

Society and Clubs

Miss Peggy Young And Frank Rogers Married Sunday

In a candlelight service Sunday evening, Aug. 19, at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Medford, Miss Peggy Ann Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, Phoenix-Jacksonville highway, became the bride of Frank H. Rogers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Rogers, Sr., GeBauer apartments. The Rev. Francis Hall, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church in Grants Pass, officiated at the double ring ceremony, held at 8:30 o'clock before a large group of friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with lace yolk and a long train. With it, she wore long white lace gloves and a finger tip veil held in place by a coronet fashioned with rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and staphenotis centered around a white orchid.

Preceding the service, Miss Betty Jean McKenzie, dressed in a white frock and church vestments, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O, Promise Me." The church was decorated with asters, larkspur and candelabra, and sprays of Esther Reid white daisies were tied with white ribbon at the ends of the pews.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mildred McKenzie, who wore a blue dress, Miss LaRene Thompson in a peach colored gown, Miss Ruth Andrews in aqua, and Miss JoAnn Humphrey in pink. Each wore a matching cap and veil, and carried a bouquet of Tallis-man and pink roses. Milton Pitts was best man, and ushers were James Scheffel, cousin of the groom, Bob Reid of Corvallis, and Bob Littrell.

The bride's mother wore a gray dress with purple accessories, and Mrs. Rogers, Sr., chose a gray flowered print gown with black accessories. Each had an orchid corsage.

A dinner for the wedding party, immediate relatives of the couple, and parents of the bridesmaids, was held after the ceremony in a lawn setting at Rupp's in Central Point. The wedding cake, placed on a table decorated with white Esther Reid flowers, was cut first by the bride and groom, who used a knife loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Clara Young Agee. The knife was given to Mrs. Agee's parents on their silver wedding anniversary, and has been used by several Medford couples at wedding affairs.

Mrs. Lawrence Edmonds, aunt of the groom, continued the cutting. Mrs. P. L. Andrews poured coffee, and Mrs. Emory Culbertson, sister of the groom, served punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left that evening on a trip to the west coast beaches, and will be at home after this week at the Eiter Miller apartments on South Riverside avenue. As a going-away costume, Mrs. Rogers wore a fuchsia colored suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the groom's sister, Mrs. Culbertson of Seattle, Wash.; Miss Emily B. Heard of San Francisco, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ballmar and small son, Norman of Salem. Mrs. Ballmar is a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Rogers was graduated from Medford senior high school in 1944, and attended Principia college, Elmhurst, Ill., last year. Mr. Rogers, who was employed with United Airlines at San Francisco before entering the army air corps in October, 1942, was placed on the inactive list with the army this spring and has returned to the United Airlines office at the Medford airport. A graduate of Medford high school with the class of 1941, he served overseas in England as a pilot and first lieutenant.

Daughters of Nile Asked To Do Red Cross Sewing

All members of the Daughters of the Nile are asked to meet at the Jackson county courthouse Wednesday, Aug. 29, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. for Red Cross sewing. Officers state that sewing machines have been made available, and a large attendance is urged. Members are asked to bring sandwiches for lunch.

Barbara Sweeney, Carleton Fanger Marry in Dayton

The wedding of Miss Barbara Ann Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips B. Sweeney of Dayton, Ore., and Carleton George Fanger, radio technician third class, U. S. navy, took place Sunday evening, Aug. 12, at the Christian church in Dayton. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fanger, box 57, Jacksonville star route, Medford. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Dallas Meserve in a setting of candelabra with white tapers, baskets of blue hydrangeas, pink phlox and pastel gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with bodice of white satin and a net skirt over satin. Her full-length tulle veil fell from a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a white Bible with white orchid and satin streamers with bouvardia.

Miss Phyllis Marie Sweeney was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was of white floral taffeta, worn with a cap of flowers, and she carried a bouquet of pastel colored gladioli. Mrs. Frederick Blenz and Roxie Wright of McMinnville also attended the bride, in dresses of pink and light green taffeta with flower headresses. Little Joan Gross, in a pink organza and net dress, was flower girl and Sonny Sweeney, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Clifford Fanger, brother of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Fredrick Blenz, Dayton; John Ross, cousin of the bride, Prineville; and Mel Anderson, Portland. Miss Jeanne Margee, in a dress of blue net, and Miss Dorothy Zwick, in pink net, lit the candles. Mrs. Dallas Meserve, of Portland, sang "Through the Years," "Oh, Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a yellow floral crepe dress with white accessories, and the groom's mother a blue crepe gown with black accessories. Each had a gardenia and pink rose bud corsage.

At a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. W. S. U'ren cut the cake, and Mrs. Hardwick, Corvallis, and Mrs. Aduah Sweeney, Portland, poured for about 150 guests.

