Brisk exchange of local real estate received a boost last week by opening of a new suburban subdivision on King's highway. Mrs. Maybelle Bechtel has divided the 35-acre tract into 17 units. County Engineer Paul Rynning states that Medford will almost surely be by-passed eventually by a new state highway.

State-wide interest has centered here this week on the discovery of a plane wreck in Rogue River National Forest, about 40 miles from Medford, which claimed the lives of three Portland people and the pilot Saturday night. Bodies of the four were buried near the wreckage.

More than 100 tons of paper and 10 tons of tin were collected here last week by the Jackson county Shrine club, and proceeds will go to the Shriners' crippled children's hospital at Portland.

Medford grade schools will open Sept. 17, but the high school opening will be delayed until Oct. 1, so students can work in orchards and packing plants during the pear harvest. Pear packing school opened this week with 250 persons.

Local relatives have received notice of the death of Lt. Col. Jasper E. Brady, Jr., on Dec. 15, 1944, while being transported as a Japanese prisoner of war. Harry Edmund Wilcox died in naval action off Okinawa last May, and an official finding of death has been recorded by the war department on 1st Lt. Jerome T. Boshears, pilot of a B-24 bomber which crashed in the English Channel a year ago.

Posthumous presentation of the air medal and two oak leaf clusters to Sgt. Fayette Sheldy, killed in action over Norway, April 7, 1945, has been made. The bronze medal for bravery has been given S/Sgt. Clifford Iverson in Italy and S/Sgt. Leslie J. Corey has received the certificate of merit, in England. Pfc. William R. Clyde S. Taylor became a medallsmith first class in the Caribbean area, and Francis R. Klassen, Camp Roberts, Calif., is now a staff sergeant.

Veteran of the Philippine liberation campaign, Cpl. George W. Kirkendall writes that the Okinawa invasion was tougher. Herbert Merriman, S 1/c, writes that his copies of the Mail Tribune reach him regularly and are passed on to Guy Corliss and Rodney Merriman, MoMM 1/c. Pfc. Wayne L. Knapp and his brother, Pfc. Kenneth K. Knapp met recently on Luzon after several months overseas near each other, and Capt. J. M. Hartly has met Dolph Gayer, William Prentice and John Eddy in Manila. Wac 2nd Lt. Frances L. Gallatin, section chief of an Awards and Decorations section, Philippine islands, has written of army life on the islands, and various aspects of native life.

Discharged this week from the service, Peter Bieghler, Fred R. Traylor, Paul B. Young, Melvin Kohn, R. G. Jennings, and Seth Bullis, Jr., are in the city. Bullis expects to resume work with the state police. Jack Murray, discharged Seabee, is now office deputy at the county sheriff's office. Returning home soon under the adjusted service rating system is Pvt. Frank L. Roberts, Italy.

Harry B. Donaldson, aviation chief radioman, and Arthur A. Hoffman, aviation chief ordnanceman, have returned to the U. S. from the Pacific for reassignment. Pvt. Arthur E. Carlson is at Camp Wolters, Tex., for basic training, and 1st Lt. Russell S. Jones is chief of laboratory at Camp Campbell, Ky.

Pfc. Russell R. Mee is recovering from wounds received in action on Luzon in June, and Sgt. Frank Westcott, Jr., is at Baxter General hospital, Spokane, for treatment of leg wounds sustained in the European theater. Pfc. Bernie S. Hamilton is at the AAF convalescent hospital, Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y., and Pfc. Philip J. Henselman is recovering from slight injuries suffered in an army plane crash when returning from a furlough at home to his station at Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

Rev. Daniels Will Give Talks Based On Questions of GI

The Rev. Delbert W. Daniels, minister of the First Christian church will give a series of talks during August based upon questions received from a young man in the service.

Recently Rev. Daniels received a letter from a young man who has expressed his interest in becoming a minister after the war is over, and his questions are those raised in the thinking of all young people trying to build a firm faith.

Subjects for the series will be "The Greatest Argument for the Genuinehood of the Bible," "The Greatest Argument for the Divinity of the Church," "The Greatest Need of Humanity," and "The Greatest Call for Today."

The new minister of music, E. Ronald Rice, formerly of Seattle, now connected with the Purucker Piano House, will begin to serve during this month.
