Here On Business—Mrs. E. L. Henninger of Roseburg arrived in Medford this morning, and will be in the city several days attending to property interests. Mrs. Henninger, a former resident of Medford, is staying at the Holland hotel.

Sergeant Home—Sgt. Roy E. Lay, who arrived home July 20 on emergency furlough due to the illness of his father, Vernon Lay, 245 South Central avenue, will leave Sunday to report back to the air base at Santa Ana, Calif. His father is said to be recovering satisfactorily.

Boy Missing—Lawrence Turner, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Turner, Grants Pass, was reported to city police yesterday as missing from his home at Grants Pass since Friday afternoon. Last seen near Ruch, Ore., he was said to be wearing a blue shirt and trousers and was barefooted.

Taylor Promoted—Clyde S. Taylor, 112 Mistletoe street, has been promoted from second class rating to metallurgy first class, according to notice from his headquarters in the Caribbean area. Entering the navy in January, 1944, Taylor has been in that area since his enlistment.

Roberts On Leave—Lt. (jg.) Dale Maurice Roberts and wife of San Francisco, are in the city visiting at the home of the lieutenant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David D. Roberts, 32 Rose avenue. Lt. Roberts, who just returned from 29 months in the Pacific, will report to the San Francisco naval base at the end of a ten day leave.

Visit Friends—Flight Officer and Mrs. Farrell Snider visited friends in Grants Pass Friday. They arrived in Medford last week from Long Beach, where Snider has been stationed as a ferry pilot. The officer reports on expiration of his leave at Nashville, N. C., for overseas assignment, and Mrs. Snider plans to make her home here.

Corporal Home—T/S Gilbert Knips arrived Thursday night from Ft. Lewis, Wash., to spend a 30-day furlough with his wife at the family home, 813 West Thirteenth street. Cpl. Knips served 31 months with the signal corps in the European theater and wears three bronze battle stars. He will report next to Leemore field in California.

Jensen Coming—Cpl. John Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen, 418 Park street, is expected to arrive home soon on furlough after nearly a year of overseas duty in Germany. A graduate of St. Mary's Academy here, Jensen attended Oregon State College where he was a member of Theta Chi fraternity before entering the army.

To Grants Pass—Miss Helen Thompson, who has served as clerical assistant at Jackson county selective service board No. 2 since November, 1942, has received a transfer to Josephine county selective service board No. 1 at Grants Pass. Miss Thompson will be clerk for the Grants Pass board. She is the daughter of Mrs. A. Orin Schenck, 29 Summit avenue.

Hockenyoys Dies—Johan Fredrick ("Dutch") Hockenyoys, 60, a native of Jacksonville and former resident of Medford, died last week at his home in Portland, according to word received here. Son of John and Eva Hockenyoys, early settlers in the Rogue River valley, he attended the Medford schools. Hockenyoys had been in the construction business several years, and was construction superintendent for the Ross B. Hammond company since 1939. Survivors include his wife, Nellie, Hockenyoys' sisters, Mrs. Rose Gross, Mrs. Minnie Norcross and Mrs. Freda Babcock, all of Oakland, Cal., and brother, William Hockenyoys, Bellingham.

Hurd resides in Piedmont, Calif., and is associated with the Alexander and Baldwin company of San Francisco. Mrs. Hurd's daughter, Miss Anna Hurd, returned to Portland Sunday evening after spending a few weeks here. Miss Hurd is a member of the staff of the Council of Social Agencies of Portland.

Housing Refusal To Army Families Is Problem Here

Refusal of property owners to allow service families to occupy their houses and apartments has proven to be the greatest difficulty encountered by the army navy billeting office which was recently opened in the Rogue Transit bus terminal, according to a report from the office today. Some 30 service families are awaiting housing, according to First Sgt. Jay Sacouety, and the main problem is the refusal to take in families with children.

Furnished and unfurnished apartments and houses are in the greatest demand, it was said, and local residents who have accommodations of any kind are asked to call at the office or telephone 3092.

Foots Creek Fire Soon Controlled

Fire of undetermined origin burned over between 70 and 100 acres of land in the Foots Creek district before being brought under control by state forest patrol crewmen, it was reported today by a patrol dispatcher. The blaze started on property owned by Dr. F. A. Freeburger. Three small fires in the Union Creek district, started by lightning Friday night, have been controlled by suppression crews of the Rogue River National Forest Service, according to headquarters here.

Craft Articles Are Placed on Display

A display of craft articles made at the Salvation Army summer camp located at Lake O' Woods, which closed July 19, is featured in the window of the Chamber of Commerce building, 123 West Main street. The articles, made by some 140 children who attended the camp, include hand woven baskets, painted pine cones, rag dolls and colorful wall plaques and will be on display until Aug. 10.

THE GOAT RIDES because HE'S PAINTED ON

There isn't much room for civilian travel on Great Northern's Empire Builder. Even our famous Rocky Mountain goat couldn't ride every day if he weren't painted on the locomotives. Transporting troops on regular and special trains is Great Northern's most important duty. These are the trips that are really necessary.
