

Tigers Rough On Newsom's Double Header Experiment

New York, Aug. 22—(UP)—The long strong arm of Bobo Newsom, motivated by memories of a happier year when he was pitching for instead of against the Detroit Tigers, turned out to be a little too old and a little too tired.

He had a heart and head yesterday in his personal experiment of pitching a double header for the Athletics at Detroit and, with a little more speed and stamina, might have fared better.

As it was the A's got a split and it wasn't until the ninth inning of the second game that the Tigers ever were in front of Newsom. In the opener, which Philadelphia won, 7 to 6, in 11 innings, Newsom gave way to jittery Joe Berry in the seventh when he had a 6 to 3 lead. The Tigers worked uphill and finally tied the score at 6-all in the ninth on Rudy York's 12th homer. The A's clinched it by a 7-6 score in the 11th on Irving Hall's single and Ed Smith's double.

Bobo Yields Hits

Bobo pitched in the second game until the ninth when, in a downpour of rain, he yielded two singles and a double to give the Tigers a 6-all tie with no outs. Berry came in again and York singled to score Roger Cramer with the winning run.

Washington's hustling Senators beat the Indians at Cleveland, 11 to 8.

Charley (Red) Ruffing got his first shutout and fourth victory since returning from the army as the Yankees won two at Chicago, 3 to 0 and 6 to 2. Ruffing pitched hitless ball for five innings and yielded only five hits in all in beating Thornton Lee.

vided. St. Louis took the opener, 2 to 1, with Lou Finney scoring both runs as Nelson Potter gained his 11th win. Rain halted the second game at five innings after Boston came from behind with three runs on triples by Leon Culberson and Johnny Lazor and singles by Bob Johnson and Ty LaForest.

Mike Schemer's triple gave the Giants a 4 to 3 victory over the Cubs in the ninth inning at New York.

The Cards moved to within five and a half games of the Cubs with an 8 to 4 victory at Boston.

Pittsburgh mauled the Dodgers again 12 to 1, after an 11 to 1 triumph on Monday.

Philadelphia extended its longest winning streak of the season, beating Cincinnati, 6 to 3, for its fifth straight win.

National Swimming Titles Go On Block In California Pool

Los Angeles, Aug. 22—(UP)—A record field of 65 entries headed by the defending champion Riviera club of Indianapolis, Ind., will compete for 12 national titles in the National AAU Senior Women's Swimming and Diving tournament in the Olympic Swim stadium Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The defending champions, seeking to do what has been accomplished only once before—win the title five consecutive times—will be slight favorites. Strongest competition will come from the Multnomah club, Portland, Ore., and the Crystal Plunge, San Francisco.

Pretty Joan Fogle will carry most of the weight for the favorites. She is defending champion in the 100-meter backstroke and 300-meter individual medley. She has announced her surprise entry in the 200-meter breast stroke.

Six-Day Bicycle Races Wait Tires

New York, Aug. 22—(UP)—Six-day bike races will be resumed as soon as tires are available. Promoter Harry Hendel said today as he disclosed that he was making tentative plans to start operating next spring.

"Montreal, Milwaukee, Chicago and Cleveland are ready, willing and able to go right now," Hendel reported, "and if Madison Square Garden hasn't dates available I could stage the races in an armory in New York."

PORTLAND SKIDS TO SLIM MARGIN; SUDS BEAT OAKS

By United Press

Portland's lead in the Pacific Coast League was reduced to a 2-1/2-game margin last night as the seventh place Los Angeles Angels defeated the Beavers in a close 5 to 4 tussle.

In other games San Francisco swamped Sacramento 14 to 4. San Diego walloped Hollywood 7 to 2, and Seattle edged Oakland 10 to 8.

The Portland-Los Angeles tilt saw Wandell Mosser, prized Beaver moundsman, clouted dizzy for ten hits, including a pair of doubles.

The San Francisco Seals had a downhill ride all the way, registering heavily in the fourth inning with five runs and in the fifth with four tallies. The hapless Solons garnered two apiece in the sixth and eighth.

Seattle registered its first win in the Pacific series when they slugged out ten runs, only to have the tenacious Acorns amass eight markers in the last two innings.

Cari Dumler chalked up his 18th victory of the season in turning back the Hollywood Stars. San Diego started in a hurry, scoring three times in the first frame. The Stars never threatened the Padre lead.

