LOCAL and PERSONAL

Meeting Thursday — Royal Neighbors of America will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. at the K. of P. hall.

• • •

Auxiliary Meeting — Ladies auxiliary No. 421 Carpenters and Joiners of America of Medford will meet at the carpenters hall at 8 p. m., Friday, Aug. 3, according to Lula G. Watson, secretary. Ladies are requested to bring sandwiches.

• • •

Visiting Grandmother — Now visiting at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. H. C. Whitney in Jacksonville are Norman and Clarence Surber, both on 30-day navy leaves after duty in the Pacific. Norman will report next to Portland and his brother goes to Boise, Idaho.

• • •

Eagles Meeting—Crater Lake Aerie No. 2093 and auxiliary will meet Thursday in the Eagles hall, 219 W. Main street, at 8 p. m. Bill Lawrence, chairman of the entertainment committee, has planned a social evening after a short session, and a dance will conclude the evening.

• • •

To Make Home Here — Mrs. Rena Tippin, former Medford resident, who returned here recently to make her home, has as her guest Miss Gladys McGauhey, of Eugene. Mrs. Tippin, who had been living in Portland while her husband, an army sergeant, has been overseas, is also expecting to have as her guest soon, her son Tommy Collie, navy petty officer who has been on duty in the south Pacific.

• • •

In Hospital—Pfc. Philip J. Henselman is now in the army hospital at Ft. Warren, Wyo., recovering from slight injuries received in an army plane crash last weekend. Henselman was returning to his station at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., after spending a furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Henselman, 415 Edwards street, when the plane crashed, injuring several occupants, according to word received by his parents.

• • •

Visiting Brother — Miss Betty Dunlevy of Akron, Ohio, is visiting in Medford at the home of her brother, Sgt. and Mrs. Dunlevy and son, 243 N. Holly street. Arriving here last Wednesday, she plans to remain another week before returning to Ohio, where she is employed at the General Tire factory and makes her home with her father, James J. Dunlevy, Sr. Miss Dunlevy visited Lake O'Woods Sunday, and states that she has been considerably impressed by the mountains, lumber trucks and valley industries on her first visit to the west coast. She comments particularly on the pride of local residents in natural resources of the area, and the abundance of food, especially meat, as the Ohio markets have suffered a severe meat shortage in recent months.

LAMB COMPLICATES COUNT

Gillette, Wyo.—(U.P.)—The idea of counting the legs of a herd of cattle and dividing by four to find the number of animals wouldn't work very well in a herd of sheep owned by M. J. Hannum near here. And counting tails wouldn't do, either. A freak lamb with eight legs and two tails was born in the herd recently. The animal did not live, however.

RAINBOW IN MOONLIGHT

Emblem, Wyo. — (U.P.) — The song "I'm Beginning to See the Light" took on a new meaning for Adam Preis, young Emblem farmer, recently. Preis saw a rainbow at night—10:30 a. m., to be exact. The observer was attending a War Bond rally when he glanced out of a window just after a shower and saw the rainbow. Other persons at the rally cerified the story and explained that there was an abundance of bright moonlight at the time the rainbow was seen.
