D. D. Davis Named Nebraska Leader At Annual Picnic

D. D. Davis of Medford was elected president of the Southern Oregon Nebraska association for the coming year, at the annual picnic meeting of the group in Lithia park at Ashland last Sunday. Other officers elected were Mrs. M. S. Mallory, Medford, vice president, Mrs. Clayton Walker, Medford, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. W. D. Morgan, Ashland, assistant secretary. Mr. Davis succeeds T. L. O'Hara of Ashland, president this year of the former residents of Nebraska now living in southern Oregon, and chairman of the picnic Sunday. The dinner served at noon was followed by a program including group singing led by Mrs. Morgan with Phyllis Downing accompanying. Talks were given by the Rev. Earl F. Downing and Mr. Davis. Donald Kerr played several accordion numbers and Mrs. Harry Miller and Mrs. Mallory sang "Nebraska Land." Prizes were given to Mrs. Hill, the eldest lady present, Mr. Jackson Gyger, eldest man, Karen Rossch, youngest person attending, and to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Putnum who had the largest family. Next meeting of the association will be held at Helman Baths in Ashland on the second Sunday in August, 1946.