Major Bill Bowerman of the Italy mountain troops and Medford high school coaching fame, arrived in Medford yesterday from the wars and is looking forward to enjoying a 30-day furlough. It has been nearly four years since he went away and since December, 1944, has been in the 86th infantry of the 10th mountain division in Italy and saw plenty of action around Monte Belvedere with the ski troops.

Though Bill has 96 points to his credit, he doesn't know what the army plans to do with him. He definitely intends to return to his coaching chores at Medford Hi, although probably not this fall.

"If I get out of the army before school starts I would like to take up the reins again this fall, but if not I will leave the football job in the capable hands of Al Simpson," Bowerman told us yesterday. At any rate, Bill added, he plans to work together with Simpson in handling the Tornado sports program.

Bill, with his outfit, left Austria and boarded a steamer Aug. 2, reaching Fort Lewis early Sunday. En route across on the transport Mount Vernon the Major engaged in a basketball game against a team of ship officers and ruefully admits he lost a chance to win the game by missing a couple of last-minute free throws.

Bowerman weighs 199 pounds, looks rugged, bronzed and healthy and wears a pair of German combat boots, a souvenir of his Italy campaign. One of his former Medford track kids, Sgt. Marc Jarmin, went through all the ski fighting and returned with Bowerman.

After a long five year uphill struggle, the Medford Athletic Association is now completely out of debt, except for the outstanding bonds which are yet to be redeemed. Baseball this season has made enough money to pay off a large indebtedness contracted when Medford was a member of the state league.

The top flight baseball attraction of the year has been slated for the Medford Park Saturday night when Klamath Falls Naval Air Station and Klamath Falls Marine Barracks clash under the lights for first place in the Southern Oregon league. The next day the Craters play the winner in the first game of the Shaughnessy playoff and Central Point plays the loser in the other Shaughnessy game. Both will be played at Medford the afternoon of Aug. 26.

Sunday, Sept. 3, the two losers meet in the Medford park for Shaughnessy consolation honors and on Sept. 3 the winners meet at Klamath Falls for the Shaughnessy championship.

Talbert Standout In Tennis Tourney

Southampton, N. Y., Aug. 22 (UP)—Bounding Billy Talbert, the Wilmington, Del., tennis stylist who is unbeaten for this season, became the standout today to win the annual Southampton Invitational meet after his first triumph, 6-1, 6-1, over Brendin Macken of Toronto.

The only other seeded player to compete yesterday was Elwood Cooke of Los Angeles who conquered the Spanish star, I. Martin Montiz, Barcelona, 6-1, 6-1.

SHIRLEY FRY ADVANCES IN LAWN TENNIS MATCH

Philadelphia, Aug. 22—(UP)—Shirley Fry of Akron, O., led the way today into the quarter-finals of the National Girls' Lawn Tennis championships after defeating Clara Warren of Washington, D. C., 6-0, 6-0.

Miss Fry was matched against Jane Warren of Orange, Calif., in the feature bout of today's program.

Junior Davis Cup Squad Announced; Matches Arranged

New York, Aug. 22—(UP)—A 10-man 1945 Junior Davis Cup squad, headed by National Junior Champion Herbert Flam, Beverly Hills, Cal., was announced today by the United States Lawn Tennis association.

The squad was invited to participate in practice and exhibition matches at Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 24, and later at the Nassau country club and Rockaway Hunting club. Many of the youngsters are expected to participate in the National championships at Forest Hills starting Aug. 28.

In addition to Flam, the squad includes two other Californians, Don Hamilton of Burbank, Hugh Stewart of San Marino, as well as Bernard Bartzan, San Angelo, Tex.; Herbert Behrens, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Tom Molloy, Panama City, Fla.; Rolor Ray, Sinton, Tex.; Richard Savitt, Bayonne, N. J.; Sidney Schwartz, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Fred (Billy) Smith, Orlando, Fla.

DEPRESSION TALK HELD GROUNDLESS

San Francisco, Aug. 22—(UP)—In view of a tremendous demand for peacetime goods, predictions of widespread unemployment in the postwar period are without foundation, Charles R. Bear, regional administrator of the OPA, said here today.

"Cutbacks in war production should be regarded as an opportunity for tapping a reservoir of trained, competent workers to end critical shortages of farm manpower and complete works and deferred maintenance," he declared.

All phases combine to indicate a need for millions of workers, rather than a threat to our economy, Baird added.

Price controls will be relaxed when abnormal economic pressure eases, he said.
