Sergeant Huber D. Lewis, husband of Carol R. Lewis, E. W. 9th street, Medford, Ore., has been awarded the bronze star medal by General Walter Krueger, Sixth Army commander.

A member of an anti-aircraft gun battalion, Sergeant Lewis and his crew were assigned to guard four bridges subject to enemy infiltration and sniper fire. Although battalion equipment had not been unloaded, it was imperative that each bridge have telephonic communication for immediate defense and artillery support.

Accordingly, Sergeant Lewis borrowed equipment, salvaged scrap wire and set up a working system. At two different times, when lines had been cut, he undertook the great personal risk to trace the break and made successful repairs.

Subsequently assigned to support of two different infantry divisions for direct positional firing, the sergeant's battalion had to maintain communications with radio sets which were completely new to them. Sergeant Lewis, however, quickly mastered the sets, passed the information on, and successfully maintained peak operational efficiency. When, in the same action, a gun had to be moved into closer position, Lewis maintained vital communications by semaphore while the gun was being set up for firing.

FARM LOAN ASSN. INCREASES SCOPE OF LOAN MAKING

Amendment to the Federal Farm Loan Act, recently passed by congress and approved by President Truman, increase the scope of lending through National Farm Loan Association and provide machinery for expediting procedure in connection with Federal Land Bank loans, C. R. Sterling, secretary-treasurer of the Southern Oregon National Farm Loan Association here announced today.

Operating through National Farm Loan Associations, the bank may now make loans up to 65% of the normal value of a farm including improvements, Sterling said. Prior to July 1, 1945 bank loans were limited to 50 per cent of the normal value of the land plus 20 per cent of the permanent improvements.

By the same legislation, congress extended the time for making Land Bank commission loans to July 1, 1946, and provided that the Land Bank may purchase commissioner notes and mortgages whenever the amount owing on them, together with any prior mortgage to the Land Bank, does not exceed 65 per cent of the normal value of the farm, including improvements. When the bank makes such a purchase, Mr. Sterling said, the borrower's rate of interest is reduced by one per cent to the rate at which the bank makes first mortgage loans.

Mr. Sterling explained that borrowers can pay part or all of their loan at any time without penalty, and under the new legislation the principal portion of the installments on a Land Bank loan may be deferred to enable a borrower to pay any

Bilbo Terms Cohort Political Mongrel From Sinful City

Washington, July 26—(U.P.)—A bitter political feud waxed hot today as Sen. Theodore G. Bilbo, D., Miss., called Rep. Vito Marcantonio, A-L, N. Y., a "political mongrel" from the "sin-soaked communistic sections of New York."

"How dare such a creature have the nerve and audacity to pass upon the ethics and judgment of a United States senator whose every heartbeat synchronizes with the ideals and principles of the founding fathers...?" Bilbo demanded.

His ire was aroused by Marcantonio's written request that Bilbo apologize to Miss Josephine Piccolo, Brooklyn, N. Y., for addressing her as "My Dear Dago" in reply to a letter.
