

MEDIC PRESCRIBED LOVE TREATMENT SAYS G. I.'S WIFE

Hollywood, July 25—(U.P.)—Mrs. Sidnie Leonard, pretty 32-year-old wife of a soldier overseas, today accused Dr. Wendell White, 35, Glendale, Calif., physician and ex-sailor, of offering her love treatments at $10 each.

When Mrs. Leonard turned him down, Dr. White slapped her, called her "dirty names" and kicked her in the stomach, she charged at his arraignment on assault and battery charges.

The doctor prescribed the treatments, she said, after she told him her husband, Sgt. John E. Leonard of Vincennes, Ind., was serving in the Pacific.

Checkup Wanted
Mrs. Leonard told police she went to the doctor's office for a physical checkup. He looked her over briefly, she said, and told her:

"The only thing wrong with you is you need a little loving." He suggested that she start her "treatments" immediately, she said.

"Come over here and sit on my knee," she quoted him. "I'm just advising you as a physician," she said he added.

When she indignantly refused, she said, he told her the fee was $10. When she protested she hadn't received any medical advice, he raised it to $50.

Got $25 Check
The argument led to a scuffle

"Topper" Opens Showing Today

during which she said he slapped her with his open hand, shoved her against a window and kicked her in the stomach. She escaped after writing a check for $25, she said.

Police said the office was a "shambles" and that they noticed a dusty footprint on the front of Mrs. Leonard's skirt.

The young housewife said she made the appointment for a physical checkup when she took her 7-year-old daughter to Dr. White for ear treatments.

White was released on $50 bail pending trial Thursday.

Replanted Zone On Wilson River Is Burned Again

Portland, Ore., July 25—(U.P.) High school boys planted thousands of young trees the past two winters along the Wilson river highway where the great Tillamook burn of 1933 had left only blackened stumps on the hill.

The trees were to grow up and screen the burn, part of a long range reforestation plan of lumber operators and the State Forestry Department.

Today the seedlings are charred and wiped out by another fire. Only one tree remains, the four-year-old Port Orford memorial cedar planted March 4 at a ceremony on the spot where the original fire started.

The fire even blackened the large sign which said: "Here is where the great Tillamook burn started August 14, 1933." The spot was on Gales Creek south of Glenwood.

Former Medford Orchardist Here On Vacation Visit

C. E. Whistler, of Palisade, Colo., formerly one of the best known orchard operators in southern Oregon, is in Medford visiting old friends before returning to Colorado to take up his duties as state and federal inspector in the famous peach districts of the Grand Junction area.

While in Medford Mr. Whistler and associates owned the Bear Creek orchard now the property of the Holmes brothers, trading same to the late Sam Rosenberg of Seattle for the Sorrento hotel in the Puget Sound metropolis. While here the Whistler corporation won many prizes at the Spokane Apple show and had a reputation throughout the northwest for the excellence of fruit produced.

Since leaving Medford Mr. Whistler spent considerable time in Virginia where he specialized in the raising of thoroughbred livestock.

Wall Street

New York, July 25—(U.P.)—Stocks advanced sharply today but volume continued around the lowest for more than three months.

Net gains ranged from one to three points. The industrial average gained more than a point and the rail component nearly a half point. Rails came back fractions to more than a point. Utilities supplied a few substantial gainers and chemicals were strong on advances running to three points. Building issues were given a whirl and numerous specialties had wide gains.

The recovery, lacking vigor, was seen as merely technical and not an indication of a resumption on a large scale of the uptrend.

Preliminary closing Dow-Jones stock averages: Industrial 163.44, up 1.71; railroad 57.65, up 0.70; utility 32.81, up 0.15; 65 stocks 62.57, up 0.64.

Sales totaled 620,000, the smallest since April 9, compared with 640,000 shares yesterday.