Mrs. Fanger is a senior student at Oregon State college, where the groom also attended school before entering the navy. As a going away costume, the bride chose a French blue dressmaker's suit with black accessories and white orchid corsage. After a short trip, the couple will go to Treasure Island where Mr. Fanger will be reassigned.

Among out of town relatives attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Kleit and family, Portland; Mrs. Mary Fanger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fanger and son Richard, Medford; Clifford Fanger, Portland; John E. Ross, Prineville; and Mrs. Walter Parker, Clackamas.

Berneice Beatty And William Kime Wed in California

Miss Berneice M. Beatty and Cpl. William N. Kime, both of Medford, were married at the army ground and service forces redistribution station at Santa Barbara, Calif., on Friday, Aug. 17, in a ceremony performed by Chaplain Harold E. Bottemiller. Miss Beatty makes her home at route 2, box 319-G, and Cpl. Kime is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kime, route 1, box 389.

Attended by a group of close friends, the couple repeated the wedding vows in the famed sea resort's Cottage Chapel. At a reception following the ceremony, they cut a special wedding cake presented by the army.

Cpl. Kime, a veteran of nine months' duty in France and Germany with a tank destroyer battalion, is resting at the California station preparatory to being reassigned.

Two Guests Visiting At Grants Pass Home

Miss Bebe Millsaps of Medford and Miss Jackie Fortin of Lake Creek are visiting at the home of their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Loren Farlow of Grants Pass.

Moore-Sherwood Wedding July 29; Home in Portland

Now living in Portland where the doctor is associated with the Osteopathic clinic are Dr. and Mrs. Russell R. Sherwood, who were married here in the recreation hall of the First Christian church July 29. Mrs. Sherwood, the former Mrs. Nina Moore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Maulding, Route 4, and the doctor's mother is Mrs. Kate Sherwood, 523 Newtown street.

The bridal party stood before a fireplace flanked by white and peach gladioli as the Rev. D. W. Daniels read the service. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Effie Kurtz sang "At Dawning," and "I Love You Truly," and Miss Vera Smith played the wedding marches. Candles were lighted by Mrs. M. E. Olson and Mrs. Eloise Winklebleck.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Clarence Canine, sister of the bride, and Stanley Sherwood, the groom's brother. The bride wore a blue gabardine suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage, and her matron of honor wore a pale yellow suit and hat with a corsage of white asters. Mrs. Maulding, mother of the bride, wore a sheer navy blue dress.

Dr. and Mrs. Sherwood spent a few days at Diamond lake, and returned to Medford before leaving for Portland to make their home. The doctor was with the Osteopathic Clinic here until six months ago when he left to become associated with the clinic in Portland. Mrs. Sherwood was honorably discharged June 18 from the WAC, after serving 18 months with an air force unit.

Lady JayCees Host To Junior Chamber At Party Saturday

Members of the Lady JayCees entertained the Junior Chamber of Commerce at a party last Saturday night, honoring the Junior Chamber softball team. The affair was a buffet supper served at 8:30 p. m. in the basement of the Medford hotel.

A "consolation trophy" was awarded by Mrs. Alan Jewett to Ed Niles, pitcher, who accepted it for the team.

Leisure Group Presents Gift

Mrs. Ben Music was presented a birthday gift by members of the Leisure Day club who met for a dessert luncheon Wednesday, Aug. 15, at the home of Mrs. John Gee, 19 Lincoln street.

Mrs. Curtis Tesson was a guest at the meeting, and the group spent the afternoon sewing.

Sojourners Meet For Dessert Bridge

Medford Sojourners met at the Girls' Community club Thursday for a one o'clock dessert, followed by an afternoon of cards. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Leo Hazel and Mrs. D. McCullough, and pinocchio prizes went to Mrs. J. W. Barnard and Mrs. H. Stahl. Mrs. C. Talbot and Mrs. William Herron also received prizes.

Prospective members present were Mrs. Ed Niles and Mrs. J. Lineker, and hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. J. W. Barnard, Mrs. W. Speele, and Mrs. M. Martin.

Cleanliness Is Guardian of Every Child's Health

Because you see to it that your child's food is carefully prepared, and that her face and hands are clean before meals and bedtime—you also make sure that her clothes and bedding are kept clean and changed frequently. We offer you the finest in laundry service.

At a morning ceremony July 25, at the Roman Catholic church here, Miss Lila (Pat) Bertram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bertram, 312 S. Riverside avenue, became the bride of Edward E. Ford, ship fitter first class, U. S. navy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Ford, Sr., 1114 West 8th street. Father Henry A. Orth read the double ring ceremony. Mr. Ford has reported for further duty with the navy now, and Mrs. Ford has resumed duties as secretary to City Superintendent Frank H. Rogers, Sr.

