

LOCAL and PERSONAL

From Glendale—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barrow and son Bob, former Medford residents, are spending the week-end in the city, visiting with friends.

Visiting—Mrs. Donald Larson of Portland arrived yesterday to spend the week-end at the home of Mrs. Arthur McVeigh, 716 South Peach street.

In Hospital—Miss Margaret Burroughs, 44 Quince street, is confined in Sacred Heart hospital, recuperating from an operation performed Thursday.

Glasses Found—City police reported yesterday that a pair of child's gold rimmed glasses has been turned into the local station, and are awaiting identification.

Fanger Improving—Richard E. Fanger, 711 S. Holly street, is reported to be slowly improving at Sacred Heart hospital, where he underwent surgery Tuesday.

From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Clem Sutherland and baby of Portland, are in the city, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sutherland and family, 1217 West 11th street.

Night Shift Resuming—The night shift at the Medford Corporation will be resumed at 6 p. m. tonight after being disbanded for a few days while some of the men aided state forest patrolmen in fighting forest fires.

To Speak—Adjutant Charles Rosnick, of the Salvation Army, will speak at the weekly vesper service to be held this afternoon in the city park, under sponsorship of the Medford Ministerial association. The Rev. Irvin Dupray will preside.

Lovell On Furlough—Staff Sgt. C. W. (Bill) Lovell arrived here Friday night on a 10 day furlough from Sheppard Field, Tex., and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lovell, and sister, Miss Virginia Lovell, at the family home, 526 Edwards street.

Lehman Seaman—Howard Lehman, seaman second class, left Medford last night to return to San Diego, where he will report to the naval station. He has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lehman, route 4, box 162-AA on completion of boot camp training.

Linn's Here—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Linn and daughters are visiting with friends in the city this week-end from Portland where Mr. Linn, principal of Medford junior high school, is employed during the summer. The family reside at 119 Washington street while in Medford.

In Mishap—Lowell Dougherty, Medford, and Maxine Billings, 635 South Central avenue, were injured slightly Friday when the car in which they were passengers, driven by Sgt. Theodore Downing of Medford, collided on South Central avenue with a truck parked in front of the Johnson trucking company, city police reported today.

Home From Service—Alice M. Sparks, Y 1/c, and Paul M. Sparks, Jr., a former corporal in the army, children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Sparks, route 2, arrived home this week from Seattle. Yeoman Sparks is on leave from the naval base at Seattle and her brother received an honorable discharge from the service August 4 after 44 months with the 25th division in the Pacific theater. The young man was awarded the combat infantryman's badge and four bronze battle stars, and both are graduates of Medford high school.

Residing Here—Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Andre are making their home in the city at 1005 West Main street, following his recent release from the army air corps. As a 1st lieutenant Andre spent two years in Alaska and has spent a total of seven years in the service, two of which were in Hawaii before the war. He is now employed at Forester jewelers.

Visiting Humphreys—Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Cooley arrived in Medford Friday from Bakersfield, Calif., and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Cooley's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Humphreys, 825 East Jackson street, while en route to their former home at Eugene. Mr. Cooley was just released from the army air service at Bakersfield.

Receives Award—Pfc. Adelbert Neimoyer was the awardee of the purple heart medal for wounds received during the battle of Okinawa, according to word received here by his wife, Mrs. Virginia Neimoyer, who with their two sons, Johnny and Ronald, resides at 303 Edwards street. Pfc. Neimoyer is a radio man in the 27th infantry division, and has been overseas two years.
