their opponents chalked up 11 tallies, the Junior Chamber baseball team lost to the Ordinance Shop last night, and also blew their chance to place in the Shaughnessy playoffs July 31 and August 3. In a close second game, Silver Dollar defeated the Oregon State Guard 9 to 8.

The Ordinance spurred for five runs in the second inning, a three-base hit by Captain Applegate accounting for two of them. Hendrickson whammed out a three-base hit in the fourth period, and was scored by Lawson.

Scoring for the Jaycees was held to the first inning when a hit by Dierdorff scored Thomson and McLaughlin, and in the seventh when Newcomb poked out a single and three men were walked, followed by a fielders' choice which brought two men in.

First hit for Silver Dollar came in the fifth inning when Fasel scored Hoffard who had walked. In the next at bat Hoffard scored two men with a three-base hit, and Lang scored Hoffard. Hoffard brought in two more men on a single in the seventh, and then came in himself on a hit by Higgin, putting the Silver Dollar nine out in front one run.

The Guardsmen collected all eight of their runs in the second and third innings, with a double by Rice, singles by Bradley, Britton, Pathman, and Hoag bringing in four runs in the second round. Four more tallies came in the third with a single by Vurnham and a home by Waltham, and another single by Bradley, scored by Britton who hit a single and then stole home on an error on first baseman Gilzen.

The State Guard made no more hits in the game.

A game between the Girls' Community Club and the Headquarters Camp White team ended in a 17 to 3 victory for the Community club girls. Brooks was the winning pitcher, Barr catcher, and Peachy and McCoy represented the Camp White girls.

Scores:

Ordinance Shop 11 19 4
Junior Chamber 4 5 3
Swanson and Freer; Niles and Thomson.
Silver Dollar 9 6 3
State Guard 8 10 4
Higgin and Ice; Britton and Hoag.

Freddie Steele Finds Acting Job Easier Than Ring

Hollywood, July 25 — (U.P.) — Movie-making is easier than boxing, but otherwise there's not much difference, former world's middleweight boxing champion Freddie Steele, one of the stars of "G. I. Joe," said today.

"Like fighting, acting is strictly a case of personalities," Steele explained. "If you're a fighter and you win, the crowd likes it. But if you smile when you win, then you're a sensation. Same thing in the movie business."

The ex-champ didn't do much smiling in either of his two movie characterizations, but he was a sensation anyway.

In "Hall the Conquering Hero," he played a tough marine with a mother complex. In "G. I. Joe" he is an army sergeant who goes insane in Italy. He clicked in both parts.

Closing time for Sunday Too Late to Classify 4-00 Saturday afternoon. Please remember.

DEER SEASON TO START SEPT. 29; ELK SEASON SET

State Game Commission Places Seasons, Bag Limits on Hunting Over State.

The 1945 hunting regulations tentatively were set by the Oregon State Game Commission when it held its annual hearing in Portland recently. The hearing was adjourned until July 28 at which time final regulations will be passed.

There will be no special cow elk tags issued this year although the same area in southeastern Oregon will be open to the hunting of elk of either sex on the regular elk tag. The elk season will be from Nov. 3 to 25, inclusive, but that part of the state west of the summit of Cascade range will be closed to hunting with the exception of the eastern half of Lane county.

800 Doe Deer Tags

Deer season will be open from Sept. 29 to Oct. 28 for buck deer having not less than forked horns. There will be no special doe deer tags issued except 800 tags for a post-season shoot to be held in the Fort Rock-Silver Lake area from Dec. 1 to 5, inclusive.

There also will be issued 800 tags for the taking of antelope with ear-length horns. The season will be from Sept. 22 to 30, inclusive.

Following is a summary of the regulations for game animals, game birds and fur-bearing animals:

Deer—Bag limit, one deer having not less than forked horns; provided that the bag limit is one deer of either sex in that part of the Canyon Creek game refuge lying east and north of Canyon Creek which area is reserved by statute to hunting by means of long bow and broad arrow only.

Game Reserves Open

Special Doe Deer Season—Eight hundred permits will be issued for taking of doe deer from Dec. 1 to Dec. 5, inclusive, in the winter range area in vicinity of Fort Rock and Silver Lake.

