Henry Ford Sees Great Prosperity In Future Years

Dearborn, Mich., July 31—(U.P.) Henry Ford, king of the Auto Industry, Monday marked his 82nd birthday with an eye to the future and a prediction of a great and "unequaled prosperity" if industry "doesn't dawdle."

Ford passed his anniversary quietly in Dearborn, home of his birth.

He declared it was his belief that "the nation and the world are on the threshold of a prosperity and standard of living that never before was considered possible." He admitted "there are problems — human, economic, and political — that must be solved.

"But," he said, "employment hinges on the right of private industry to go forward unhampered. There must be more and more industry; more and more competition for greater excellence in quality. These will bring more and more employment."
