

Nelson's All-Out Round May Cost Him Final Prize

By Walter Byers
(United Press Correspondent)

Chicago, July 27—(U.P.)—Byron Nelson's fiery competitive spirit today apparently was about to cost him golf's richest prize, the all-American open championship.

As the three in one all-American tournaments entered the second round at the Tam O'Shanter club, Nelson once again was leading the field in the rich $37,733 men's open of which he is defending champion. But he had to stage one of the most spirited rallies yesterday to get there, shooting a 36-30—66 to take a one stroke lead over his fellow

Texan and old-time caddy pal, 1st Lt. Ben Hogan.

Par Out Six Strokes

Nelson gave it all he had on the back nine—shaving six strokes from par—to get in ahead of Hogan's crackling woods and precision irons.

But the fighting Nelson heart, which carried him to all-time winning streak of eight straight individual tournaments, may have taken too much out of the greatest golfing machine the game has ever known.

In shooting that brilliant nine holes, in which he made one eagle and four birdies, Nelson pulled a back muscle which has kept him on the sidelines for the past week. It even took more than that out of him.

"Yes, I didn't do my back any good. It hurts," he said. "And frankly, I don't think I'm going to win this one. I'm afraid I shot my best round—I gave it too much."

Hogan Consistent

Hogan shot the most consistent golf, a 33-34—67, made up of all 3's and 4's. But he couldn't stick with Nelson on the incoming nine. The three tournaments conclude Sunday at the end of 72-hole medal play.

In third place in the 136-man open field and first place in the amateur was Flight Officer Frank R. Stranahan, Ft. Myers, Fla., with a 35-34—69.

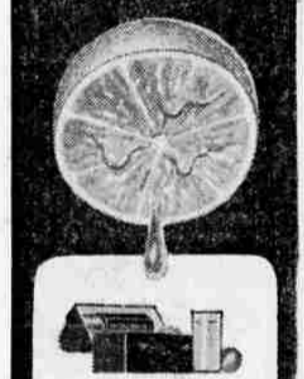

Trailing Stranahan in the amateur were three tied at 73, Sgt. Walter Berkemo, Evanston, Ill., 38-35; Bill Hyndman, Ill., Abington, Pa., 38-35; and Art Doering, Denver, Colo., 39-34.

Meanwhile, in the women's open, Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia, two-time winner of the women's western amateur, took the lead with a 41-35—76. Miss Germain managed to finish one-up on Dot Kieley of Los Angeles, who had a 39-38—77 with 54 holes to go. Behind her were Sally Sessions, Muskegon, Mich., 40-39—79 and Marine Lt. Patty Berg of Philadelphia, with a 38-42—80. Defending Champion Betty Hicks was fifth with a 40-41—81.

SOFTBALLERS IN "GAME OF YEAR" AT 7:45 TONIGHT

Looming as the best game of the year here, softball fans are anxiously awaiting outcome of the clash tonight between the league-leading Camp White team and the 752nd M.P. Battalion. Tonight's games will end city league play, and will decide which teams are to participate in the Shaughnessy playoffs July 31 and August 3. The game will start at 7:45 p. m. in the high school stadium, and will be followed by the Littrell Parts vs. Jennings contest.

Pfc. Charlie Schroyer will pitch for the Camp White Agates for the first time this season in league competition.

The M. P.'s are expected to send T/S Frank Whipp to the mound to avenge a 6-5 loss to the Agates earlier this season. The battalion team traveled to Tule Lake and Klamath Falls last week-end to take a pair of wins over the Tule Lake guardsmen and Klamath marines, and in a return game with the guardsmen here last night the M. P.'s coasted to a 21 to 8 victory.

Three Tule Lake pitchers walked 21 M. P.'s in the one-sided contest.

The Girls' Community club took a 13 to 5 win over the Camp White Amazons in the opener.

Scores:
Tule Lake 8 11 2
752 M.P. Battalion 21 11 6
Baftianelli, Hubbard, Euffler and Monroe; Yriber, Sullivan and Mow.
Girls' Com. club 13 13 4
Camp White Amazons 5 9 7
Brooks and Barr; Riggs and Hood.

SUDS WIN 7-1 TO TRIM BEVO LEAD

By United Press

The second-place Seattle Rainiers moved up from seven to six games behind the league-leading Beavers Thursday night with a 7 to 1 win. The victory gave them two to Portland's one in their current series.

Elsewhere on the coast circuit the rampaging Hollywood Stars downed Los Angeles 7 to 3, the San Francisco Seals took their game from Oakland 6 to 3 and Sacramento edged out San Diego 10 to 7.

Right Hander Joe Demoran, hurling his 11th win, allowed the Beavers eight hits, but he stopped Portland center fielder Frank Shone, who had hit in 39 consecutive games. Shone made four trips to the plate without a hit.

The Truckee river was formerly known as the Salmon Trout river.

Lindbergh Believes Third War Brewing

Chicago, July 27—(U.P.)—The Chicago Tribune reported today that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh believes a third World War already is in the making in Europe.

Col. Lindbergh, recently returned from a research mission in Europe, passed through Chicago on a business trip, the Tribune said.

"The fear of continued warfare and revolution is widespread in Europe," Lindbergh was quoted as saying.

Col. Lindbergh, lunching "with friends in the Tribune tower," reportedly said there is less security in Europe now than before the allied victory, and less democracy.