Game Reserves Open to Hunting—Salt Creek, Mule Deer, Mt. Emily, Myrtle Park, Steens Mountain, Cow Creek, Whitetail Deer, Grass Mountain, Ochoco, that part of Warner reserve outside of federal Hart Mt. antelope reserve, and Canyon Creek game reserve; provided that that part of Canyon Creek refuge east and north of Canyon creek is reserved to bow and arrow hunting.

Wallows mountain sheep refuge open to migratory waterfowl hunting only.

Elk—Open season, Nov. 3 to Nov. 25, inclusive, in that part of the state east of the summit of the Cascade range and in the eastern part of Lane county. Rest of the state closed to elk hunting.

Bag limit, one bull elk having antlers except that the bag limit is one elk of either sex in the same area open last year to elk of either sex, the area generally being bounded on the north by highway 28, on the west by highways 97, 62 and 99; on the south by the Oregon-California state line and on the east by Oregon-Idaho state line.

Antelope—Open season Sept. 22 to Sept. 30, inclusive, for antelope having ear-length horns. Same areas closed as last year, namely: the Millican-Fort Rock-

Wagontire area, and the Drakes Flat area.

Pheasants Limited

Pheasants—Oct. 13 to 28, inclusive, Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Hood River, Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, Morrow, Grant, Crook, Klamath, Deschutes, Harney, Lake and Wheeler counties. Bag limit, four cocks a day, eight in possession.

California or Valley Quail—Open season in Coos, Umatilla, Union, Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Wasco, Sherman, Morrow, Grant, Lake, Gilliam, Wheeler, Klamath and Harney counties to run concurrently with pheasant season in respective counties.

Bag limit, 10 in seven consecutive days or in possession.

Migratory Waterfowl—During open season for migratory waterfowl, shooting will be allowed on Thursdays, Sundays and Mondays only in Wasco, Gilliam and Sherman counties.

Furbearing Animals—Open season, Nov. 15 to Feb. 15, inclusive, for marten, mink, muskrat, otter and raccoon.

Silver Grey Squirrels—Open season, Sept. 15 to Oct. 20, inclusive, in all counties except that the open season is the entire year in Multnomah, Clackamas, Marion, Yamhill, Washington, Benton, Polk, Linn, Douglas and Lane counties; and except that there is no open season in Hood River county.

Bag limit, five in any seven consecutive days.

GIRLS TO PLAY IN PRELIMINARY

As a preliminary to the game between the 752nd M. P. battalion from Camp White and the guardsmen from Tule Lake, Calif., Thursday night, the girls from the Camp White motor pool and the Girls' Community club in Medford will meet on the local high school field.

The clash between the M. P.'s and guardsmen is a return affair after last Saturday's game on the Tule Lake diamond which ended in a 5 to 3 victory for the Camp White team.

The girls from the Community club last night scored 17 to 3 win over the Headquarters Camp White team.

SUDS WIN 6 TO 1 TO TRIM LEAD OF PORTLAND BEVOS

By United Press

The Seattle Rainiers found Lefty Roy Helsler's Slants to their liking Tuesday night for five innings and coupled with George McDonald's double went on to defeat the league leading Portland Beavers, 6-1 and have a complete game off the Bevo's lead, now six games.

The other change recorded in the Pacific Coast League baseball standings involved the battle of the bulge and in it the San Diego Padres displaced Los Angeles in sixth place with a 7-5 victory over Sacramento. Oakland moved to within a half game of the fourth-place Seals with a 6-3 triumph. The cellar-dwelling Stars of Hollywood pounded their fellow townsmen, Los Angeles, 7-4, at Gilmore Field.

The scores:

Oakland	6 10 1
San Francisco	3 8 1
Stromme and Raimondi; Barthleson, Ehrman (8) and Spriz.
San Diego	7 11 2
Sacramento	5 9 3

"A" LOOP LEADERS GOING WRONG WAY

New York, July 25 — (U.P.) — You'd think it was the last place Athletics that the so-called American League contenders were trying to catch these days in a race that seems to be developing into a full "retreat" from the pennant.

Take the pace setting Detroit Tigers. They left home on an eastern road trip, four and a half games in front and won only four games, losing seven and tying one. That they still are three full games in front is evidence of the backward trend in effect among the other clubs.