Harold Stevens, Detroit Bride Marry in East

News of the marriage of Miss June Bolling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bolling of Detroit, Mich., and Lt. (jg.) Harold H. Stevens, grandson of Mrs. Mary L. Page of 415 Laurel street, was received in Medford this week. The ceremony took place July 19 at the Lutheran church in Detroit.

A graduate of Medford high school, Lt. Stevens attended normal school in Ashland for two years before entering the navy air corps. He made his home here with his grandmother. Now stationed as a pilot at Wildwood, N. J., Lt. Stevens expects to receive an honorable discharge from the service soon, and will bring his bride to Medford.

Medford WAC Weds Army Man In Texas Rites

Miss Shirley Jean Roseberry, technician fifth grade in the Women's Army Corps and daughter of Thomas J. Roseberry of 29 S. Peach street, was married to Pfc. William H. Gotts, son of Mrs. Emma Wright, Detroit, Mich., on Aug. 11. Chaplain Andrew D. Dennis performed the ceremony at 6 o'clock in the evening in the post chapel at McCloskey general hospital, Temple, Texas.

The couple wore military uniforms for the service. The bride is stationed at McCloskey hospital in the 74th WAC hospital company, and Pfc. Gotts is a patient at the center.

Program Features Patriotic Theme

Carrying out a V-J day theme with patriotic red, white and blue colored decorations, a program featuring national songs and salute to the American flag was presented after the regular business and social meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday night at the I.O.O.F. hall.

Mrs. Katherine Fleming was in charge of arrangements, and she and her committee served refreshments in the dining room, where tables were arranged in a V-shaped design.

A social hour followed with games and cards under direction of Mrs. Ella Rogers.

California Couple Marry in Medford At Home Ceremony

Miss Marvel Jean Edwards and Edward Eugene Furnas, machinist's mate second class, both of Inglewood, Calif., were married at a 4 o'clock ceremony Thursday afternoon at the home of the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Furnas, 41 Rosa avenue. Rev. Wolford A. Dawes officiated.

Mr. Furnas was recently assigned to the new destroyer tender, U. S. S. Shenandoah, which was commissioned Aug. 15 at Tacoma, Wash. He wears the Pacific defense ribbon, Chinese theater ribbon with bronze star, and the Philippine theater ribbon with bronze star, having participated in both the Palau and Leyte invasions.

After the ceremony, the couple left for a brief trip to Crater lake before the groom reports back to his ship the first of next week.

VFW Will Elect Officers Tuesday At Central Point

Election of officers for the Central Point post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held Aug. 28 at 8 p. m. in the Modern Woodmen hall in Central Point, according to plans made at the first meeting of charter members held Aug. 14. Plans for institution of the lodge and installation of officers were made by the following men who signed the charter:

Harry B. Wales, Phillip J. Younsell, Wane Paul Vincent, Joseph E. Aroyast, Henry H. Taylor, Donald E. Ginn, Walter W. Hawley, Messe L. Semmon, Henry O. Walty, Roy A. Johnson, S. C. Kinsey, Messe H. Coleman, Ray Coleman, Marshall W. Day, Oscar M. Minnik, Wayman Warner, Seward W. Copenger and James C. Ross.

Invitations to attend the meeting Tuesday have been extended to members of post 2302 at Grants Pass, 1833, Medford, and 3423, Ashland, Department Commander Fredrickson, Past Commander Ira D. Canfield, and post commanders and members of all posts in district No. 11. District Commander V. J. Moran will also attend.

Walter W. Hawley acted as temporary chairman of the meeting Aug. 14.

Miss Mary Powell And William Kerr Marry in Oakland

Of interest to local friends is the recent marriage of Miss Mary M. Powell, WAVE pharmacist's mate third class and William T. Kerr, pharmacist's mate third class, which took place at the First Methodist church in Oakland, Calif. The Rev. E. L. Zartman read the double ring service before a candle-lit altar.

Attendants were Raymond Robbins, storekeeper second class, and Mrs. Robbins of Portland. The couple wore navy uniforms, and the bride had a corsage of gardenias and pink rose buds. Mrs. Robbins wore a pale blue suit with fuchsia accessories.

Mr. Kerr was a pharmacist before entering the navy, and is the son of Mrs. Ethel Kerr of Holliston, Mass. Mrs. Kerr, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Powell of Ashland, is a graduate of Ashland high school and Medford School of Beauty. At the time of her enlistment in the WAVES in February, 1944, she owned and operated a beauty shop in Portland. She has received training at Hunter's college, New York, the navy hospital corps school at Bethesda, Md., and Oakland navy hospital.

Mr. Kerr is stationed at present on Treasure Island, awaiting shipment overseas, and Mrs. Kerr is continuing her work at the Oakland hospital.

