Alma Harlacher, Lewis Williams Married Sunday

Miss Alma Harlacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. E. Harlacher of Grants Pass, and Lewis C. Williams, electrician's mate second class of the navy and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams of Medford, were married at the home of the bride's parents Sunday afternoon, July 29. The service was read at four o'clock by the Rev. H. D. Kimball of the Church of the Brethren, and the bridal party stood before an arrangement of tapers and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Lloyd Harlacher of Grants Pass, wore a rose coral dressmaker suit with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias. Mrs. John Russell, Jr., of Medford, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and wore a gold colored dressmaker suit with blue accessories and a corsage of tallman roses and fern. LeRoy Williams of Medford, brother of the groom, was best man.

"Dearest Believe" and the Lohengrin wedding march were played by Miss Shirley Shade of Medford.

A reception was held for relatives and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Harlacher of Grants Pass on the piazza facing Rogue River. The first piece of wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom, and Mrs. Harlacher continued serving, assisted by Mrs. LeRoy Williams and Mrs. John Russell, Jr.

Mrs. Williams is a graduate of Grants Pass high school and attended LaVerne College, LaVerne, Calif. She has been employed recently at Lloyd's Market in Grants Pass. Mr. Williams was graduated from Medford senior high school with the class of 1941, and received his navy training at Chapman College in Los Angeles.

Mr. Williams is now on a thirty day leave from the navy, and on expiration of that time he and Mrs. Williams will leave the valley for Bremerton, Wash., where he will report for further assignment.

Church Society Meets Tuesday

"Their Fears Our Consolation" was the topic of the worship service conducted by Bertha Huson Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Adult Missionary society of the First Christian church. Mrs. Walter Kindred presided at the meeting in the church parlor, and Georgia Burnham is in charge of the monthly theme, "Uprooting From Home."

Other features of the program were a duet by Mrs. Ralph Cook and daughter, Barbara, a piano solo by Miss Cook, and presentation of a dialogue "When the Bugle Sounded" by Maud Daugherty. Ruth Hood and Dorothy Doty gave "From Queen to Cog," and a family council skit was given by Eula Foley. Sally Cooper and Irene Bailey presented "In Fields of Destiny We Reap."

Social chairman for the meeting was Anna Ford, who with her committee served refreshments to 64 members and friends attending.

Attend Ashland Picnic

Fifteen members of the Wesleyan league of the First Methodist church attended a swimming party and picnic Friday night in Ashland. The picnic dinner was served in Lithia park, and the group was accompanied by Mrs. Louis C. Kirby.

Pictured here as they were leaving St. Mark's Episcopal church after the wedding ceremony Tuesday, June 26, are Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Ashcom. Mrs. Ashcom, the former Deborah Tully, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tully, 705 Park street, and Mr. Ashcom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andre Ashcom of Johnstown, Pa. The Rev. George R. Turney read the service at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The couple will reside at 2230 Cadillac boulevard, Goodrow Apartments 405 in Detroit, Mich., while the groom is a navy V-12 medical student at Wayne University. (Photo by Shangle.)

Gold Hill Man, Minnesota Girl Wed In Chapel

Gold Hill—A wedding of interest to local people took place July 14 when Leo Walker, petty officer first class, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker of Gold Hill, and Miss Lolo Charlotte Hill, daughter of Wolf-ram Hill of St. Paul, Minn., were married at the Fort Snelling chapel, Fort Snelling, Minn. The service was read at 8 o'clock in the evening by Lt. Orlando Ingvaldstad, navy chaplain.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore an all white taffeta and net dress with finger tip veil, edged with two rows of lace, and held in bouquet with a pearl crown. Her bouquet was of white roses, baby breath and sweet peas.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Hansi Hill, and best man was Petty Officer Karl Eagle. Petty Officer Walker was graduated from Gold Hill high school with the class of 1937, and enlisted in the navy Dec. 22, 1941. He has served overseas in the Pacific theater of war for 23 months, and is now stationed at the navy hospital at Minneapolis-St. Paul airport in Minnesota. His rating is ship's cook first class.

Dorothy Parr Weds Hilt Man In July Rites

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Parr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Parr of Ashland and Frederick Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes of Hill, Calif., took place Friday evening, July 27, at the Church of Christ in Ashland. The Rev. Earl Downing read the double ring service at 8 o'clock before a large group of relatives and friends.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Sue Parkinson sang "At Dawning" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Cay Hufman. The church was decorated with summer flowers and tapers.

Attendants were Miss Annabelle Riggs, maid of honor, Mrs. R. B. Parr of Talent, Mrs. Gilbert Luper, Hill, and Mrs. A. D. Parr, Roseburg. James Haley of Yreka was best man, and ushers were R. B. Parr, A. D. Parr and Sam Dunaway.

The bride wore a white satin gown with full length train, long sleeves and a finger tip veil, and carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli.

A reception was held after the wedding at the Lithia hotel with Mrs. L. G. Frink, Talent, and Mrs. Clifford McLean, Ashland, serving. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes left on a trip to San Francisco, and will be at home in Hill after Aug. 10.

Mrs. Haynes was graduated from Ashland senior high school with the class of 1942, and has recently been employed in civil service work at the Farm Service office in Medford. Mr. Haynes was graduated from the Yreka schools, and is employed as a bookkeeper at Hill.

Prior to her marriage, Miss Parr was honored at several bridal showers. One was given by Miss Annabelle Riggs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parr in Talent, and another was held at the Church of Christ by a group of friends. A third shower was given in Hill.

Leisure Club Has Luncheon
