

Joyce, Fletcher Continue Coast Loop Hurling Pace

(By United Press)

The two "winningest" pitchers in the Pacific Coast league continued their merry way over the week-end.

Lanky Bob Joyce, San Francisco Seals star who already has been lined up by the New York Giants, fashioned a seven-hitter against San Diego for his 21st victory of the season. Guy Fletcher, ace of the Sacramento Solons mound staff, annexed his 21st win at Hollywood by a 4-0 score.

While these two mound stars were shining, the first place race in the league tightened up as the loop-leading Portland Beavers dropped a pair to Oakland by identical scores, 4-2. The series was divided, four games each.

Seattle Wins Two
Seattle took a pair from Los Angeles Sunday, 9-5 and 2-0. Seattle won the series, 5-2. San Francisco split with San Diego, 6-2 and 5-2. The Seals won the series, 4-3.

Sacramento split with Hollywood, losing the first 7-4 and winning the nightcap, 4-0 behind Fletcher's slants.

Portland's lead slipped to four and one-half games when the Acorns dumped the league pace-setters twice.

Mitchell Chetkovich entered the game cold for Oakland in the opener for ousted Floyd Stromme and blanked the Beavers until the seventh when Ted Gullic homered with one mate aboard. The veteran Ad Liska was the loser for Portland.

Damon Hayes came to Gordon Vanslate's rescue in the nightcap and saved the game for Oakland.

2,000 GOLFERS ARE ASKED FOR PORTLAND MEET

Portland, Ore., Aug. 20—(U.P.)—Some 2,000 golfers in the professional and amateur ranks across the nation were invited today to enter the second annual $14,333 Portland open golf tournament.

Robert A. Hudson, sponsor of the event, said entry blanks had been mailed to 1500 members of the Professional Golfers' Association as well as to a select group of 50 amateur golfers.

Many of the nation's golf great will participate in the west's richest tournament, which will be played Sept. 27 to 30 at the Portland golf club.

Fred Corcoran, tournament manager of the P.G.A., assured Hudson that such golf immortals as "Lord" Byron Nelson, Slammin' Sammy Snead and many others would be on hand for the event.

Snead captured last year's tournament. Harry Givan of Seattle was the top amateur in 1944, winning the Hudson trophy. He will be on hand to seek a second leg on the trophy.

Four other tournaments will be played in the Pacific northwest, starting at Spokane and finishing in Vancouver, B. C.

BEVO SHORTSTOP GOES TO MAJORS

Portland, Ore., Aug. 20—(U.P.)—William H. Klepper, general manager of the Portland Beavers, disclosed today that Johnny O'Neil, ace shortstop of the club, has been sold to the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league in exchange for five Philly players.

No cash consideration was mentioned but it was presumed that a certain amount of money was involved in the deal.

O'Neil, considered one of the best shortstops in the Pacific Coast league, will remain with the Beavers until the end of the season before reporting back east in the spring.

Bobby Riggs Wins Marianas Tennis Singles Play-Off
Guam, Aug. 20—(U.P.)—The Army-Navy Marianas tennis singles championship was won today by Navy Specialist 1/c Bobby Riggs who defeated the army's 1st Lt. Don Budge and Sgt. Frank Parker five matches to three each.

Tournament games have been played during the past month at Saipan, Tinian, Guam, Ulithi and Peleliu.

Budge and Parker scored a clean, five-set match as they defeated Riggs and Specialist Wayne Sabin.

CRATERS SPLIT DOUBLE HEADER; ORPHANS BEATEN

Medford Craters split even in their double header at the Fairgrounds baseball park yesterday when they handed Central Point a 13 to 6 spanking in the first game and then were trounced 2 to 1 by Klamath Falls Naval Air Station in the other game. Girls Community Club whipped Camo White Orphans 6 to 3 in a preliminary tussle.

Medford wasted no time in going to work on Central Point and scored a run in the first inning of two hits and a walk. Every player except one on the Crater team got at least one hit as three Central Point hurlers were hammered for a total of 14 hits.

Studs Get 3 Hits
Dick Kidwell kept three hits from being bunched and held the Studs scoreless until the fifth inning when they collected three runs. They added one in the sixth and another in the seventh.