Couple Married In Church Rites At Rogue River

Rogue River—A garden setting arranged in the Presbyterian church here was the scene of the wedding last week of Miss Jayne Murray and Jesse Miller, storekeeper second class, U. S. navy. The Rev. Elvin Hess officiated at the double ring ceremony and the couple stood beneath an ivy covered arch. A small white picket fence and arrangements of summer flowers completed the church decorations.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Maxine Groves, and best man for the groom was his brother, Sgt. Charles Miller.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Murray, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Miller. Both families reside on the north bank, Evans creek road.

Couples Marry At Local Chapel

The Chapel of the Rocks and Roses on South Oakdale avenue was the scene of a number of weddings for out-of-town couples this week, at which the Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremonies.

Services were held for Rachel V. Daniels and Walter Lee Loftin, both of Grants Pass; Dorothy Marion Albertson and Roy Milton Dunn, both Klamath Falls; Loretta Gretchen Bradley of Grants Pass and Matthew Mann David of Sacramento, Calif.; and Verlene Keith Johnson of Oregon City and Joseph Marion Smith, U. S. navy. All the couples were accompanied by friends and relatives.

Medford People Return From Two Weeks Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. Corbin Edgell, and Mrs. Ralph Norris have returned to Medford after spending two weeks at Carmel, Calif.

Leilla McGraw Becomes Bride Of Ben Sparks

Miss Leilla McGraw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McGraw, 501 Summit avenue, and Ben F. Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sparks of Howard district, were married at the home of the bride's parents Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. M. E. Tisdil of the Church of Christ read the service before immediate relatives of the couple.

Miss McGraw wore an aqua colored crepe afternoon dress with fuchsia accessories and sweet peas. The couple left immediately after the ceremony on a trip north, and on their return plan to make their home in Medford.

Mrs. Sparks was graduated from Eagle Point high school in 1942, and has been employed at the Southern Oregon Credit Bureau for the past year. Mr. Sparks has just returned to the city with an honorable discharge from the army, received at Fort Lewis, Wash., after serving 41 months in the South Pacific with the 41st Infantry Division. Leaving Medford with the National Guard unit, he was last rated as a technical sergeant.

Shower Honors Mrs. R. Zundell

Mrs. Russell Zundell was complimented at a pink and blue shower Wednesday afternoon, following a covered dish luncheon held by members of the Royal Neighbors of America Mistletoe club at the Girls' Community club house.

The committee in charge of the affair was the Mesdames Josie Grantham, Leona Castle, Jessie Laign and Dessa Hall.

The next meeting will be held the second Wednesday in September when members are asked to bring afghan squares.

Women's Society Meeting Tuesday In Church Parlor

Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet Tuesday in the church parlor for the regular session at 2 p. m. Mrs. Harry Meyers, president, states that there will be no executive meeting. Mrs. Martha circle will have charge of the program and members of the Priscilla circle will serve refreshments.

HERE THEY ARE! What You've Been WAITING FOR

Recordings of GERSHWIN by Charlie Spivak Dinah Shore Andre Kostelanetz Indianapolis Symphony Boston Pops

Interpreting the music of America's own beloved composer through the THREE LEADING RECORD COMPANIES, represented at

PRUITT'S MUSIC CENTER 111 West Main Street

ADRIENNE'S Special Showing - August Fur Sale

Fine Furs with a Lovely Future

Your Favorite Fur at Pre-Season Prices

Be it Persian, glossy black or softly grey Muskrat in rich sable-blend or subtle shadings of silver-blue... you'll find the fur of your choice in our advance collection, priced at pre-season levels. Stop in soon while the choice is widest.

- Silver Fox
- Ermine
- Mouton
- Mink Dyed
- Squirrel Locke and Grey Dyed
- Bombay Lamb
- Persian Paws
- Caraculs
- Coney's Silver Blue Opossum
- Natural Red Fox
- Lamb Lynx
- Leonard Lapin
- Mouton Trimmed

Priced from $95.00 up to $1500.00

3 MORE DAYS of 5c SALE

- DRESSES
- SUITS
- SWEATERS
- BLOUSES
- BAGS
- COATS
- SKIRTS
- SHORTS

Buy One at Ceiling Price. Get An Extra Garment for 5c. This Includes Entire Summer Stock!

ADRIENNE'S

BREAD IS AT ITS BEST for ENERGY when it's

Morning FRESH BREAD

Ambulance Service Lady Attendant

Perl's FUNERAL HOME

426 WEST SIXTH ST.

TO BE Treasured

Price alone does not make a bargain. When you select your Engagement and Wedding rings, choose a jeweler whom you can depend upon. Our integrity and experience will be your security and our best recommendation. We recommend Cassius Orange Blossom Rings because of their fine quality and beautiful craftsmanship. $95.00 to $345.00

Cassius Blossom Lawrence's

Jewelry and Gift Shop

Carving the same High Class Jewelry found in the best stores in the largest cities. Individually "Treasured"