Mr. Hunnex is taking navy radar training at Chicago, and his sister is a WAVE stationed at Treasure Island. Mrs. Hunnex and two children, Diane and Jimmy, are staying in Ontario. Another brother of Mrs. Hunnex, Boyd E. Chapman, aviation ordnance second class, is on duty with the Pacific fleet.

MOVIE MEN EYE 'VILLE REGION

Henry Spitz of Walter Wanger Pictures, motion picture producers of Universal City, California, accompanied by F. O. Collings and Frank Phillips arrived in Medford Wednesday night to survey this area for the filming of "Canyon Passage." Lee Port of Rogue River National Forest service is accompanying the film producers on a tour of the Jacksonville area today. Other locations in the state will also be eyed by the group seeking a locale for the latest Ernest Haycock film.

Jackson County chamber of commerce officials are assisting Spitz and Collings in their search here. If this area is selected for the picture of Jacksonville in pioneer days an effort will be made locally to secure appropriate historic material and personnel for use in filming "Canyon Passage." Top flight Hollywood stars have already been secured for leading roles in the forthcoming technicolor picture.
