McGraw-Bounds Marriage Rites Held in Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McGraw, 203 1/2 N. Holly street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Gloria, to Rene Bounds, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Bounds of Ashland on July 8. Elder Earl Clements read the evening service at 7:30 o'clock in the Latter Day Saints' chapel at Ashland, in a setting of white daisies, roses, and baby breath.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin floor-length dress with long train and finger tip veil held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white lilies, pink carnations, and baby breath.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Loyall G. Harper, the former Evelyn Van Hise, who wore a yellow net formal and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and pink carnations. Alvin Bounds, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mothers of both the bride and groom wore dresses of navy blue and corsages of red roses and white gardenias.

At a reception held in the church banquet room following the wedding, the bride and groom first cut the three-tiered wedding cake, which was served from a table decorated with tiny pink roses. Mrs. Harper completed the cutting, and Mrs. Dave Neilson, sister of the groom, and Mrs. H. W. Van Hise assisted in serving the 65 guests.

Mrs. Bounds has been employed at the First National Bank in Medford for the past five months, and her husband has an honorable discharge from the navy. The couple spent a week in Portland, and have returned to the valley now to make their home on the Bounds' ranch near Ashland.

Family Reunion Marks Birthday At Pierce Home

With both sons and their father home together for the first time in six years, and the entire family gathered together for the first time in history, the C. L. Pierce family of route 2, box 185, Central Point, had a dinner at Rupp's Central Point restaurant Monday evening, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Pierce and her twin sister, Mrs. Marion Toy of Omaha. Mrs. Toy is visiting here at present.

Recently placed on inactive duty, Major C. L. Pierce, infantry (retired) is now home to stay. The Pierce's eldest son, H. T. Pierce, pharmacist's mate first class, and a pre-Pearl Harbor enlistee now stationed at the naval hospital at Corvallis, is visiting his parents, with his wife, the former Iris Hill of Central Point.

Pfc. P. J. Pierce has just arrived in the valley on furlough after his return to the United States with Terry Allen's Timberwolf division from Germany. The Pierce's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Martin, are also here. Mr. Martin being on leave from the navy. A pre-Pearl Harbor enlistee, he is a boatswain's mate first class.

Other guests at the birthday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Freeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Entertaining Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes are entertaining at a small dinner party at their home on Modoc avenue this evening.

Cool Music for Warm Days

Let the ethereal music of Debussy really lift you "out of this world"; or the depths of some Russian composer, such as Moussorgsky, surround you like a cool cavern; or a Chopin Nocturne soothe you. Even good old Bach's uncomplicated rhythms are an antidote for hurry, scurry and heat. Musical therapy that is so easy to take.