Dick Fawcett couldn't find the plate in the game with Navy and issued one hit and four walks to let in four runs in the first inning. It just wasn't Fawcett's day as he gave up two hits and a walk in the second frame and was removed in the third stanza after allowing three singles and a double in succession.

Barr Hurt
George Barr relieved Fawcett and allowed five blows before being hit on the elbow while batting in the fifth inning. Kidwell went in and finished the game, holding the air sailors hitless in the last two stanzas. Barr scored Medford's only run when he drew a walk in the third inning and scored on Carl Reich's shap single to left field.

Navy Wins
Navy won 20 to 12 in the first game. Weinzler and Retenour. Blidde; Fawcett, Barr, Kidwell and Gitzen.

TOP FLIGHT CUBS ANNEX DUAL WINS IN NATIONAL LOOP
New York, Aug. 20—(U.P.)—The Chicago Cubs, who couldn't be flying any higher if a sky-writer was doing their script, left Manhattan observers with the impression today that they had watched the 1945 world champions in action.

A team that is winning in the manner of the Cubs can't help but be impressive after yesterday's 3 to 1 and 8 to 0 triumphs over the Giants.

When Ray Prim and Hank Borowy each went the route yesterday it brought to 62 the number of complete games turned in by Cub hurlers, 57 of which have been victories. Borowy's second game eight-hit shutout, his first in the National league, was the 10th by Chicago staff-men.

Cards Split
The Cards split at Boston, winning the second game 5 to 4 on Marty Marion's double in the 13th after losing the opener 2 to 1.

The Dodgers and Pirates divided at Brooklyn, Les Webber posted a 6 to 2 flatbush victory after which Nick Stincovich hurled Pittsburgh to a 4 to 2 triumph.

Jimmy Foxx, one of the game's great all-time hitters, made a winning debut as a starting pitcher, twirling Philadelphia to a 4 to 2 victory over the Reds after team mate Dick Mauney had pitched a 5 to 0 shutout.

A's Beat Bengals
A five-run rally in the 11th inning of the second game gave the Athletics an 8 to 3 victory at Detroit and kept the league leading Tigers from gaining in the American. Detroit won the opener, 6 to 1.

The Yankees finally ended a nine-game losing streak, the longest in either Manager Joe McCarthy's or Miller Huggins' regimes. Ernie Bonham pitched a steady 4 to 2 victory over the White Sox at Chicago. However, they couldn't stand the pace and Orval Grove shut them out 2 to 0 on five hits in the second game.

Senators Collapse
Washington beat the Indians, 7 to 1 at Cleveland on a seven-hitter by old John Niggeling, but collapsed in the 7th of the second game when the Tribe made all of its runs off Emil (Dutch) Leonard to win, 9 to 3.

The Red Sox and Browns divided at St. Louis, Boston took the first game 10 to 8 in 13 innings. Vern Stephens batted in three runs to pace the Browns to a 6 to 3 second game victory.

JUDGE FEE WILL RETURN THURSDAY ON FEDERAL CASE

The case of T. R. Florey vs. Dan J. Malarkey, scheduled to come before the U. S. district court in Medford federal building this morning, was adjourned by Judge James A. Fee when Attorney Otto Frohnmayer of Nef and Frohnmayer, representing Florey, stated the case has been settled out of court. The suit involved a claim by Florey that Malarkey, a contractor for a federal housing project, had failed to pay Florey, a sub-contractor, all the money due him. Suit was filed against Malarkey and a bonding company.

Opening tomorrow in Klamath Falls, the court will hold a special session for the case of U. S. vs. C. J. Briceo, in which Briceo is pleading not guilty to a charge of concealing stolen government property.

Jurors drawn from the panel for this session are ordered to report at Klamath Falls at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Judge Fee heard several jurors from the Medford district this morning offering excuses for excuse from jury duty.

Scheduled for Aug. 24 in Medford is the case of Clyde Henry vs. James C. Keith, hearing for default judgment.

Judge Fee is accompanied by his wife; clerks of the court, Ross De Mott and Vern Bishop; Deputy U. S. Marshall Les McLean, Portland; U. S. Bailiff Fred Norman, Portland, and court reporter, Cloyd Rauch.
