Gold Hill Parents Get Message From Son in Jap Prison

Gold Hill, Aug. 3—A copy of a message from their son, Jack M. Hancock, Japanese prisoner of war since the invasion of Wake island, has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hancock of Gold Hill. The boardcast message was intercepted by listeners of the Provost Marshal General at Washington, D. C., and by several people in southern California, who notified Mr. and Mrs. Hancock.

Hancock, a navy employee on Wake island, is confined in Fukuoka Camp, Japan. His message reads:

"Dear mother, just a few words to let you know I am well and still thinking of home and you and hope that you will think of me as often. How is everyone? Fine and happy I hope. Where are sis and the babies, are dad and Fred still working at the plant? I hope that things will soon come about so that everybody can return home and to the normal life they once had. As ever, your loving son, Jack."
