CRATERS, STUDS TO CLASH TODAY

Medford Craters will close their 1945 baseball season at the Fairgrounds Park at 2:30 p. m. today when they meet Central Point Studs for third place in the Shaughnessy playoffs of the Southern Oregon league.

Paul Freer, Crater manager, said he has learned Dick Kidwell, one of the Craters' mainstays on the mound, has promised to pitch for the Studs today. Freer said if Kidwell shows up in a Stud uniform he will oppose Ted Bergold, south-paw soldier, on the Crater hill.

Klamath Falls Navy and Klamath Marines will clash in Klamath Falls today for the Shaughnessy championship.

Closing time for Sunday Too Late to Classify 4:00 Saturday afternoon. Please remember.

BY NELSON TURNS ON HEAT TO JUMP TO SECOND PLACE

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 1—(U.P.)—Byron Nelson, Toledo, O., turned on the heat in the second round of the $13,533 Nashville open today and shot a seven-under-par 64 to jump from 17th to second place, only three strokes back of his long-time rival, Ben Hogan.

Playing an unbeatable brand of golf, Nelson started the round auspiciously with an eagle three on the 513-yard par five hole. He missed putts for birdies on the next three but finished the nine exceptionally with three birdies on the last five holes, marred by a bogey on the par three eighth for a 33, four under par.

On the second nine, the former Texas caddy birdied three holes, playing the others in regulation figures. Always a master of his irons, Nelson was particularly accurate today, nailing the ball to the pin time and again from anywhere within 200 yards of the green.

But little Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., still was top man, finishing the second round with a 67 over the par 72, Richland course for a 36-hole total of 131 compared to Nelson's 134. Hogan, displaying all the talent for which he was known before the war, shot a 64 yesterday while Nelson slipped to a 70.

Babe Zaharias Wins Broadmoor Classic

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 1—(U.P.)—Babe Didrikson Zaharias, now of Denver, today added the Broadmoor Women's Invitation golf crown to her long list of trophies.

After trailing a new comer to golfdom past the halfway mark in the fourth annual tournament's 36-hole title classic here, "the Babe" broke—and the spectators say she ran—into the open finally to win 6 and 4 from Dot Kletly of Los Angeles.

DETROIT KNOCKS FELLER FROM BOX TO BEAT INDIANS

Senators Defeat Yankees—Vince DiMaggio Ties Homer Record

New York, Sept. 1—(U.P.)—The Detroit Tigers, whose slump started when they suffered a four-hit defeat at the hands of Cleveland's Bob Feller Aug. 24, were back on the track today after knocking Feller out of the box in a 5 to 4 victory over the Indians.

Feller was not the losing pitcher, since he was removed in the midst of Detroit's two-run seventh-inning rally which tied the score at 4 to 4.

Tobin was the winner when Borom led off the ninth with his fifth hit in five times at bat advanced to third on Greenberg's single and scored when York felled an intentional pass with a clean single to center field.

It was Detroit's second win in seven games since Feller beat them, and maintained their American league lead at a game and a half.

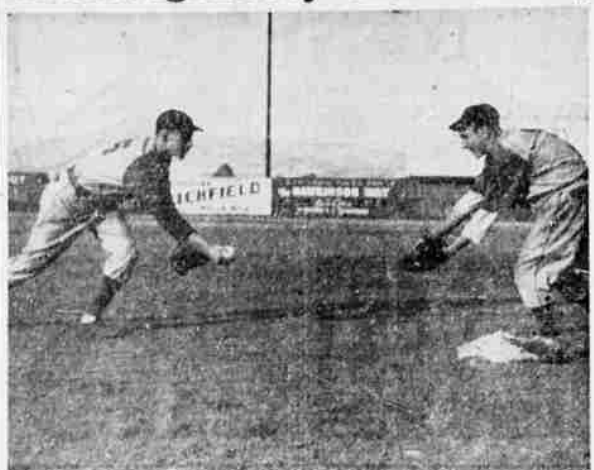

Alex Carrasquel, a full-blooded Venezuelan Indian, turned in a magnificent pitching performance as Washington cooled off the New York Yankees, 3 to 0.

In the National league, Vince DiMaggio of the Philadelphia Phils tied a major league mark by hitting his fourth bases-full homer as the Phils tripped Boston, 8 to 3. Frank Schultze of the Chicago Cubs in 1911, Babe Ruth of the Boston Red Sox in 1919, Lou Gehrig of the Yankees in 1934 and Rudy York of Detroit in 1938 also hold the record.

Bill Jurges' eighth-inning homer gave New York a 5 to 4 victory over Brooklyn in a wild game in which the winners made three errors and the Dodgers two. Branca gave the Giants three hits and 10 walks in six innings, but the Dodgers tied it in the eighth on Stevens' homer.

Attendance of 19,776 at the Polo Grounds boosted the season gate to 941,198 spectators, a new record.

BASEBALL TREAT ON TAP MONDAY AT FAIRGROUNDS

Medford's biggest baseball treat in several years comes to the Fairgrounds park tomorrow night when the Fort Lewis Warriors cross bats with the Southern Oregon All-Stars, made up of players from the Klamath Falls Naval Air Station, Klamath Falls Marine Barracks and the Medford Craters.

The Warriors have several big league stars on their roster; holders of major league contracts but now doing time in the armed service of their country.

Beat PCL Teams
Fort Lewis recently took on Oakland and Los Angeles of the Coast League in a double header and emerged on the long end of 3-1 and 5-3 scores. Portland, currently heading the coast loop, has extended a cold shoulder to invitations to face the Warriors.

Warrior officials claim they have three times had games scheduled with the Seattle Rainiers only to have the coast leaguers cancel out each time.

Gale Bishop, Washington State basketball great, is one of the few Warriors who does not hold a big league contract. But Bishop has been watched closely this year by Joe Devine of the New York Yankees who pronounces him as a sure-fire major leaguer at second base.

Kelleher in Lineup
Frank Kelleher, who led the Coast league with 80 home runs last season while with the Hollywood Stars, is another who is not in the top circuit but can go up to the big time whenever he chooses. Ford Mullen, under contract to the Philadelphia Phillies, is an ex-University of Oregon star. Don Johnson, speed-ball pitcher with the New York Yankees, is a former Portland Legion player and was a diamond star at Jefferson high school in Portland.

Paul Freer, who will manage the All-Stars, said he will start Pat Patterson of the Navy, himself a speed ball chucker, on the hill with "Bo" Bogarski, Marines, doing the receiving.

Cliff Proctor, president of the Medford Athletic association, sponsors of the game, said there will be an increase in admission prices due to the added cost of bringing the Warriors to Medford.

BABICH PITCHES OAKS TO 3-2 WIN

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 1—(U.P.)—The Oakland Aacorns took a 4-1 edge in their current series with Hollywood when they captured a 3-2 victory today behind the steady hurling of Johnny Babich.

The game was a pitcher's battle between Babich and Steve Legault who permitted the Oaks only eight safeties. Babich, in registering his fourth victory of the season, walked two men, gave up six hits and didn't strike out a man.
